Today's Message

"Right Things for the Wrong Reasons"

Luke 11:37-54 - Jesus invites us to identify with the woes he is pronouncing on the Pharisees and lawyers. These woes are meant to help us see how we could do the right things for the wrong reasons and then turn from our sinful ways that we might live the way God wants us to.

Reflection Questions

1. Which woe do you think applies the most to you? Once you have identified that, spend some time with Jesus asking specifically how you can practically turn to Him.
2. Is there anything in your life that is supposed to be a means to an end but has become an end in itself? Is church one of those things for you? Why or why not?

Join us in Prayer for...

- Dave & Jenny's son David has been diagnosed with Lupus, an auto-immune disease. He is in Adult Care in Vidant Greenville.
- Pray for Jenny F as she is the main caregiver for her mother, Grace A. Pray that additional care-giving can be arranged.
- Jan DH's kidney biopsy has been done . They are waiting for results. Pray that they are benign. If they are not, pray for wisdom for Jan and Arie as they decide how to proceed.
- Pray for Gerda's co-worker, Frank in Hospice care.
- Pastor Garrett read a letter from David S. David thanks us for our prayers and he is also praying for us. Pray that David's faith remains strong.
- Pray for Marshall Lilly as he recovers from kidney stone removal surgery.
- The surgery on Anna Windley, John, Anne and Audrey's neighbor, was done on Monday. It turned out to be more extensive than anticipated. They are waiting for biopsy results. Her hospital stay will be 7-10 days.
