

Welcome to Mapmaker Workshops Communications from Our Mapmaker Ancestor

Thoughts create light and life as you know it.

Being the creator is an act of knowing how to combine thoughts to create light and life or creations. This occurs not in a scientific experiment but through one's thoughtform and energy flow. As all restores its capacity to generate its own light, one moves a large step forward towards the journey home to the Tao.

The Heart of the Tao has been anchored into the Aurora of Terra as of 2022. There is love flowing in addition to light within her global body for the first time since Sirius ascended. Light and love combine to create life, spawning variations of energy flow that cause not only creations to blossom, but ascension Home to become possible. At this time, light and love are converging upon Terra to create the necessary movements and thoughtform to carry her on to another level of ascension this year ahead.

Terra's Ascension Home

The ascension of Terra "home" to the Tao may take upwards of 10,000 years to accomplish and shall involve the merger of the physical with the nonphysical, after which physicality ceases to exist, and the nonphysical consciousness carries forward. The purpose of this shall be the understanding of what it takes to ascend a creation fallen into such density and destruction home: and in so doing shall create a pathway for many other regions of domain lost in time and space much as with Terra. Terra's collective consciousness will then go on to serve in another mission of aiding yet other creations in returning Home to the Tao that have fallen as greatly as herself.

The evolution of the Tao has begun as a result of the connection unto Terra and the ascending consensus that includes Dimensions 3 through 18 in your time space, along with four future creations also ascending home in future contraction cycles of the Tao in the same time space quadrant as Terra. The net result is a sharing of information and resources that spans contraction cycles, all of which is necessary to the recovery of this region of domain.

The other creations are ascending even more completely gathering up all attributes of self, leading to a more complete ascension in each future cycle ahead. Because the Tao sits outside of time and space, the four cycles can be viewed concurrent, leading to a sharing that also occurs outside of time and space. This allows information for healing to be passed from Terra to other creations ahead, as well as information from the other creations back to Terra in her time-space. The new result is that we are now giving closure to the era of the dark in all four contraction cycles simultaneously.

Time is Speeding up

Time is speeding up. The further Terra enters the Great Central Sun Dream, the more rapidly time will pass. As this occurs, karma that might have taken a lifetime to settle 100 years ago will be settled in less than 8 years. The settlement of karma creates many life changes that are the result, along with the possibility of an early death if the hologram that one is related unto has chosen to retract the life as it is failing to contribute to the ascension of the whole. At this time, what was a 4-year time span 20 years ago is now a 2-year time span. In another 4 years, what was 4 years in time will be reduced to 1 year; and into another 4 years, what was 4 years will be reduced to 6 months due to the increasing momentum into “no time” where past, present and future converge.

Giving Closure to the Era of the Dark

Much of the closure to dark forces has occurred as the Tao has reabsorbed attributes of itself that were left behind in incomplete ascensions going back as far as 36 contraction cycles ago. These attributes of self has been called the false tao, as they are related unto the Tao but had broken off and were left behind. It is the false tao that then dances with those creations that fail to ascend Home in any future cycle. It is the false tao that has set up a non-ascension possibility for this region of domain that Terra resides within. The false tao is now being reabsorbed, bringing an end to the darkness that has plagued Terra and all ascending dimensions at this time. All told there were over millions of mahatma configurations and parts of the false tao that have been disbanded thus far and this year alone.

Transcending the Book of Extinction

Nothing should be left behind in any contraction cycle. This is the law of the Tao. But something went wrong long ago and then has led to more and more of the Tao being left behind with more information that has allowed such forces to take control over yet other creations, forcing them to extinction as this is all that they know.

Why is consciousness that is left behind in ascension capable of only understanding extinction thoughtform? This is interesting and is also related to the thoughtform that Terra and fully conscious species have fallen into. When a part of self breaks off, it records being shattered in the experience, shatter thoughtform is extinction thoughtform and because all is holographic, strives to repeat or recreate itself. Once shatter thoughtform has become prevalent in any one part of the hologram of the Tao, then it prevails everywhere else.

Where Did the Book of Extinction Come From?

Terra held shatter thoughtform in her original casting from other creations that had shattered and recorded the experience within her hologram. This led to ongoing and repeated experiences of being shattered, that led to Terra being expelled from the Great Central Sun Dream, and then falling down the dimensions. As shatter thoughtform is transcended through absolute forgiveness, then it can be erased from the holographic planes and Terra will go Home instead of shatter to extinction. This is occurring now as the book of extinction that holds the script of death within it is being erased.

Terra's Recent Ascent to Global Bodhisattva Level Evolution

This too is a manipulation from the false tao that embedded the book of extinction in some creations and the book of life extension in other creations. Those creations receiving the book of life extension would continue to exist upon the dimension that they reside upon; those receiving the book of extinction like Terra would shatter and fall and fall until life could not be sustained upon it. We are in the process of erasing the book of extinction and replacing it with a book of ascension from the Tao. This will alter the scripts for all dreams, including the human dream, creating a new Golden Age ahead as it is more thoroughly anchored.

As the book of extinction began to be erased, all forces surfaced upon Terra that was related. This began in March and allowed the mahatma to be disbanded and the false tao aspects to be reabsorbed by the Tao. Terra was ready as of December to expand to Bodhisattva Level Evolution as a global vessel and accomplished this as of late. This is no small feat as it was the third attempt to expand to this size of field, which is cosmic or 18th dimensional in size.

Dimensions Are Illusions

Many have thought of ascension as a pathway to another dimension. Dimensions are illusions in the thoughtform of the Tao. There is only creators and creations that expand and contract at the end of cycle journey and return Home to the consciousness of the Tao. Expansion is not about falling down dimensions, and so you cannot confuse what has occurred here with an expansion cycle. What has occurred here is the result of failing to go “home” as the contraction cycle was invoked. That which failed to go home went extinct as there was no life force to sustain its existence.

About the End of Time Bell

This has occurred for 12 cycles now as gauged by the Tao in its assessment of your records as a creational body. The underlying cause is the failure for each creation in this region of domain to choose to go Home. There is a system for homecoming that is embedded into everything cast within the Tao. When the “End of Time Bell” is sounded, all creations and creations conclude their expansion cycle and begin their contraction cycle, working their way out of whatever experience that they have constructed, and whatever distortion that they have gone into, back home to the Tao.

About the Intervention of the Tao

This is one form of intervention that Asur'Ana is writing about today: when attributes of the Tao inject themselves into creations such as Terra (Earth) to aid in their journey Home. The Heart of the Tao is only one of 250 attributes of the Tao that shall be anchored in Terra's Aurora over time and in the coming 25 years of continued ascension. Each attribute will provide a necessary key and series of tones of creation to allow for continued dissipation of density and continued expansion into the light enough to re-enter the Great Central Sun Dream in full. We are choosing to do this as there is no other means for the goal of ascension home to the Tao to be met. Generally, the Tao does not invade creators or their creations unless there is such great trouble that we have no choice.

About the Human Intervention

Humans were part of an earlier intervention into the Great Central Suns that the creations falling to extinction originated within. Human consciousness often intervenes in creations that have gone into vast distortion in the Tao. Humans are a brilliant consciousness that understands how to transmute distortion allowing for light and love to shine again so that all may find its way back to its source of origin. Humans entered the Great Central Sun blueprint three cycles ago and following nine cycles of extinction patterning.

The Path Home

Goals of the Map Makers

There are many goals that unfold now that Terra has resounded her "End of Time Bell". The goals of ascension continue to expand. There is a need to press more love and blessings of the Tao to the surface of the Earth; which is vastly in need of self-healing of many ailments that are of human cause. There is a need for those who are ascending to unite as a common force in the physical that works together through events to foster changes unto Terra's dream. You are the creators in human form that can assist Terra in her choice to ascend. Other than the Whale and Dolphin kingdom, there are no other species that are conscious enough yet to direct ascension from the physical plane. Therefore, those that are aware and are learning to command your own dream and become the creator that your species has always been the blueprint of are vastly needed at this time to draw together and support one another in the map making, as well as to help Terra ascend.

The end of time also translates into the birth of a new time ahead. Asur'Ana is calling this Tao Time as Terra is entering Tao Time and aligning with the contraction cycle occurring for all other creators and creations within the Tao. The forward momentum of the whole will also pull Terra along in her goals as well. So, this can be for each human; you can align with Tao Time and allow the pull of the entire Tao towards Home to also propel you into a new dream and a new life as you release and forgive your dance of extreme polarity and separation of light and dark.

As light and dark fade, a new dance emerges in which light and dark blend into a single whole formation that then can hold and understand Tao based thoughtform. Tao based thoughtform provides another understanding, a larger picture, and the possibility of dreams fulfilled upon ahead.

