Dear Father McNaughton:

I spoke with the Archbishop and he has granted permission for the Episcopalians to use the Church at Mill City for Mid-week Services. There is no need for you to see him on this matter.

He also mentioned, however, he would like to see you a week from Friday; that is, on August 8th sometime in the morning. He didn't give a time. Perhaps you can call Mrs. Johnston to make sure.

With every best wish, I remain

Sincerely yours in Christ,

My dear Father James,

Congratulations - belatedly - on the jubilee,
and cordial thanks for the Mythewood plaque. I should scold you for your estrangement, but in this instance will make an exception!

I do hope things are going along well with
you. I suppose summer brings extra "trade" at Detroit - although the unreasonable chill might hold many back. But summer must be "a-cumin in" one of these days.

May your next 25 be blessed and happy in the service of the Lord - and

Yours faithfully,

The Most Reverend Robert J. Dwyer.

Your Grace:

As chaplain of the Knights of Columbus, St. Anthony Council, I have been requested to extend an invitation to you.

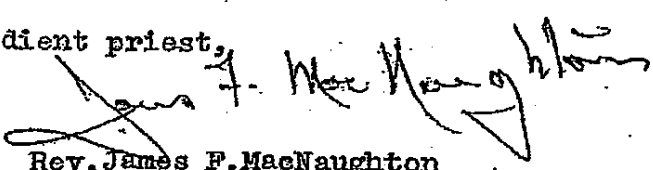

This Council, founded in Sublimity is composed of this entire area. On February 25, they would like to hold a celebration for their 50 years as a council in this area.

They have requested me to ask the honor of having you here to celebrate the Mass and deliver the sermon. They have suggested Sunday, February 25, 10 A.M. at St. Boniface Church in Sublimity. This or an adjusted date and time at your convenience would fit their plans. Father Gadbois is in accord with any arrangement.

Personally, I do pray that you will be able to come, these men need you to pick them up and rewind their clocks.

Each day you are very special in my prayers and Mass that your health will improve and your firm leadership and instruction will not waver.

your obedient priest,

Rev. James F. MacNaughton

My dear Father MacNaughton,

I have your letter and will be happy to come to Sublimity on February 25 to offer Mass at 10 o'clock for the Knights on their 50th anniversary. I do have a dinner engagement with the Holy Name Society that evening, so my stay cannot be too prolonged. Would Saturday evening be a better choice if the Knights are thinking of a dinner?

With all good wishes, I am

Your Grace:

We want you to know that Rev. James McNaughton conducted a retreat for the handicapped on the weekend of May 19-21, 1973. Father's affable manner was indeed a blessing to the lame, the crippled and the blind who attended this special weekend.

Father proved to be an excellent retreat master and we will invite him to give additional retreats in the future. We recently asked him to conduct a retreat for Mothers and daughters but he did not have the time to do so.

We are finding that a variety of retreat masters seems to be working out quite well here at Our Lady Of Peace your Grace.

We, your Franciscan Sisters, indeed were honored by your presence on July 9th.

With esteem for your holy office and your priesthood

Respectfully,

January 30, 1974

Dear Archbishop Dwyer:

This is a letter which I should have written several months ago, but could not seem to do, despite the urgings of some priest friends.

About a year and a half ago, personal grief and a variety of events brought about a crisis of faith for me and left me as the salt without savor. As a result I did let the whole scene get to me, that is, Detroit, Mill City and the Marian Home. I totally neglected my duties and did not accomplish anything constructive. I could not seem to "get off the ground", everything I touched seemed to fail.

The crisis of faith has been over for many months and a desire to come closer to Christ is more than it has ever been in my life. After Christmas I made a good 8 day retreat and had a medical check up. The priests have all told me it is time for a change, but like everything else I kept delaying this letter.

For my own spiritual, physical and mental health I beg for a transfer as soon as possible. I am ineffective at Mill City. The Marian home is up for sale, Sister has purchased land near Molina and is planning to move up there to a house she is building (this is another story). I must put my hand to a fresh plow.

I do not feel that I would be comfortable in a rectory with another priest. Most of my 28 years I have lived alone and been my own housekeeper.

I still have the dog, 11 years now. Any place, no matter how small, insignificant or isolated would be welcome. I would like to start anew and work hard. I have an insight into myself that I have never had before. Again, most of my life has been spent in rural and far away areas. Just for instance not as a request but as an example. Brookings is not far away to me.

This station at the Marian Home and Mill City (24 families) is just right for retired or semi-retired. I have tried to interest Fr. Fritz, he covered for me while I was on retreat.

