

MMW-6

What Does Becoming Christed Really Mean?

In attaining the state of the Christ, it requires the complete acceptance and embracing of one's dark side or the destroyer and the destroyed within. Each of us, in our many incarnations, have been both the destroyer and the destroyed, the accepted and the rejected, the user and the used, the honored and the dishonored, the judge and the judged, the loved and the hated. Unconditional Love finds the middle road between the two polarities and sees the unification of love and hate.

In so doing, one's own tendencies to destroy, to dishonor, to judge, to reject, to use, or to hate are embraced thereby enabling the initiate to have compassion and embrace others who exhibit their dark sides and behavior. In embracing and forgiving their own dark side, the need to exhibit such behavior also becomes a thing of the past. The repression of one's dark side has resulted in the need to create an image or mask which has limited the full self-expression of emotions within humanity. For those who are not aware of what an image or mask is, it is the false persona that hides the true person or soul inside. An example of a false persona is one who appears consistently loving and hides their abusiveness and anger within. Running an image is the cause of repressed emotions. An image usually not only limits the experience of pain, anger and fear, but also can limit the experience of love, joy, and celebration.

The result of running an image is often the experience of detachment, boredom, loneliness, and addictive behavior. In becoming Christed, all masks and images have been gradually peeled away during the Ascension process allowing for the full expression of all emotions which results in a new sense of aliveness and creative expression. This leads to the ability to embrace and experience the joy and celebration of one's existence, along with the ability to feel and move the pain, anger, or fear. The armoring of the heart chakra is released along with the image or mask.

There are layers of pain that are built into the energetic patterning of our genetics that close down the heart chakra almost from birth. These layers of pain do not allow for two people to truly connect and experience intimacy. As the layers of pain are gradually released throughout the Ascension process, the heart opens allowing for a new heightened experience of intimacy and communion. It is when two or more hearts connect that a new sense of community-based on love becomes possible, as well as a new form of relationship. The open heart also allows for the experience of communion with nature and God. A new form of intimate relationship becomes possible between two who are Christed.

It is within the state of ecstasy that the vibration of Unconditional Love truly resonates. The vibration of ecstasy has the greatest impact on each and every person that the initiate comes into contact with, regardless of what they are doing. It is human nature to believe that one must accomplish something important or succeed in the world in order to be of value. We would like to point out that the current vibrational stewards of your planet are the dolphins and whales. Whales and dolphins co-hold the frequency on Earth with God. Dolphins and whales exist in a state of ecstasy, and have no need to found large corporations, seek fame or fortune, rule the world, or any of the many other experiences humans consider to be successful. Yet whales and dolphins succeed at doing what humans were originally intended to do, and do so while in a state of ecstasy.

So often, ascending initiates want to know What is my soul's purpose on Earth? We are here to tell you that each and every human being's soul's purpose on Earth is to do everything that one does in a state of ecstasy. With that, each human being can become the vibrational steward of Mother Earth that humanity was always intended to be.

The current experience of relationship prior to Ascension is one that is based on polarity or opposites. Couples are attracted to one another because they are opposite, and this is actually a necessity within polarity to keep the energy in balance. It also creates disharmony within relationship because the couple cannot understand one another. A good example of this is the logical, analytical male who is attracted to the highly intuitive emotional female, which results in an explosive partnership. As a couple within this sort of relationship become Christed, the masculine and feminine come to balance within each party. The female will begin to integrate her analytical, logical capabilities, and the male will begin to integrate his intuitive and emotional capabilities. This results in a new form of relationship between equals who truly can understand one another.

Anger is still a necessary emotion on your plane of reality at this juncture of history, and even one who is Christed will continue to experience anger from time to time. When one represses their rage, which is a result of an image, it can result in passive-aggressive and abusive behavior as the pent-up rage is released. As the initiate's image is shed, the result is that all emotions are felt including anger. As the initiate feels their own anger, they are able to define appropriate boundaries with everyone that they come into contact with which results in the appropriate use of anger in a non-abusive way.