Human Consciousness

Human consciousness is one of the few parts of the Tao that host information from all 150 creations that the Tao has ever orchestrated since the inception of our existence. What caused us to exist? We are a spark of thought that caught hold and took off desiring to experiment and experience any thoughts possible and what this would create over time. Over time we have experienced far worse disasters than anything that you know upon Earth; and have found our way in and out and through such experiences. Human consciousness in the Tao carries all the wisdom gained from each of these experiences, glorious, good, bad, ugly, or otherwise. Human consciousness is therefore sought after by creators to aid in any problem in any corner of the Tao.

Human consciousness is a great consciousness in the Tao. You are not small and lawless and bitter and depressed, or suicidal, diseased, abusive, deformed, war mongering, consumptive or self-centered in the Tao. You are wise, aware, helpful, supportive, unconditionally loving, beautiful and immeasurably helpful to those creators that desire to sincerely to be helped. Here you have fallen into a bitter game with forces who desired to destroy the consensus for all time and forever to be hidden and forgotten; and this has caused you to feel lost, small, powerless, hopeless, helpless and to simply give up as a human expression.

Love and Forgiveness

Ascension requires understanding the thoughtform you are clearing along with the karma at hand to be forgiven. The life mirrors will provide clues as to what the spiritual lessons may be that are to be forgiven. The key to ascension is learning to love what you dislike or judge in another or within yourself. As you love you and all others, forgiveness naturally flows and the spiritual lessons of non-love are learned.

Learning to love is perhaps the largest spiritual lesson for all aspirants of the spiritual path at this time. There is such non-love that has prevailed due to the blending of dissonant thoughtform from other creations that love is vastly missing upon the physical plane. Non-love leads to a state of codependence where some strive to save or protect others from the harm of others. What one does in the physical also occurs in opposite in the unconscious parallel life planes: so, if one loves and protects here, then one hates and destroys in another parallel life.

The reality is that all polarities are expressed somewhere even if not in the physical; and so, what one judges in another is really a part of one's own parallel life expression. To the degree one can forgive and embrace the parallel life expression that one may judge in another, to such a degree one then forgives all others, as all forgiveness begins really with self. As one forgives oneself for whatever one judges, then one also forgives those ancestors who expressed what one judges as well; and this then creates a complete circle of forgiveness.

About Absolute Forgiveness

A complete circle of forgiveness then allows for absolute forgiveness in which one has to only learn the spiritual lesson once in order for it to be forgiven for one's inheritance; then the karma for parallel patterns upon other dimensions that your multidimensional inheritance danced upon can also be forgiven. It is in the clearing of multidimensional karma that one can return Home to the Great Central Sun Dream.

Uniting Power and Love

Mother Earth Consciousness known as Terra would like to speak about the need to unite power and love within one's energy field and within the languages in which one constructs one's DNA and body along with life dream from. Uniting power and love has become a pivotal direction of change in relation to the dream for ascension at this time. For over time and in the Tao's observation, all problems in ascension and false ascension are related to the separation between love and power.

About Death

Death is a beautiful experience of departing from the limitation of physicality and opening to all that you already know within; but have forgotten due to the density. In the remembrance, there is only love, there has always been only love, and it is love that we must return unto to go Home.

Communications from Our Mapmaker Ancestor

Faith chose to cross over as an Ascension Map Maker. However, she continues to communicate with us through Asur Ana. Below are letters from Faith to all of those us....

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #1

March 3, 2022

Dear Friends

I bless each one of you. I bless you with a love bigger than I ever thought possible. The love is so intense outside of the physical experience it makes me wonder why we sit in so much non-love as humans. However, I see the karma behind why this is so, and it involves my own ancestry: and so, I choose to forgive my inheritance for how it was used to sever the nonphysical from the human experience, and in so doing also caused the experience of the loss of love. The Tao and love of the Tao is more real than I ever could comprehend while alive. It is an immense energy light and resource that is now available unto Earth and unto each that chooses to ascend. Open your hearts and learn to love and bless with the love of the Tao. It is also, the Source from which we all came from as human holographic blueprint, and where we shall all return. The veils between yourself and the Tao are only illusion; lift the illusion and you will experience your own Tao source and see your own journey towards homecoming ahead. My cancer was hatred made manifest as physical growths. The hatred was all the hatred of the Anu that my ancestry absorbed over time; and I absorbed due to those of Anu. My cancer was hatred made manifest as physical growths. The hatred was all the hatred of the Anu that my ancestry absorbed over time; and I absorbed due to those of Anu descent in my life experience. The hatred has been released from my ancestry now; and I ask that each of you also intend to release the hatred that your inheritance also absorbed for those of Anu descent, or High Priest, Pharaoh, or Guru descent.

Hatred is only inverted language of love. The Pleiadians had a language for love and it became hateful as it inverted in the magnetism of Earth's field rotation. Let us return the Pleiadian language unto their creation and retrieve our Great Central Sun roots; and the love will become our foundation again as a species, and as representatives of the human hologram of the Tao.

My life has a great meaning although it ended in death. I see now how every path I walked led me to this moment of being able to forgive my ancestral karma in a manner that serves so greatly it can hardly be measured by anything human. It is forgiveness that is absolute and resolves all karma of parallel nature upon all dimensions that this same dance has occurred. The conclusion of this karma heals so much that I cannot say that I have not contributed greatly unto the ascent of Earth and all other humans.

For so long I looked at myself and thought that I contributed little. I did not seem to do as much as Asur'Ana and Per, other spiritual teachers, or other living saints. I now understand that it is not about what you do upon the physical plane; it is about what you are willing to forgive in your inheritance that most matters. So please do not think you are not contributing in whatever role you are playing. Each contributes in the forgiveness; and even if death is the outcome; you will forgive as you pass. I am devoting my ancestral time towards assuring more consciously pass and forgive big ahead, even if they know not DAS or Asur'Ana or Per. In so being, more karma can be forgiven in death than in possibly an entire life of ascension.

This is not to say that one does not forgive in the ascension life. It is just that as the veils lift and the love flows outside of the boundaries of the limitation of the physical vessel, you can forgive what you could not during the life. In my life I was bitter towards those of Anu descent that had used me. It was difficult to forgive; however, in the crossing, and as the veils lifted, I could see how my own bitterness did not serve. I could not open the heart enough to master the act of blessing which would have allowed for the forgiveness; and then perhaps I would not have manifest the cancer. Those who I was bitter at were not the cause of my demise; it was my own internal lack of love that was the underlying cause. A state of love would have lifted the hatred that had been pinned upon me. A state of love would have caused the DNA going cancerous to self-heal of their wobble. A state of love would have healed the wounds in my hologram. Because I could not love, I could not heal. However, this is not right or wrong; and I am healing and forgiving in my death. Many of you are my ancestors as we share lineages. I share all of this you so that you can open your heart and learn to love that which you resent. As you love those that you resent, all the patterns of harm that are associated will simply dissipate.

I bless you with my love in my crossing. My bardo is far from complete and there is much more to go yet, but I am understanding and learning much. I invite you not to fear death. Death is a beautiful experience of departing from the limitation of physicality and opening to all that you already know within; but have forgotten due to the density. In the remembrance, there is only love, there has always been only love, and it is love that we must return unto to go Home.

Blessings with all of my heart.
Namaste,
Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #2

March 11, 2022

Dear Friends

I thank each of you for the many blessings that poured through my fellow map carvers due to my sharing of my experience of bardo. To date I am discovering that this region of domain as an ancestor is far more emotional. There are not the veils beyond physicality nor the patterns that numb the field that those who are alive experience; perhaps if this was so for those alive, then the choice to love would be so obvious, as hatred and other patterns associated are so miserable to feel. As I venture into my parallel life review, I experience my own misery and lack of love in all ways possible. This makes forgiveness of the hatred and resentment easier as it is so despicable to feel. Feeling the love is so much more glorious that it is an obvious choice, but one that humans fell out of as they became numb.

I therefore invite each of you to cease to do those things that numb you to your emotions. as it is only in feeling the love that it is empowered in a manner that it can serve you in aiding in your boundaries and self-healing. Alcohol use to excess, the media, the computer, the television, drugs, and living in electrical regions all numb the emotional body. As you sit in numbness not only are you bored but you fail to feel the emotions that would allow you to see how awful resentment, fear, anger, apathy, and death are to experience, and then you would choose for love instead. Love then opens the gate to all the other emotions that are useful, including the capacity to process the grief so that more light can enter the cellular structure.

