Anniversary Greetings from

PASTOR BILL V

Sandy and I love Terra Ceia CRC and thank God for his faithfulness to your church. We love you and will celebrate with you from afar.

PETE L

We loved this church family. So many wonderful memories: worship services, potlucks, young people's activities, weddings, and hours of conversations over coffee and cookies in the fellowship room.

PASTOR MARK K & FAMILY

What a milestone 90 years is for a congregation! I have been fortunate enough to be a very small part of that story. I have to say, Terra Ceia CRC feels like a home away from home for me and my family. Every time we visit, you welcome us with open arms. One of the great privileges I've had over the past 13 years is being invited to lead y'all in worship, only to find myself on the receiving end of such profound warmth, hospitality, and generosity. The Lord has used you in great and mighty ways over the years. He has been honored and glorified through the faithful preaching of the Word, the proper administration of the sacraments, and the faithful exercise of church discipline. As our confessions state, these are the marks of a true church. Ultimately, however, these marks testify to the abiding presence and work of the Holy Spirit in your midst for decades and decades. Your compassion for others, your desire to serve the needy and vulnerable, and your faithful presence as a Reformed congregation in the South do not go unnoticed. It's not easy work, but you have tilled with southern gusto! We thank the Lord for you, and we entrust the next 90 years into God's sovereign hands as you step forward into the future. We would have loved to be a part of this weekend, but other commitments have kept us back in Apex. But we know for certain you will celebrate and eat well!

HUGH VS

I have many great memories of Terra Ceia CRC. We left Terra Ceia in December 1963 for New York. I was raised where Terra Ceia Farms is now located so we were at the church often. ·

PASTOR DANTA

Happy Anniversary from Higher Calling Christian Reformed Church (Smithfield).
