

Think About It...

99 thoughts that I wanted to share

"My mom always told me to keep life

as simple as a #2 pencil." - Johnnie E. Williams III

A thought Journal...

Think About It...

Think About It..., is a thought journal that I've created to share my reflections with you. This is my first collection of quotes and questions that I hope you will take some time to think about.

Think About It...

Johnnie Williams has 17 years experience working with young people and adults. He provides motivation and encouragement through a process of storytelling and metaphors that relate to real world experiences. Through hundreds of presentations internationally and nationally, he has created a number of thoughtful sayings and quotes that touch the hearts and minds of people. Mr. Williams' quotes will stimulate students and adults to create new visions and goals for their future.

Dr. Charlotte Curtis, Nevada Department of Education

P.S. The quotes are marvelous. I can't think of any current author who has created so many wise & witty sayings.

The 1st thing that was on my mind

You don't have to be great at something to get started, but you got to get started to ever become great at it. - Johnnie E. Williams III

What is something you really want to do, but won't allow yourself to try for fear of failing?

What will your first step be to overcome this concern?

And, who can you enlist to help you develop in this area?

The 2nd thing that was on my mind

My dreams flourish at night, then fade in the reality of daylight, so now I allow myself time to day dream.' - Johnnie E. Williams III

What dream replays itself each night, that you ignore all day ?

What will be your first step to act upon it ?

And, what exact date and time will you begin ?

The 3rd thing that was on my mind

Today, I took my own advice... And it worked!
You should try listening to your inner voice more often." - Johnnie E. Williams III

What has your heart been trying to say to you?

What would happen if you actually listened?

And, what has happened as a result of not listening?

The 4th thing that was on my mind

Who you were yesterday produced today's results; use today to unlock tomorrow's doors and keep evolving. - Johnnie E. Williams III

What are you impressed with, that you've already accomplished?

What are two things that you will do to improve upon yourself?

And, how will these things add value?

The 5th thing that was on my mind

Silence allows me to co-exist with anyone, but communication allows for a meaningful relationship to grow. - Johnnie E. Williams III

What current relationship do you have, that exists on silence?

What do you need to say to this person?

And, how do you think they will respond?