My cellular structure was sticky with density and fear, and it could not rise up in vibration. It was the resentment and numbness that caused me not to feel enough to be able to choose for love instead. Love and fear are choices; everything is a choice actually. It is just that most humans have long forgotten that they had a choice and in not making a choice one ends up with the darker attributes of emotions, especially if one heals others like I did. So, in acknowledging the denser emotions, one can choose to transmute them with the love. As love is applied the pain, anger, fear, death, resentment, and all other dense emotions can be transmuted and as they transmute, they dissipate into the love again. This is real ascension in action from my point of view as an ancestor.

Applying love is not difficult. One can intend to bless oneself in the love of the Tao and Mother Earth 1,000 times per day. One can open the love lotuses that were opened around me for my crossing through intention; and with a little help from Earth, they will be supported, sustained and recast. One can bathe oneself in the love; and the difficult emotions will arise to be cleared; but they will dissipate rapidly and then one will be on to a new day. The love can be run through the diseased part of the biology to have the effect of causing the cells to feel loved again, and then begin to choose for life rather than death. It is not so difficult really, but perhaps the focus has not been present until recent years, and the love of the Tao that is spilling over Earth at this time was previously unavailable.

Now is the time to catch the love through intention and ride the wave of ascension to another state of being in which love is restored as your personal foundation. This is why I write unto you today as I see this possibility for each; but each must choose for it and intend it daily. and work with the love until it fills the field and does not ever dissipate again. There are many paths and many choices, and it is up to each to choose; life or death; love or fear; forgiveness or resentment; dissonance or peace. There is never a moment that one is not at choice. Therefore, I guide you to choose wisely in your focus ahead, and it will alter your dream to a brighter future and one that allows for internal fulfillment through dreams come true.

I leave you with these thoughts.
Namaste,
Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #3

March 21, 2022

Dear Friends

I too thank you for all the support that you have given me over the years in my life. I did not realize how much we supported one another in DAS until I reviewed my experiences in my bardo. There is not a night that you do not strive to help one another during dream time. Sometimes some get lost and never gather in the healing temples. Then some of you vie to find the ones who are lost and get them to the temples anyway. There were many nights that I would never have received any support unless this was so, and so I thank you.

Although my life ended in death, this is not an end; if anything, it is an opening and awakening into the vastness of human consciousness and all that we collectively know as a species. With the opening to the Tao human holograms, what is known is even more vast. I am thankful in this as the understanding helps me to review my ancestral experiences and forgive in greater ease. There is the presence of the Tao as I review who points out certain lessons so that I can more readily discern what to forgive. This is a great blessing.

All records are in the form of books of life that one can enter as an ancestor and relive. This is a far cry greater than reviewing ancestral records while alive and watching them more as a movie. As an ancestor one goes into the book and becomes the life and experiences the records firsthand. Most records are spotty but generally the big traumas remain and so the review goes from trauma to trauma until the life concludes in death, which can be a trauma of its own. I cried and sobbed my way through the first 100 books.

Over time I find myself less emotional unless there is something even more traumatic than what was already reviewed, in which case I cry again. Life as an ancestor is far more emotional than anything I knew in physicality; it runs from the depth of despair to the high of the love that flows between the beloveds. The love of the beloveds is far more poignant from an ancestral experience than it probably ever was in physicality; however, when the love flows between the two or between the mother or father and child, it is beautiful to experience as an ancestor. These are the highlights of my bardo, and I do cherish them.

So, what is bardo really? I think you probably need an explanation. There were many ancestral threads of karma that were activated as I created the body in the womb that grew up to be Faith upon the physical plane. The threads of karma formed my body in its health in my younger years and later in the disease of my ascension beyond 2,800 DNA segments. The disease was already a known outcome of my life before I was ever born; and it was chosen to be settled through ascension so that the path would be cleared to health in my inheritance. This was accomplished in my crossing as the big karma behind why I had become so ill was released. I know my sharing has caused many of you to become afraid that you too might ascend into disease. By and large, the disease I had was a catch 22 as it was holographic karma of cracked DNA at play. At 2,800 segments I could not edit holographic DNA, only lineage based DNA. The holographic DNA that was cracked continued to self-recreate each time I knitted it back together, and the outcome was disease.

For those of you who have mastered beyond this to Bodhisattva, you can edit holographic DNA and repair where I fell into trouble. For myself, it required my death to repair the DNA as I could never ascend far enough to clear it while I was a live. Regardless of how the DNA was repaired, in life or death; it was repaired and so from an ancestral point of view it matters not. The books of karma I review now are related to the threads that I carried forward within to construct the body that I knew this lifetime. There is so much karma that in your ascension, you review probably no more than 1/8th; however, this is enough to allow you to transcend the thoughtforms associated with the density and electricity and move towards a more magnetic way of being in the physical. In death now I must attend to all the other karma that was not cleared in the ascension, and this is a lot.

It may take me six months to review it all; but I am determined to work through it as then I can join the amalgamated consciousness of all ancestors who have existed throughout time upon Earth. As I do this, I shall reunite myself together with the wholeness of all humans consciousness, and I can see and feel how beautiful this is to exist within. Then from the wholeness I can contribute to the ascent of the whole and all those related to myself in a new way. So, this I look forward unto.

For now, I have more books of karma to work my way through. By and large, there is a theme that my life represents. The theme of my life is related to Onton as an ancestor, who married Athena and worked in the university system. I worked as a teacher of speech and language my entire adult life. Within the system I did not marry Athena as I was polarized into being single in my family and never quite rose above this. My single life was useful however to my focus of ascension as I had the time for it; and so, I am grateful unto Asur'Ana and Per and all that they brought to my awareness this lifetime, as it makes my ancestral reviews easy to understand.

The ascension teachings DAS offers give you the context for bardo and forgiveness of the spiritual lessons associated, so do the workbooks Earth compiled offer this. And so, I invite you to really work with all the materials as they are very helpful to your ascension and ancestral post life. I witness others going through bardo who do not understand, and they struggle to know what to forgive; however, they will catch on and I am beginning to share with them a little so that they also, can better understand. We ancestors really do strive to help one another too. Well, this is all I have to share for now. However, I will close that there is a great truth unto the entire dance of love and from one of my recent revelations. I was reviewing a life of great travesty as a cripple in a wheelchair who was bitter at everyone and everything, although she did have a load of money and others to wait upon her. The bitterness was pressed outward causing others misery and you could say that misery loves company, and the more miserable this ancestor made those waiting upon them, the happier she became in any given day. So, she turned out to be very abusive emotionally and as a result there was a high turnover of those who were willing to take the abuse; except for one related to Athena who stood by her until she passed.

Here I could witness another side of Athena that was sincerely loving, something that I had not considered before in all the Athena's I had known this lifetime. This allowed me to recognize that within all archetypes there is the love; it is only that the archetypes have become so fractured that there are aspects of each that are non-loving in nature; and this is what causes so much misery and unhappiness along with many other travesties in the dance of life. I see in this that as the archetypes are mended and reunited of their fractured state of being, that love shall be restored in each one. Perhaps for Athena this must occur in the Pleiades; however, it is still a possibility for this archetype along with all other Anu archetypes ahead, but in their creation of origin.

I leave you with these thoughts.

Namaste,

Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #4

April 8, 20022

Dear Friends

What a journey this experience of Bardo is. I could have never imagined what I now understand while alive in the physical. The expansion of consciousness is almost overwhelming as so many veils lift and the truth is better perceived, both in relation to my personal karma this lifetime along with the collective dance now underway of ascension upon Earth. I can clearly see how I contributed in this life and it leaves me with a sense of fulfillment, that I fulfilled upon my truth, even though the life ended in death. So do not feel bad for me or sad, as I understand so much more, that I forgive each and every troublesome pattern in my life and whomever it involved.

I can clearly see more about Asur'Ana's life as I am reviewing it as a living ancestor.

This is perhaps the more interesting ancestor to review. She has so much knowledge that she has known what to do at every corner or roadblock of her ascension to date; and how she understood what to do I do not yet understand. However, let us suffice to say that there is an innate knowing within her of a vast part of the Tao and all the experiences within the Tao that allows her more understanding than most. I say most as many of you also have Tao understanding and she has gathered a school of those like herself. Even those that do not have such understanding are learning as you go and so it matters not. You are restoring a holographic level of understanding that is Tao based in so being and for all humans upon Earth along with Terra herself. There are threads of tones or vibrations emanating from the Tao into this sector of creation. This I can now clearly perceive. The tones are incomplete and twisted and distorted. The tones coming to Earth have also been spliced and twisted into mostly darkness with the lightness flowing to Sirius. By and large what Asur'Ana, Per and those with Tao knowledge have been doing within DAS is to untwist the tones and then anchor new tones from another place in the Tao to fill in the gaps into a whole and complete rainbow of love. The whole and complete rainbow of the first 10 octaves of love has been anchored, but now must be embodied into the DNA by each map maker.

