Ray 11

The Ray of Blending is golden pink in color and allows the masculine and feminine within to blend into a state of divine union. As this ray is embraced, issues surrounding the imbalance between the masculine and feminine within are addressed by the initiate.

As Ray 11 is embodied, the mental body, the emotional body, and the etheric body are unified with the Light Body. The emotional body is equivalent to what is left of the negative ego or inner feminine based on fear. The fragmentation of the emotional body has resulted in a sense of loneliness prevalent within humanity. As the emotional body is unified, this sense of loneliness is transcended. The mental body is equivalent to what is left of the ego or inner masculine based on fear. The fragmentation of the mental body has resulted in the experience of the need to compete with others. As the mental body is unified, the need to compete is transcended. The fragmented etheric body is the cause of the fear of death within humanity. As the etheric body is unified, the fear of death is transcended.

Races that Lost the Ability to Love

The invasive and destructive beings that invaded our creation so long ago are genetically related to other third dimensional races presently incarnate within our Universe known as the Greys and the Illuminati, as well as a twelfth dimensional race known as the Andromedans. Both the Greys, the Illuminati, and the Andromedans have a similar genetic problem that must also be solved. Each of these races have lost the ability to love. As a result of the loss of love within form, evolution within our Creation has become based on the attainment of power through control and abuse rather than the attainment of power through love and compassion. The Order of Dari is responsible for anchoring a new blueprint for all of third, fifth, and twelfth dimensional form that will call for a genetic restructuring such as each race embraces love and compassion before they take their next evolutionary leap.

The Greys are well documented by many authors. It is our wish to touch on the genetic karma between the Greys and the human form so that initiates may address these issues within their own Ascension. A portion of the White Race is a result of the Greys mating with Aztec and Mayan women about 7,500 years ago. The Greys, who have time-travel capabilities, saw their own future impending cataclysm upon Earth's upcoming Ascension, and discerned that the best way to keep control of humanity was to mix their genetics with ours. Such a mixture creates karma or agreements that become inherent within our genetic structure. In blending the genetics from the Greys with the Aztec and Mayan Races, the resultant white human form lost a portion of their ability to feel. As a result, a portion of the white race became abusive, controlling and manipulative, and ventured forth to war upon and conquer other races.

With a loss of emotions, compassion is also lost, which leads ultimately to present day pain and abuse prevalent within civilization. Not all of the white race has lost the ability to feel.

With a loss of emotions, compassion is also lost, which leads ultimately to present day pain and abuse prevalent within civilization. Within the masculine form, the emotional body became fractured into many pieces as a result of the genetic blending with the Greys. This fracturing makes it impossible for a white male to feel as deeply as a female, at least until it is healed. This fracturing is repaired as an initiate transcends their 24th initiation, and the emotional body is unified with the Light Body (see above Ray 11, ray of blending).