But I have reached the point of not sleeping, not eating and difficulty in reading and praying as I fight my windmills. I feel like a perpetual shrug, just defeated in this element. My faith keeps me here.

Any consideration that you can give me to a fresh start, especially with all the problems you must have, will be appreciated.

Yours in obedience in Christ.

Thank you for your letter. I am truly happy to hear that you are in better spirits these days. We all have our dark moments, but God gives us the grace to rise above them if we cooperate with Him.

I appreciate your anxiety to find a place where you can be at home. At the moment I cannot think of anything suitable, but if anything shows up before I leave you will be in mind. And I shall recommend the move to the new Archbishop when he takes over.

Reverend James Mac Noughton has been pastor of Saint Anthony's Catholic Parish, Waldport, Oregon, for five years. He has endeared himself to this coastal community because of his warmth, humor, and deep respect for persons. He has energetically and artistically remodeled and beautified the church interior, expanded the parish meeting areas to facilitate community meetings for recreation, study or planning. All the areas he has filled with a variety of potted and hanging plants. His ecumenical out-reach is superb! The local protestant ministers are his best friends. Yesterday his parish farewell dinner was held at the Presb. Hall because it is largest in town and needed to accommodate his many friends. I speak designedly of these homey-style attributes of Father Mac because the qualities reflected above are the very ones that would most enrich his ministry of clinical pastoral counseling with the ill, the dying, and their families. He exudes warmth and sensitivity needed in that role.

Under the Federal Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, students have the right to review their records, including letters of recommendation.

Dear Father Stape -

This is a letter asking advice -
I didn't want to write to the Arch Bishop - and I really need advice -

Father Macmorton, does his own books - and evidently needs help; but wants to do it him self - The fact that I had been doing books for previous Priests - the Banker
Carl Atkins, at First Nat. Bank coming to me asking what he should do about Brother Mac writing checks when he doesn't have money to cover it - last week

it was 100.00 over; but as of yesterday he was only 200.00 behind. I told the Banker to send the checks back;
I don't know what else to do.

Father Mac gives wonderful sermons & has done a lot to improve the appearance of our little Church; and I hate to → over

do anything to hurt him. - I just didn't know what I should do about this ~~problem~~ problem.
I have had the ^{Elec.} Power Co. come to me - also Businesses around town. It is embarrassing for our Church, which has before had this problem.

Dear Mr. Barberis:

I telephoned you today concerning a bill due us dated November 2, 1973 for $158.97 for Reverend James McNaughton covering a Judges Chair that has never been paid.

We are having a great deal of difficulty collecting this money rightfully due us.

We wrote you on August 6, 1975 concerning this matter but have never received a response. We would appreciate hearing from you by return mail for which we enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.

Respectfully yours,

RE:

I remember speaking with you some six or eight months ago about Father James McNaughton and his irresponsible handling of personal and parish funds. Could you document some of this so that I can use it in confronting him with the problems so that he will either correct them or take an assignment, if we have one, which will not involve Church funds. He is not an incardinated priest, and it may be necessary for me to have him return to his diocese.

RE: The Reverend James McNaughton

Since 1972 Father McNaughton has been experiencing doubts as to his effectiveness in his vocation, consequently his attention to his responsibilities has been very lax. However, I have had occasion to talk to the Sisters at the nursing home and they spoke very highly of him in his work there.

In addition to his lack of attention to his parish responsibilities, I have had two or more inquiries from creditors regarding his personal affairs. Also there are rumors, which I cannot substantiate, about his payment of parish obligations, both in Mill City and Waldport.

Dear Father:

Just a short note asking for information.

For several weeks I have been trying to reach Father James Mac Naughton, the pastor of St. Anthony's Church, Walport. The parish is one of our customers for the Liguorian Parish Education Bulletins as well as our Liguorian Pamphlet and books. The present balance due for both of these divisions is $176.52.

I have sent several letters but I received no reply. Is it possible that I should be sending my letters to another person? Has Father Mac Naughton been transferred?

Any help that you may be able to give me will be sincerely appreciated.

May God continue to bless you and your work.

Sincerely,

Dear Father McNaughton:

Would you be good enough to try to arrange to come to Portland Tuesday, February 10, to see me at 1 p.m. on that day.

What I would like to talk to you about is the fact that you seem not to realize that you as Administrator of a parish have the obligation of taking up certain non-parochial collections such as Mission Sunday, Roman Development, Overseas Relief, etc. I find that while you were in Mill City you forwarded no monies to the Chancery for these collections, and you are following the same pattern in Waldport. I am sure you have reasons for your "non-action," and I would like to hear what they are.