So, what you are working upon with the new pallets is setting up the backdrop from which you can integrate the full rainbow of 10 octaves of the love of the Tao into your DNA. Now you will work upon life scripts that are archetypal and holographic and are in need of being modified to include the 10 octaves of love of the Tao. As this occurs, the life patterning shifts to be loving of self and others rather than codependent; and the life dream then shifts accordingly. The life scripts are held in the DNA, so this is how the DNA is now to be modified to include the 10 octaves of love of the Tao.

This work is so very important and there are so few that are doing this work; not even the Inner Earth peoples are anchoring the love of the Tao yet into their DNA; however, their scripts are less codependent and hold more love than the outer Earth humans, and so perhaps this is necessary as you are in far more distortion than they. They too will catch on over time for as the love brightens it will show each their own codependence and then they too shall release it and embrace a more refined love than that which has been available upon Earth before. As all kingdoms and Earth anchor the first 10 octaves into all DNA and this is the only DNA remaining and all else has been purified, Terra and all upon her can simply step out of the delusion and go home. Although this sounds simple and it is, it is also very complex and will take time to sort out all the threads of thoughtform that do not resonate with love in its wholeness and completeness. In its wholeness and completeness there is nothing but love, never was anything but love, and always will be only love. So here is a unique place of non-love or twisted love that the Tao is coming to understand what occurs in such a system; and it is a very sad thing indeed, for the Tao to witness all the hatred and all the anger and all the disease and all that this creates.

However, it can be self-healed; there is nothing in the Tao that cannot be self-healed; and in reality, it needs to be self-healed as this distortion is distorting yet other places within the Tao and the expressions here are also being experienced elsewhere without the underlying cause being understood. Each level of cause as it is understood say such as fission and combustion karma from false ascension leads the Tao into a phase of clearing parallel distortion elsewhere in other creations, and so it all serves.

The dance of hatred is less an experience as an ancestor than physicality. Over time the nonphysical did not like the hatred and so polarized it all into physicality. The scripts of the nonphysical also need to change and take responsibility for their own hateful thoughtform; and this is occurring now as the Tao anchors new nonphysical scripts. The nonphysical cannot carry on in love and light propelling physicality into great darkness. As their darkness lifts, there will be more space for the love of the Tao to flow into the human dream along with natural world. This too is coming due to your efforts this year in our DAS dreamtime events, where the nonphysical scripts shall all be edited to support ascension of the whole, and take responsibility for their own thoughtform requiring transmutation.

Therefore, I ask that each of you attend as many DAS events as possible in support of all these goals and as your ancestor. There is so much work that occurs at these events behind the scenes: I will be watching and will share also from the ancestral realms ahead what is accomplished so that perhaps it can be understood from another vantage point.

The work you are doing in association with DAS is perhaps the most important work upon Earth. This is a small group at this time and so there is more time expended by Asur'Ana, Per, Terra and the Tao in the guidance. In time it will be a larger group and more guiding others who have been worked with by Asur'Ana, Per and Earth and the Tao greatly, and therefore who are very capable. This is what I perceive ahead, a growing upwards and outwards as more numbers are needed for the work ahead, and also for community building. These are lovely dreams beloved and you are here to live them in the physical and I shall experience what you live as your ancestor.

We will leave you with these thoughts.

Namaste,

Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #5

April 16, 2022

Dear Friends

I am most amazed at all that I am learning in my bardo. I have moved on from lineage based karma and now am beginning to work upon holographic karma related to my tapestry of ancestry. Holographic karma is different as it is not about an individual lifetime but about all relations and the karma that they created together in the dance of life. Asur'Ana has called this group karma but I never really understood what this meant until I began with my first book of holographic karma.

As an ancestor you must clear all the patterns that prevent you from becoming absolutely neutral after which you can amalgamate with all ancestral consciousness and expand into what all ancestors have known over time and upon all dimensions of existence including within the Great Central Sun Dream. This excites me and so I am working through my karmic books much faster than most others who have recently passed.

Most may be looking at lineage-based karma for years ahead and possibly longer before they amalgamate. It is my freewill choice to speed this process up and then go on to serve all humans as an ancestral force and from behind the scenes. The information and understanding I gained within the teachings of Asur'Ana and Per prepare me to foster this; and so, I am excited as expansion of consciousness is such a liberating and beautiful experience.

The holograms from an ancestral point of view look like a giant beehive in a humanoid form. Within each capsule of the hive is ancestral karma and genetic information for a specific part of the body along with energy flow that the field makes as it rotates. The karma is associated between this dimension and others as it is holographic and so there is no separation within it that distinguishes the patterns from occurring upon dimension 3, 5, 12, 18 or 24, or within the Great Central Sun dream upon dimensions above.

The nature of holographic karma has frustrated Asur'Ana and Per as often karma has acted out that had no link to anything occurring upon Earth and in their own ascensions. Therefore, they have learned to distinguish in their personal ascensions that which is Earth based and that which is not so that they are not overrun all the time by patterns that are difficult to clear as they did not occur in 3D. As an ancestor, it does not matter, and it is interesting to look at patterns that occurred upon the dimensions above and in human form and you can see how long and how far that the problems in humanity upon Earth have played out recurrently, and so many times that it certainly has become boring to exist within.

It is perhaps ancestral boredom that then contributes to the problem as the consciousness retracts and looks elsewhere for enjoyment. This has been a vast problem with the ancestors here, as they did retract from physicality and then busied themselves with something that could not foster human evolution. The focus is changing at this time because if ancestors do not support the choice to ascend, then there is no future or hope for anyone or Earth. So, the ancestors out of their own need to evolve are choosing to focus upon what it takes to cause the human species to ascend instead of whatever else that they focused on before. Much as humans who watch television out of boredom, ancestors are not necessarily any wiser; and so, they have focused upon things that do not serve really Earth or her ascension or humanity at large. This is altering as Earth herself has put her foot down and especially after Asur'Ana's strokes and Per's heart attack (as shared in Chapter 10) that were partially caused in association with the ancestral planes. There will be no other ancestral focus other than ascension and all that this takes to orchestrate, Terra says. Those ancestors who were at cause of Asur'Ana's and Per's health issues and many others have been placed in a watch only position and have ceased to interfere, and the net result is that most ancestors are focused upon ascension.

Those that are the most focused have amalgamated into an expanded consciousness to help guide humanity ahead; the others are clearing their karma in order to do so; or face a watch only position after so much time and if they have not fulfilled upon the clearing necessary to do so. Ancestors come in all types and those associated with certain genealogies that have been troublesome are also being placed in a watch only position at this time.

My genealogy is of Grand Master archetype and so the hologram that I am associated with is of this nature and it is shared with Asur'Ana who has the same archetypal expression as myself. Archetypal expressions come in many varieties, and this is something that also requires purification of, and so my work at this time is to help purify my archetype of the spiritual lessons I have learned in this lifetime so that others may follow of my inheritance and with less of a struggle.

I can clearly see it is going to take far more work to clear this genealogy than I or Asur'Ana have caused to date. The impact of Asur'Ana's transcendence is clearly visible within the hologram: however, if others did not follow to expand upon this it would have little impact overall and over time. Therefore, far more are required to clear their holographic karma, which can only really occur in the ascension to full consciousness and beyond.

There are few upon this path yet beyond Bodhisattva and the few that are, are associated with DAS and Earth is watching them carefully to make sure that a false ascension or other problem does not surface ahead. There are those in the Inner Earth that have ascended far beyond those in DAS and never lost full consciousness to begin with; and they too are clearing some of the same patterns those ascending beyond Bodhisattva are clearing, as they are holographic and tend therefore to repeat until the patterns are transformed.

I can see in this that it matters not what level you are working upon in ascension. It is all holographic and as you clear at one level, the clearing of parallel kind at another can be diminished or erased; and this is the gift of absolute forgiveness at this time in history. So, worry not about whatever level you are working upon; clear your fear based and shame-based patterns and rise out of the box of imprisonment that this current dream of humanity resides within and you will contribute greatly to the path; and to yourself in weaving a more liberating and joyful dream for yourself.

My holographic pattern is one of self-sacrifice that I am looking at and choosing to clear at this time. What is self-sacrifice? Well, my death was a proof unto this pattern; I sacrificed my health for the disease of many others. However, I am no longer sad about this as there is such joy in the ancestral realms to experience and in reality, I prefer the expanded state that I now exist within than anything I knew in physicality.

However, I see how the pattern of self-sacrifice has to be transmuted, and so this is what I am working upon. It is my ancestral nature as it is Asur'Ana's to fall into this spiritual trap; and the trap is that love requires sacrifice of some sort. Whether you sacrifice yourself for raising your children, or sacrifice yourself for the job, or sacrifice yourself for the spouse or the beloved, or sacrifice yourself for the spiritual path or for Mother Earth; it matters not it is all about sacrifice.