In becoming Christed, all sense of worship must be transcended as well as the need to be worshipped by others. There is a tendency for those on the spiritual path to exalt their mentors, whether they be on the physical plane or the inner plane and see them as perfect or all-knowing. It is also the trap of our current leadership to become enamored with the worship of their audience.

As worship is transcended, it allows the initiate to embody a sense of equality with everyone on the physical and nonphysical planes of reality. The state of equality is vital to cocreation with God. Co-creation with God is analogous to a feedback system. The initiate gives feedback from within physicality and time of that which is being manifested. God and the Masters give feedback and direct from outside of form and time. Both sides of the feedback loop carry equal weight surrounding what is manifested within the co-creation process. Worship is a result of the belief in perfection. It is the belief in perfection that image is constructed from within the persona.

There is no such thing as perfection. Many channels have brought forth information stating that the 5th dimension is a state of perfection. We have news! Star Wars is real and 5th dimensional realities have been warring upon one other for eons of time. This is where the numerous black holes that your scientists have discovered have come to be. Each black hole is the result of a destroyed planet or star. The wars have come to an end, however, and a new sense of cooperation and collaboration is becoming a reality within the intergalactic experience as well as on Earth. Again, we are all healing together.

In addition to transcending worship, the Christed individual learns that all expressions of truth are valid and learns not to condemn others for having their individual experience of reality. Truth is like a multifaceted diamond. Each human being holds a facet of truth within the human experience. All humans collectively create a truth that embraces each of the individual truths on the planet. No one truth is superior to another, and all truths are necessary to make up the collective whole.

As the initiate honors the truth, experience and self-expression of all others, the initiate also learns to honor their own truth and soul's purpose on Earth. The Christed initiate creates in Real Time. What we mean by this is that the time delay in creation that an initiate experienced prior to the 12th initiation is eliminated. There are eight planes of reality leading to physical manifestation. In order to create any one experience on the physical plane prior to Ascension, that experience created sequentially on 8 different planes of reality and then is brought into physicality.

For the average human prior to the 9th level initiation, there is a 10-year time span to bring any creation through the 8 planes of reality into physicality. During the Ascension process, these 8 planes of reality are unified into two planes, the physical vehicle and the nonphysical vehicle or Light Body. The Christed individual bypasses the 8 planes of reality, begins their creation on the inner plane, and then brings it into physicality within a very short time span. Due to the removal of the time delay in one's creation, the Christed initiate must become conscious of their intent or motivation behind each of their manifestations.

The Christed individual can embrace all capabilities and personality traits necessary to fulfill their soul's purpose on Earth. One's soul's purpose evolves along with the initiate. Soul's purpose is never static or definitive. Soul's purpose is based on whatever brings the initiate the most joy. God and human cannot co-create in any other frequency other than the frequency of ecstasy. We recommend that you find those endeavors that allow you to access the most joyful states within your being, and then you will begin to discover what your soul's purpose is on Earth.

It is within the state of ecstasy that the vibration of Unconditional Love truly resonates. The vibration of ecstasy has the greatest impact on each and every person that the initiate comes into contact with, regardless of what they are doing. It is human nature to believe that one must accomplish something important or succeed in the world in order to be of value. We would like to point out that the current vibrational stewards of your planet are the dolphins and whales.

Whales and dolphins co-hold the frequency on Earth with God. Dolphins and whales exist in a state of ecstasy, and have no need to found large corporations, seek fame or fortune, rule the world, or any of the many other experiences humans consider to be successful. Yet whales and dolphins succeed at doing what humans were originally intended to do, and do so while in a state of ecstasy.

So often, ascending initiates want to know What is my soul's purpose on Earth? We are here to tell you that each and every human being's soul's purpose on Earth is to do everything that one does in a state of ecstasy. With that, each human being can become the vibrational steward of Mother Earth that humanity was always intended to be.