Nonphysical Ego

The false gods operate out of vast ego that comes from a fractured state of existence. The false gods pretend to be whole and complete and all knowing when they are only a part of the physical vessel separated off. Anything separated off cannot be whole and complete; nor are the planes that they dance upon as rosy as they would like humans to believe. As the Tao extended in and began to gather back many false gods feeding off Earth and their associated planes, he was amazed at the disarray of such nonphysical dreams.

The false god dreams are more fractured than human dreams upon Earth; nothing works right and nothing really holds together well. In human form, the body holds together even if there is scar tissue in which cells fail to form due to missing DNA. In the false god planes, holes and gaps lead to holes and gaps in the nonphysical; and so here you can have a one-eyed angel, or false god with missing limbs or other body parts. So, the false gods themselves understand that what they have created does not work well, but they do not know what to do about it either. So, a group of false gods thinking about it all and seeing that puffing up the dimensions does not lead over time to homecoming chose to reinstate the relationship between the physical and themselves. In so doing, they believed that somehow, they could possibly find their way home. This group of false gods chose Sirius to attempt this reinstatement within. The problem is that the false gods required removing the current body level consciousness out of the Sirian consensus and each kingdom upon it to create the space for themselves to dance with physicality for they had already blown up their own creations through combustion.

Now perhaps you can see the sad state that the Sirian ascension to the next dimension created; for they are embodied by false gods that are not their own body level consciousness; and their own body level consciousness was displaced upon Earth and Sirius B as they ascended. How much truth can there be in a circumstance where the physical is dancing with another's body level consciousness? There is no truth in such a dance and Sirius is as lost as the darkness that Terra was propelled within in the wake of her ascension.

We also know now that Sirius B combusted and never made it to the fifth dimension having taken on 2/3rds of Sirius A body level consciousness and density; and furthermore, that Sirius A today has a vast wobble and is falling again. The false gods are now retracting that strove to embody Sirius as the dance did not lead to the homecoming that they thought; and so, soon Sirius will again fall down the dimensions. In this understanding, it is much easier for Terra to forgive her sister Sirius. As Sirian false ascension is forgiven, Terra is now able to retrieve her dream for ascending home into the Great Central Sun dream and also Home to the Tao.

We are in the process now of removing all Sirian false gods and body level consciousness and retrieving all lost body level consciousness of Earth; and retrieving the information that rose up the dimensions in combustion and false ascension within our kingdoms; and as such we begin now the process of restoring the truth of each kingdom and Terra as a whole. For truth can only be restored as the physical and nonphysical cast to work together dances together once more. It is also, only as all body level consciousness is restored that the physical will know enough to ascend; and so, in this shift the possibility of our real ascension home now lies before us beloved.

About False Ascension

Humanity has risen again into a time period where ascension is taking off. Ascension is taking off however in many variant patterns that did not originate within this creation or upon Earth. False ascension is really only ascension patterns from other creations. One of the larger false ascension patterns that has been recently discerned by the Tao is a series of interlocking stars constructed from pyramidal formations or otherwise known as mer-ka-bas. Such formations are really Pleiadian ascension patterning. As the stars unite and if they were in the Pleiades, they could then pass into their Great Central Sun dream as this is the pattern that resonates. Alas, you are not in the Pleiades but rather upon Earth and as such, the star formations will combust rather than create the pathway through the boundary of our Great Central Sun Dream.

Here upon Earth, false ascension also polarizes humans and regions into extremes of light and dark. Some false ascending humans take on all the darkness for many others in medium or light star formations and become very ill and die. Asur'Ana and Per and those in their association have been examining those who have gone into such patterning to try and understand and help each find a pathway out of the extreme darkness that they find themselves propelled into through false ascension. Those in the medium or light polarities in contrast do not understand that they are passing all their darkness to another and killing someone as a result. however, soon the entire patterning of false ascension is going to come to conclusion as Terra finds her way to absolute forgiveness of the entire dance.

The problem with false ascension is there is no legitimate transcendence possible. Legitimate transcendence requires that light and dark patterns and thoughtform within be transmuted into the middle path of the Language of Light or Language of ONE. Those having false ascension splinter sending their light or dark thoughtform elsewhere; and so, the thoughtform required for transmutation is simply unavailable in their field to work with. As Pleiadian ascension formations are barred from all physical planes, then there is an opportunity for those caught in such patterns to begin to walk the path of real ascension into wholeness and completeness for the return journey Home through legitimate thoughtform transmutation. The false ascension star patterns also create a seat through which the false gods feed off of the human species or whale and dolphin species. False ascension is occurring in each fully conscious species upon Earth and upon the other dimensions of our ascending consensus. The entire consensus desires to put this pattern behind us as the loss of chi and dream is so great that there is not enough available to create a real ascension home into the Great Central Sun Dream otherwise. This is primarily due to how false ascension creates a pathway for false god tendrils to feed off of the dreams and chi of Terra or the consensus that this is so. Therefore, in removing all false ascension patterning, the capacity of the false gods to feed off of our consensus shall cease, and then real ascension Home can be orchestrated.

Already combustion in our consensus has been blocked. There have been several attempts in the past year or more to create yet other combustions within the whale kingdom and this would launch false gods further up the dimensions. The false god pathways up the dimensions are being shut down due to the intervention of the Tao now, and the mechanisms that cause fission and the body to burn up in a false ascension have been disbanded. Body level consciousness of the consensus is being retrieved as it was lost in prior times; and there is a reunion of sorts underway at this time of self and self for each kingdom and each human, dolphin and whale devoted to this journey of real and complete ascension home. So, the time of reunion with self is upon you, beloved.

Ancestors and False Ascension

Ancestors are also returning that followed their own body level consciousness up the dimensions and who have danced in false god dream time. Most ancestors of this nature that have recently returned unto Terra agree that climbing the dimensions is not a pathway home, and that something else needs to transpire to allow for the real journey to emerge. So, they are quite happy to discover the Tao and its intervention and all that is being learned at this time in relation to the spiritual lessons of their incarnations. Many departed thinking that the false gods were superior to physicality or Earth. Many are returning to understand that this was sincerely a delusion as existence in the false god planes is as distorted and convoluted as the human dream upon the surface of the Earth at this time as it is so fractured and incomplete in its dream. Many ancestors also followed the love beyond physicality, and this led them up the dimensions rather than remaining upon Earth to aid with the real ascension cycle ahead. Love is one of the main vibrations associated with the body level consciousness that separated off and puffed up the dimensions along with the false gods. More love exists in the false god planes than upon Earth. This is why there is such a loveless existence here in this region of domain from the perspective of the Tao.

As the Heart of the Tao extended into Terra's Aurora, not only are new love frequencies anchored, but Terra has been guided to look at where her love has gone. Lo and behold it has arisen out of her vessel along with her own body level consciousness that also departed in hundreds of thousands of combustions of the human, whale, or dolphin kingdoms upon Earth. As the love is retrieved, there will be plenty of love then available to redirect the human dream into a new foundation of aloha, and also for Terra to self heal of her afflictions.

The returning ancestors are helping to retrieve lost knowledge and information that is holographic and human in origins. Such knowledge began to be lost a long time ago and upon dimensions Terra has long fallen from. However, in the disbanding of the false god planes, all archives are to be recovered ahead, and soon all the knowledge necessary to return Home into the Great Central Sun dream shall be restored. This shift is rapidly transpiring at this time and a new day shall begin to unfold ahead that is a reflection of the restoration of ancient wisdom upon Earth and within each fully conscious species.