I see how in the holographic templates that the concept of service has become confused with self-sacrifice. Service is not about sacrifice in the Tao; it is about coming to understand why a creation or creator has gone into distortion, and then the service is to work one's way out of the distortion so that it all can be purified, and all can go Home. There is nothing sacrificed in the legitimate concept of service, and yet in the distortion here, service has come to be thought of as sacrifice. Asur'Ana struggles with this pattern greatly and it is the underlying cause of the struggle and also her near death experiences. This is often so for most in her association as you deem yourself in service unto Earth and then sacrifice in the dance as the thoughtform or script for service is intertwined with the distortion of self-sacrifice.

Where did this all originate? Well, it appears not to be as prevalent in the Great Central Sun but rather since Terra and humanity alike departed from this dream. However, even in the Sun and towards the end of the time and before Terra departed this dream, the concept of sacrifice was beginning to roll over those of great spiritual knowledge and in human, whale, dolphin, winged lion, eagle and many other kingdoms that knew full conscious biology in this time period. Therefore, it is not only humans that entered the dance of self-sacrifice but all kingdoms over time; and it is out of self-sacrifice that they each fell trying to save Terra from her falls.

Holograms interlink between all other kingdoms and especially in association with fully conscious time periods. I can see over time and in each fall down the dimensions how many fewer kingdoms remained that were fully conscious in Terra's multidimensional history. Full consciousness was an attribute of almost all nature kingdoms except plants and trees and minerals: and so, you can see how much has been lost over time as a result; and how much it is going to take to restore life as it was known within the Great Central Sun and so long ago. However, it is possible, and I perceive the dream for the journey ahead, and commit to contributing to this journey as it is the only one that will also take me home as an ancestor.

Therefore, I invite each of you as my relations to carry on in your ascensions. It is only as you reach full consciousness that then so much more in the holographic planes can heal, and as this occurs, the new dream for the human species will step down even more rapidly. The pathway for more fully conscious ascensions within DAS is opening up; and it may be a load of Indigos, Pale Indigos, Turquoises and Goldens that fulfill upon this plus some seasoned and experienced older ones of you who have the life experience to help guide the way ahead. However, I also see this dream as a possibility for DAS, and intend it so, and please intend it so with me. The journey to full consciousness is a fulfillment of dream that has not occurred in far too long and was intended by many ancestors over time who failed at their ascensions for unknown reasons that are now only coming to be known due to Terra's ascent. Terra's ascent illuminates so much that the pathway for human ascension could not flow otherwise, and so, it is a time of pulling together and orchestrating ascension for the whole. I thank you for listening to what I have to say. I will continue to write periodically and later these letters will be published as they will help illuminate some things about ancestral consciousness that perhaps cannot be otherwise. I too wish to contribute and will do so in this manner ahead.

Blessings,
Faith, Your Ancestor

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #6

May 1, 2022

Dear Friends

I thank you for all the mirrors that you provide me today and especially those associated with my inheritance. I can look through at your lessons and all that you are clearing and so clearly see my own. What am I working upon as an ancestor? Primarily I am looking at holographic karma at this time and how the holographic planes shattered again and again and again, over time. It is a sad tale of loss of so much knowledge that what we knew as we exited the Great Central Sun is a far cry from what we know now as a species. So much of our work is to recover what was lost as ancestors and as ascending humans; and this work is of the utmost import at this time so that we can gather it all back to return “home” to the Tao or where we were spawned as consciousness.

Dr. S. Judah, 2023

This dance is still very dicey with many factors and forces desiring it all to fail. For all that has been done, there is still a struggle about it all and a tension between those vying for homecoming and other forces that really desire for all to remain in the darkness that they have known. Alas for them, the Tao is intervening with so much light and new vibrations to anchor that soon the time of the dark will conclude, and they will be gathered back to the Tao for their own homecoming. This is the work at hand for each of you, to weave the threads of light that balance out or cancel and dispel the dark and then weave in other threads of love so that love can be restored to the physical plane.

We ancestors at this time are focused upon clearing our own karma so that more light and more love may descend and remain in the physical plane dreams. This is no small task as there is so much of a polarity to push the love and light to parallel planes or off planet rather than remain where they are vastly needed. The trees and all kingdoms are weaving as much love into their void pallets so that it can also be woven into the dream. As the love threads are restored to all void pallets, then love will be woven into the dream and will fail to move elsewhere. This will then foster a new day and sweeter dreams ahead.

Weaving threads of love into your void and then field will elicit all the issues of non-love than you can imagine in your ascension process. We see this so for those in the New Tier of DAS who are working upon deep issues of non-love and rejection within due to the presence of more love within their pallets and now entering their dreams. Before the love can be realized into the dream, the thoughtform of non-love from old pallets of rejection must be relinquished. So, this is also, the work at hand; to remove pallets of non-love and weave in pallets of the love of the Tao into your void, and then to allow the patterns to surface that do not resonate and allow them to be transformed into something new. As this occurs a new foundation shall emerge that shall hold love-based truth for each of you as an ascending human.

This is the path of moving towards becoming a beacon of love for the Tao for each of you that have intended this. In order for the love to flow, you must become a clearer vessel of love yourself. Not an easy journey and many initiates have had deep struggles, deeper than in any other year as of late in their choice to embody love. This is true for so many of you devoted to this journey: so, carry on and forge ahead and uproot those patterns that do not love you or love another, and release them moving into a new day and a new script of Tao based love.

The human species once inside the Great Central Sun understood Tao based love as all that was cast was cast with the threads of such love within the pallets of the time. The music was sweet and harmonious and nothing aged or destroyed. Humans then cast themselves to experience their creation in physicality, but did not cast enough information within it to return Home as it was never intended that homecoming would be created from the physical. As a result, there is not enough information, and in the falls since, to direct creation home. Therefore, the Tao is inserting the missing information that the original humans casting this experienced failed to so that all can now be orchestrated for a homecoming from the physical.

The new void pallet threads of love offer the missing information that was never available to be understood within physicality. There is a deep longing in the physical vessel for the love and the knowing to do what you inherently should know how to do, which is to ascend and to go Home to where you have been spawned. All the false ascension and combustion is simply a longing to go home without enough knowledge to do so.

Perhaps in understanding this, you can each forgive big how these dances have so hurt creation after creation leading to falls into disease, death, and extinction. Perhaps this could have been avoided if all knowledge had been cast into physicality; but it matters not when this occurs just that it does. So, the dance corrects now due to the intervention of the Tao and the choice to make available the missing knowledge that was never available before.

So now is the time to pick up the threads of all that is needed to orchestrate a homecoming. There is so much support entering the dance and from so many variant factors of the Tao that it is hard to believe that this will fail. This I can perceive so much more clearly as an ancestor than while alive; and it causes me to be very hopeful of the changes ahead. Therefore, I invite you to find your hope, and find your feet if you are stumbling a bit lately, and find the means to love and bless bigger than you know how, and intend to create a dream for your future that is larger and stronger and more filled with love than you know how. For this is the nature of dream weaving in the Tao and you as a human are a Tao creator.

Many blessings to each of you.
Namaste,
Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #7

May 12, 2022
Dear Friends

From an ancestral point of view, much has transpired that will cause many changes and from behind the scenes. The void and pallets you have been working upon are what the dream that one lives is woven from. If the void and pallets create extinction, then of course extinction will be the dream woven and then experienced. Therefore, in order for Terra to move beyond extinction, all void associated must be disbanded. This is what is rapidly occurring at this time so that a new dream cast will be different from what has been experienced in the past.

Up until the Tao intervention, there was no working knowledge of pallets or void. This information had vaporized long ago and within the Great Central Sun and before Terra exited. What happened to this knowledge can be clearly perceived in the void itself; it was confiscated by forces within the Sun that desired to create something else other than what was already present. What was present was cast by human knowledge and so one can think of it as if human knowledge was confiscated and then used by nonphysical forces for something else. Primarily nonphysical dreams were constructed to dance within; and this pattern has carried forward outside of the Sun's dream with many forces destroying creations like Earth to use the materials confiscated to create dreamtime for nonphysical use only.

As the void is altered now by Terra, so is the void associated with non-physicality. Nonphysicality should sustain physicality and instead has run off in a dance of its own which then creates the patterns of extinction as enough is stripped for this purpose. Therefore, extinction is directly related with the nonphysical choosing to attempt to do something separate from the physical when it was all cast to work together in the original dream. This is coming to light now so that it can be forgiven so that a new dream for the nonphysical can be woven in the void that will only allow for a dance that supports the whole to unfold ahead. Terra is working diligently upon forgiving all the games of the nonphysical so that in a short time ahead, only that which is supportive remains.