Thanking you for your consideration of this request, and with all good wishes, I am

I cannot understand why you have not acknowledged my letter of January 28, in which I asked you to try to arrange to visit me in Portland on February 10. I think it is completely reasonable that I expect a priest to make some acknowledgment of this type of request. More than a month has passed since you must have received the letter.

I still wish to see you, and I would therefore ask that you try to arrange to see me in Portland Monday, March 22, at 1 p.m.

Reverend and dear Father:

I am asking your assistance in a problem involving a couple in the parish. This couple was married about fifteen years by Fr. James McNaughton, who at that time was in this diocese of San Diego.

For some reason Fr. McNaughton failed to record the marriage and so the couple is not legally married. The state insists that he sign a paper stating that he performed the ceremony.

I sent such a paper to Fr. McNaughton at St. Anthony's Church, Waldport, Oregon about six weeks ago for his signature but he has not replied yet.

This has been a long, tedious and irritating process for the couple involved, which has been trying to locate him for many years.

Your assistance will be deeply appreciated.

Sincerely

Michael O'Day, Pastor.

Dear Archbishop Power:

Somewhere there is a misunderstanding, or better a missing letter. During the period that you first wrote me I was in Los Angeles for three weeks making a visit to my 87 year old mother who is with the little sisters of the poor. It was my first real visit in two years and I prolonged it because she knew who I was, which was the first time in five years, she is all I have as family. I did not arrive back until Friday the 13th and opened my mail on Saturday the 14th, on Sunday the 15th I wrote to you, explaining why I did not see you on the 10th and asked for a new date to see you.

I would like very much to see you, may I ask however if this date of March 22 be postponed at least a week. Last week I suffered an abscessed tooth and then finally caught the flu which has laid me low as far as any strength goes and my chest is still very congested, to top this off something has happened to give me passing blurred vision and a loss of balance, so I am not driving. The doctor told me if this did not go away as a side effect of the flu that I would go to the Clinic in Eugene on March 22 and 23 for tests. For this reason I would appreciate a new appointment.

With best wishes for your improvement in health,

I remain yours in Christ

Dear Father MacNaughton,

Because you sent Easter greetings to me I said a prayer for you. Not only that, I am offering a novena of Masses for those I heard from on the Feast of the Lord's Resurrection. The Risen Lord certainly will bless them.

Someone has said this so well in verse. I would like to share the poem with you, because it tells you what my prayers for you said.

I said a prayer for you today
And know that God must have heard;
I felt the answer in my heart,
Although He spoke no word!
I didn't ask for wealth or fame;
I knew you wouldn't mind.
I asked Him to send treasures
Of a far more lasting kind.
I asked that He'd be near you,
At the start of each new day;
To grant you health and blessings,
And friends to share your way.
I asked for happiness for you,
In all things great and small;
But it was for His loving care,
I prayed the most of all.

Wishing you all of the joys and blessings of this Easter season,
I remain

Devotedly yours in Christ,

My Dear Archbishop:

I have for the past two and a half years been in contact with Father MacNaughton from The Catholic Community of St. Anthony, Waldport, Oregon, and since September of 1975 with your Chancellor, Father Jacobberger, regarding an outstanding bill of Father MacNaughton's with my company.

I have sent Father Jacobberger all information regarding this bill; have discussed it with Father on different occasions asking that the bill be paid - and I keep being told that my patience is appreciated, but still no check has been forthcoming.

I direct this to you now, asking that you intercede and take any appropriate steps or action to see that a check is sent to us for the ledgers which were ordered by Father MacNaughton and which were billed and shipped in August of 1974.

The total bill amounts to $52.69, with no additional charge for several phone calls. I do request payment promptly. I do ask that you see to it that this matter is taken care of.

RE:

I have been trying for over a week to contact Father MacNaughton. I even tried early Sunday afternoon. At no time was I able to find him at home. No one answers the telephone. I wanted to talk to him about the attached letter from Catholic Record Form Company, and to arrange an appointment for me to see him at the office.

Would you undertake to call him every five minutes (a little exaggerated) until you succeed in reaching him; find out whether he has paid the bill and why he has not responded to my request of a month ago to let me know, etc. I would appreciate it if, when you have him on the line, you will check with Carol for an appointment when I will be able to see him at the office, and you and Alex, and maybe Bob, if necessary, would also be available.

If he has not sent his check, tell him to put it in the mail immediately.

As soon as you can would you write to Mr. Cashin and tell him that we have received his letter and that we thought we would have his check in the mail long before this, but that we have been meeting the same kind of problem that has faced him during the last several years. You can assure him that we will keep on top of the matter until the matter has reached a satisfactory conclusion.

Thank you.