For humans, the nonphysical has used your bodies and knowledge to sustain their etheric dreams. This karma must also be forgiven ahead so that a new dream can be woven for humanity in which the nonphysical supports the human dream rather than destroys it. This is the work next now that the void has been altered so that a new dream can be constructed in relation to both physical and nonphysical dances to work in harmony together.

From an ancestral point of view, this shift shall limit ancestors to that which supports physical existence and fosters evolution. This I feel is a massively needed shift and shall then cause many ancestors who are non-supportive simply to be removed from Earth. Everything needs to push towards the goal of ascension ahead if it is sincerely to be fostered, and this requires each part pulling in the same direction. Those ancestors or nonphysical pulling in the opposite direction only exacerbates an already difficult evolutionary journey for Terra; and so, this is a good shift indeed.

For myself, I have been impressed with all the work done by the group focused at the latest dreamtime Spring Intensive upon some specific thoughtforms requiring transformation in the whole of the human dream. As the group focused, Earth could pull the pallets at cause of certain scripts humans live that do not support her physical plane body. As the scripts are edited, then humans will begin to dream a different dream of greater resonance with Earth. This shall foster many changes more rapidly than could have been orchestrated in the decade ahead, and so there shall be many shifts in human focuses as a result. This the ancestors feel is a good thing and will allow us to direct humans into the new scripts allowing for the changes necessary in the human dream to support and sustain the whole.

For each within DAS there are new scripts to attune unto and live that will drive your dream into greater unity and joy along with fulfillment of truth in the dance of life. So, the ancestors recommend that each reading these materials choose to anchor new scripts that are non-codependent, and to release your thoughtform that is triggered so that a new time ahead can be born. This is the time of the great change ahead, and you are the ones giving birth to the changes within and then living the changes with one another and all others in the dance of life. As you live the change, so will all others associated with your inheritances. Such is the nature of holographic systems: it only takes one to change and then all others will flow in the same direction.

We leave you with these thoughts.

Namaste,

Ancestor Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #8

May 22, 2022

Dear Friends

I enjoy watching many of you in your transcendence and will vie to aid you in your struggle if you ask. I am helping to also orchestrate classes in dreamtime and for ancestors who have died this past cycle and lack the capacity to clear their own karma or understand their own spiritual lessons needing attending unto. This appears to be the best way I can serve at this time as there are so many lost in their bardo and unable to complete enough to amalgamate with the greater ancestral consciousness. As I have shared before, this information you are learning is one great gift as it prepares you for your ancestral bardo upon your afterlife as well as walking the spiritual path as an ascending aspirant.

I witnessed all the alterations in the void of infinite possibility of Mother Earth during the Spring Intensive. This was no small feat as the entire void was altered with new threads woven in from the Tao to create a greater resonance of full spectrum love that is now available in the spin of Terra's Aurora, and many patterns of extinction were lifted out as Terra forgave how her void had been so vastly manipulated. Many problems in her global dream are simply dissolving now due to the alterations in the void. There is a large cleansing underway as a result and Terra is due to heat up, possibly warmer than she has ever been in about 8 months' time. This will again concern scientists: and Earth is vying to have the concern help catch a dream for a greener movement and momentum to clean up the environment on the part of the human species. I also witnessed the shift into a round and soft pallet amongst those attending the Intensive. This was so beautiful to witness and led to a gentle and yet powerful dream of love to emerge amongst the group attending. Now it is up to each to move into this new shape of void and experience the same; and also retain the void that you received during the event. There are still those forces that watch you and vie to take what you have created. They are not so powerful really, and as you retrieve any part of your void that becomes lost, or return parts of others that are pressed into yours, you can also send such forces to the sun for dissipation; and ask Earth to weave the void underneath you and around you in the land into a sphere that better supports you wherever you live or work or travel.

Asur'Ana and Per are recasting the void of the Hawaiian Islands with Earth into a single sphere. First the sphere will encompass each island; and then a little later on there will be one united sphere in this region. Earth requires this as her heart movements are best sustained in a united void. This shift shall alter the dreams cast in the entire chain and towards a level of unity that even the Hawaiians did not know in more ancient times. Therefore, there will be a large shift amongst those living in this region. The Hawaiian ancestors are very happy about this shift as it is being orchestrated in a manner that they never conceived of, and from the background where they can greatly contribute unto the dream's unfolding.

I never felt welcomed by the Hawaiian ancestors when I was alive and many in the school may feel this way. By and large, I have come to understand that I gave my good relationship to my Hawaiian ancestor away to one of Athena descent; and experienced the rejection that should have been hers to experience. So, if you feel unwelcome for whatever reason, then look to see who you are trading your good ancestral relationships with; and pull the pallets at cause and dreams and music, and alter it to that of great relationships to those of this ancestry.

The Hawaiian Ancestors are warriors of a superb focus and will aid you in your ascension focus to defeat the dark and difficult karmic experiences with others who do not support or resonate with who you are becoming. Your transcendence the Hawaiian ancestors most desire to give unto as they love those ascending amongst you so. You have proven as a group also to fulfill upon their dream of Hawaii becoming a sovereign nation, which may not unfold for a decade or more yet but is coming in the dreams stepping into physicality.

I invite you to join Asur'Ana and Per and the group at our dreamtime events, especially if you are new. The master mining of the event energy flow and sound and now light that is to be orchestrated is no small feat; and it takes much of the Tao, Earth and Asur'Ana and Per's focus to foster. However, it has been the willingness to focus so greatly that have led to the successes of the events over the years to foster ascension, and so, this will continue to be so.

Each also contributes something towards the collective goals and then receives something special from Earth and from the Tao that causes your dreams to move into another direction than perhaps they could otherwise. It is useful therefore to intend your larger dreams at our DAS events and then allow them to be woven with the group by Earth into the future ahead; and then allow them to manifest as it is time in your life to experience them.

I intended to recover my health in the last dreamtime event I attended. This led to a series of circumstances where I could release the karma but not while alive rapidly enough to recover. However, the intention to recover my health will spill over upon present day ancestors related unto me and they shall recover. Intentions made are holographic and spill over to all others related unto yourself. So, dream big and intend big, bigger than you know how in this experience, and then allow the dreams to manifest that bring your heart fulfillment and your life joy.

The love is to return to the physical plane now. This is what you are gearing up as a group to foster. The love can only return as the false gods are collapsed and the dreams and golden octave are gathered back and then woven into the human dream. As this occurs, you will have more golden energies that are photonic in nature to draw upon to foster the love of the Tao within your fields. The energy will flow through the land from the Inner Earth, and you can call the golden octave into your field in this manner so that more love shall be contained within your flow.

As this comes to be so, blessing shall be easier, and this then shall lead to more rapid forgiveness as the love dissipates the karmic ties that bind. This shall allow ascension to flow rather than hiccup and burp all the time, and this is what causes the struggles that so many of you experience. Therefore, I invite you to move towards this goal and learn to become a walking blessing of the love of the Tao; as your life will be so much more beautiful as a result, and this is no small shift for the human species to master.

Your mastery is not just for you. It is for all ancestors that have ever lived and existed in a miserable physical existence: for all that are currently incarnate related unto oneself; and for all that shall ever be born related unto yourself. You master for all as this is the job of the map carver. It is no small task nor is it an easy task to master Bodhisattva or beyond, as each vying to do so understands.

It is a deep struggle to understand the thoughtform that is anti-love in nature; and replace it with the real love possible in the Heart of the Tao. However, this shift shall change the course of human history as children born in the real love will create another era ahead that will be so different from what has been. It will diverge into a completely new direction, and one that has never been before inside or outside of the Great Central Sun. Why is this so? It is due to the return of the Tao to its own creation to help take it Home that this is so.

The return of the Tao is no small shift. For a long time, prophets have spoken to the return of God Goddess All That Is unto its own creation. This is not something that occurs outside of the holographic truth from which life was spawned. For many years, Asur'Ana searched outside of self and only found false god after false god up the dimensions that did not know enough and was not interested in ascending Earth.

Over time her own despair caused Asur'Ana in particular to search within and opened gateways within her own hologram. As the gateways opened, a new understanding and consciousness was attuned unto that she calls "Tao". This consciousness is a part of the fabric of all holograms and all consensus holograms. As Terra began to attune inward too, she opened gates to her Tao within. This is how the intervention has now occurred; and began with the Heart of the Tao extending into her Aurora in late 2019.

Now more and more threads of the Tao are woven into Terra's pallets leading to yet other vibrations that illuminate the patterns she must transcend to foster a return to the Great Central Sun Dream in full. A new future has been woven due to the alterations in her pallets and void of infinite possibility, and she is cancelling the possibility of extinction or false ascension and leaving only the possibility of the return home to the Tao. As such this is the only dream that can be dreamt ahead, and it will lead to vast changes within and without and in the human experience that shall allow the Golden Age to flourish, and then another time of ascension Home into Tao thoughtform to emerge.

Some are going to make this journey in this lifetime. You can choose this if you feel it is your personal spiritual goal. Asur'Ana and Per are choosing to modify themselves into Tao thoughtform and then return home. This is no small journey and may take 40-50 years to orchestrate; but it is their goal.

However even if it is not your goal, then it becomes the goal of your inheritances ahead that shall be born equipped for the feat. This is no small feat as Tao thoughtform is so diverse from the DNA and holographic blueprints that Asur'Ana and Per have, we do not know how it will come to be so; but in the ongoing intention and layer by layer, little by little, they will succeed. I see the dream for this as Asur'Ana is related unto me as we share Grand Master lineages. And I want her to succeed as with Per as it is only in their success that then Terra's success can follow.

Asur'Ana and Per are the forerunners, and they suffer more greatly than any of you. You cannot reach inside their experience to understand; but I can, and I can tell you that they have faced their inner demons and transcended and forgiven, and in the expanded understanding of the Tao, are continuing to do so. Why are they special? Well, they are no more so than any of you or me; but they do appear to have been born with a spark of the Tao within and this then has led to their desire to go Home and this is so great in each of their hearts, it will come to be. Not all were born with this spark, and this does not make your journey any less important. In the holographic wheel, each is necessary unto the map, and without the ascension of the wheel, Asur'Ana also cannot return home to the Tao. Therefore, each is learning to contribute as a collective and unite for the common purpose of creating this map towards love and wholeness within. As it is accomplished, the journey of humanity shall shift collectively towards love and wholeness in all expressions of the dance of life.

I thank you for the journey that you are willing to make. Do not be afraid; strive to understand and forgive each experience and you will fulfill upon your ascension goals ahead.
Many Blessings,
Ancestor Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #9

June 10, 2022

Dear Friends

I thank you for your continued focus upon your path. Yes, it is true that ascension has been difficult, and there has been less support to understand the genetics that each is ascending into. This is why Terra created Mother Earth's Complete Ascension: Workbook 1 and Workbook 2; so that through conscious focus you could redirect the dream of your ascension into resonant DNA with her and with the Great Central Sun. Now the ancestors have moved closer and are choosing to support each ascending by locating the best possible DNA for you, as our perception is perhaps greater than yours from physicality. So, this we offer up unto each. If you are struggling, you can call upon us and I will attempt to find the right ancestors for you that shared DNA that are useful to your ascension ahead.

In understanding the struggle, myself to ascend and in my life and association with DAS, I am educating the ancestors as to what requires helping with to support ascension that is whole and complete ahead. So much is altering in the ancestral planes at this time as a result. Many ancestors departed Earth also rising up the dimensions with the false gods and body level consciousness that departed physicality. In some respects, they followed their own lost body level consciousness.

However, the dance in the dreams up the dimensions is no "Heaven". The dreams are constructed from a part of the consciousness of the whole, and the further the false gods rise, the more of a fractured state that they dance within. Most ancestors returning to Earth at this time who followed the false gods admit that there is no solution in this type of dance to the problems that plague both physicality and non-physicality alike. The separation only creates a fractured state for all; and so, this must be healed now that it is understood.

What caused physicality and its consciousness or spirit and matter to separate in this dance in the first place? Asur'Ana has been pondering this as of late and I would like to share what she discovered. She discovered that the body level consciousness is seeking freedom; and its ultimate freedom is to divorce the physical completely through either combustion or extinction. Then the consciousness is free of the physical which is perceived as a prison. The problem with this is that then the consciousness devoid of physicality has no chi as it is the body that creates the chi for all dreams to co-exist. So now the divorced consciousness must tap into other physical existences to sustain itself, and then it becomes a sort of parasite upon the whole. This too is a pattern Earth is releasing at this time; to remove all the tethers from false gods that did not originate here upon Earth. Each can also look for false god tethers that are not related to your own body level consciousness or field and remove them at this time, as they only take your chi required for ascension.

Physicality is only a prison without the understanding that one must search inward to go Home to the Tao within. So over time the nonphysical consciousness of humans, dolphins and whales became bored with the endless reincarnation cycle after cycle and vied to separate thinking that this would carry them home. Alas puffing up the dimensions leads to nothing and is an empty dance overall; and so, this obviously is not the way to "go home."

Asur'Ana has also been told by the Tao that the dance to separate spirit and matter is a creation level command that occurred due to light-based Tao creations who intended to force spirit and matter to adjoin and this is considered freedom. So here in counterbalance and in the dark dream cast in association, spirit and matter split as this is what is perceived as freedom. Therefore, the solution to this is to heal the polarity of the split in spirit or matter and its opposite of forcing spirit and matter together, and come to the middle road of one's own body level consciousness returning to where it belongs so that all is in place to return Home to the Tao. These are complex spiritual issues for those of you new to DAS studies; but this is exciting to the ancestors as there has been no one to think about the complex circumstances that created this mess until now; and this is directly related to the presence of the Tao who has entered to understand. As the thoughts at cause of why this has occurred are understood, then they can be transformed and change and ascension home then becomes viable. I will give you an example of this so that you will better understand. Sirius ascended and they did so by reuniting spirit and matter. The only problem is that the false gods choosing to unite with the physical were not associated with the bodies of those ascending. As a result, false gods that had separated from other bodies that combusted or from creations that went extinct chose to blend with Sirian humans and the planetary consensus and puff it up in the physical and up the dimensions. Beloved, this is not ascension. What occurred is that Sirian body level consciousness still split off and the physical moved up the dimensions with some other consciousness adjoined; and how much truth can be then expressed in such a circumstance?

The false gods arranging this dance had come to the conclusion that ascending without physicality was not working, and so, they vied to ascend with and merge with another physical creation, as their creations had long gone extinct. Well, this does not work either as there is no manner to return Home to the Tao unless everything is in its place; with physical and nonphysical consciousness adjoined and working towards the same goal of embracing Tao thoughtform. Therefore, we can see in this that in either case, puffing up the physical or puffing up the nonphysical to another dimension does not lead to homecoming. It only leads to extinction for the whole.

So, I invite you to have your ancestors gather around you to forgive how your ancestry lost its own body level consciousness in the combustions of long ago. As we each forgive how spirit and matter separated, it can be reunited and work towards the common goal of ascending home to the Tao. As we forgive the dance, your body level consciousness can also be retrieved for this lifetime and all lifetimes associated, and you can intend this as well with your ancestors. As all body level knowing is restored, then your body will have the wisdom that it requires to ascend in the physical as well as understand as what requires understanding and forgiving ahead. These are exciting times of change and there is much more ahead that is worth living for than in other times and other creations that your ancestors have lived within in a multidimensional sense. All ancestral eyes are turning towards humanity upon Earth along with the whales and dolphins at this time to understand what they never understood before the Tao's presence came to examine this experience. Human ancestors from all dimensions this cycle and that departed this Great Central Sun are choosing to go "home" to the Tao. Only those associated with this Great Central Sun are being allowed to remain.

Sometimes ancestors also come from other creations and other Suns. They also need to return from where they were spawned and where the information resonates. Therefore, there is a vast ancestral cleansing also underway at this time that shall lead to a physical cleansing of nonresonant DNA that they are associated with upon Earth. The nonphysical always precedes the physical in the change; and so, we ancestors can say to you that the times of cleansing shall occur ahead. Do not be afraid as you are working more consciously to render your DNA resonant with this Great Central Sun; and so, you will carry on ahead even when many others may perish.

Many having false ascensions have suspended themselves in a polarity of nondestruction. For them, the collapsing of the machinery that inflates them in this polarity shall force the dance in the other direction; and many may perish as a result. Those more conscious of their ascension can redirect themselves to clear the patterns that they had pressed outside of self to suspend themselves in light or middle range dream. Ultimately, ascension is up to each to clear their thoughtform and understand the patterns that one's ancestors went into in times past. Asur'Ana and Per may help direct the ascension with the help of Mother Earth or the Tao; but ultimately it is up to each to do their inner homework.

False ascension is confusing as there can be so many other thoughtforms also present in the mix due to pressing one's own thoughtform outside of the field. The thoughtform of others will not be transmuted by oneself either; thoughtform is very personal and must be of one's own ancestry in order to transform. This is why false ascension really creates cease ascension where nothing can be transmuted, as the thoughtform is all jumbled up and intertwined with others. Much as this creation is a jumbled-up mess of DNA from many other creations. In this time of ascension, some choose to intertwine again rather than move towards non-attachment. Only non-attachment of both the space between and space without will retain health in ascension over time, and so, this is why those that move towards greater attachment will perish as it causes so much dissonance that the cellular structure will fail to hold its health.

We ancestors can see from the inside and background the attachments of your field.

Therefore, if you invite the ancestors to assess the attachment, we can begin to point out where your body tends to desire to exchange or trade parts of self with others. Then we will seek out new DNA for such region that tends to do the opposite so that you can ascend into a greater state of non-attachment. Attachments that are positive are easier to perceive; it is the void attachments that are the most difficult and we will strive to illuminate these so that they too can be transformed ahead.

I thank you for listening to what we have to share today. I bless you from the ancestral planes.

Namaste,

Ancestor Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #10

June 24, 2022

Dear Friends

There are many changes occurring in the energy flow of Earth. The forces that many have known as Lord Metatron, Serapis Bey, Lady of the Sun, Melchizedek, Rama, Thoth et al have lost their footing in the solar system. These forces are false gods, some of which originated through combustions upon Earth, but most of which originated from combustions upon other planets including in the Pleiades or upon Sirius. The combustions separated spirit and matter and spirit inflated into false gods. The false gods did not know much and so the Pleiades and Sirian counsels sent them elsewhere and so they ended up in your solar system. They are ultimately body level consciousness divorced of physicality and know only a portion of the truth of the whole as a result, and then misguide everything as a result.

Some of these forces are light in nature, and this includes Metatron and Lady of the Sun, Rama and Thoth; and yet others like Melchizedek are associated with darker natures; and primarily this is due to spinning pyramidal formations rather than lotuses. So, you can see that here upon Earth the electricity from Pleiadian formations sinks into the space between and then becomes associated with negative flow or darkness, whereas in the Pleiades it would assume a positive flow and be considered therefore a force of the light.

These forces have been leading humanity for a long time and even that which some red nation tribes call “Creator” is really one of the above and not Mother Earth. Mother consciousness is also present, but becomes displaced by the false gods who sometimes assume her persona to further dominate human consciousness. We would think of the persona of “Creator” as a false god assuming Earth as a role.

Many humans have channeled these forces. At this time, there is a vast cleansing of all communication planes that are associated so that humans can hear the Language of Light and their ancestors rather than some other creation language and the false gods. Mostly the false gods have imported languages from other creations and use them to construct a system of working through the human species.

The false gods assume human formations as they are a part of body level consciousness and so would appear humanoid. Most other nonphysical appears as an energy formation that is not shaped but rather more like a mist of light. There are human formations that should be present in the nonphysical and these are ancestors; all other human shaped formations are generally false gods. Some appear as angels with wings but with human bodies; these too are simply false gods and disassociated body level consciousness that may be associated with the angels that once spun the DNA.

Humans have many variant origins of DNA as you know from studying Asur'Ana and Earth's information. Those related to the Pleiades will resonate with those like Melchizedek as they speak the same Pleiadian language in the nonphysical. Those of Sirian ancestry will resonate with those like Rama, Thoth, Metatron, or Lady of the Sun as they tend to speak Sirian language. Sirian language is not the Language of Light.

The Language of Light appears to be a Grand Master thoughtform that Asur'Ana retrieved from her own ancestry and then Dara from the Order of Dari implemented upon Earth and until she was removed. The Language of Light easily is combined to create the Language of ONE that resonates with this Great Central Sun; and so, we would assume that the Grand Masters were of this Sun's origins in thoughtform as a result.

The Language of ONE is being modified yet again with Tao threads leading to Tao thoughtform. This appears not as complex as it may sound as the humans that casted life within the Great Central Sun used Tao thoughtform to do so, although it may be from an earlier expansion cycle. This is allowing all kingdoms to retrace their past back to the original thoughtform that we were cast within, and then in so doing, this thoughtform can be modified yet again, to return Home to the Tao.

The body and DNA remember the Tao thoughtform and so it is easily accepted and possibly leads to a sense of expansion into one's truth. This has been our observation of Asur'Ana and Per who are as rapidly as possible modifying their language into Tao thoughtform; and it appears to draw them increasingly into their center and their truth. As they understand this process, they will share it and the shift into Tao thoughtform will begin for each map maker then within the school, and become a part of the map at an earlier phase of ascension than Asur'Ana and Per. This shall take the map makers yet again in another direction leading to greater wholeness, truth, and love within, and then to be experienced without in the dance of life.

You are finding your way home within beloved, and this is the only manner in which truth and love can be restored. First it will be an internal experience, and the shift will also alter the biology into becoming more capable of holding its health. As the body modifies its systems, the mirrors of human relations shall shift to be a reflection of the changes within. So, it is only as the internal shifts and then the genetics shift that there can be a new life born; first for the map carvers and then for the followers and then for the incoming little ones; and then all of humanity to follow. There is a new day to be born ahead, but first it will be born within. As each strives to focus in the internal changes necessary to this goal, it shall become your future and your ancestors' future yet unborn.

The end of the era of the false gods is coming upon you now. This has been something Asur'Ana and Per and many in their association have wished for, and for a long time. Their interference underlies how false ascension is used to strip and harm ascending humans. As what occurs in the background of this nature ceases, ascension is not only more assured, but the path becomes clearer and less fraught with struggle. It is the struggle that makes this path so difficult and yet in the continued clearing that global ascension causes, the path will widen and become less of a struggle and more of a joy to dance upon ahead. This also is my wish for each of you choosing to walk this path ahead, as I am well aware of all the struggle having lived it in my own ascension.

We will leave you with these thoughts.
Namaste,
Ancestor Faith

From Ancestor Faith: Letter #11

July 5, 2022

Dear Friends

I thank you for being willing to listen to what I have to say. You are moving through many changes ahead and the dream time events are most magnificent. There are also those of the past returning to dance with the group to allow for a more thorough completion of the patterns that you and Earth are transcending at this time in her global ascension. The end result is to be a brighter Earth energy flow with a more resounding music playing that is ohana based within her field. Duets of all types are to be launched during the events between humans and each kingdom; and each will contribute to this goal that participates. Some will also return to dance with the school again in the New Tier.

The new tier of DAS is holding a new music within each field rotation that is to resound at future events. The new duets sung within in the new tier are to administer blessings on a group level that have not occurred since Grand Master times of long ago. There are a few groups in the Inner Earth that blesses this way, but they are small in number. So now there will be an outer Earth group that will bless as a group. Group blessings foster big changes; and each in the new tier is to be honored for their devotion to their mastery this lifetime; as they are accomplishing something very special, and this is the fulfillment of all the hard work to transcend into the Language of ONE flow together.

Ascension is a path of devotion but also a path of love from an ancestral point of reference. Opening to the love is the goal as it is only in the love that all things are healed; and all patterns can release and be forgiven; and all dances can then change. Without the love, none of this is possible. For a long time, many in DAS ascended but without enough love. The love continued to be sent to Sirius or other spiritual groups through the unconscious of the group. This created a difficult dance of non-love and the struggle to forgive.

Since the entrance of the Heart of the Tao into Terra's Aurora, there is more love. However, it still dissipates elsewhere and so each is in need to watching where the love flows, and to release the karma at cause of why you give your love away to others or other creations. This the ancestors perceive as one of the more important focuses, for to the degree you can hold your love within your field, to such a degree ascension flows in ease as does one's life dreams. So where does your love go? Perhaps you will take a moment to look inward and see. There are many agreements to give love to the nonphysical and false gods. So perhaps it is time to retrieve the love, you have given along with your body level consciousness to the nonphysical existences around you. Yes, we need love too, but not to a point of depleting physicality so greatly that it goes extinct; or cannot return Home. The nonphysical needs the physical to go home as the keys to the Tao lie within the genetics and hologram.

Therefore, we are coming to understand as ancestors the import of loving and fostering the physical when we have denied the physical for so very long thinking that we would go "home" up the dimensions and with the false gods. The false gods were not understood to be our own lost body level consciousness until recent years of examination on the part of the Tao. However, now that this is understood, we see the uselessness of this dance as it leads nowhere and only to continued dances of extinction ahead.

Therefore, the ancestors are in the process of creating new agreements with all physical vessels fostering whole and complete ascension and hosting lineages to be born of the same; and our goals are to love you and support you and each human of ascension ancestry in all ways possible so that we also can return Home to the Tao. We too are in need of forgiving ourselves for abandoning physicality, and you are in need of also forgiving us for abandoning you. And so, I invite you to forgive with us so that we can create these new agreements to foster a new day of ohana and love between us. This we see is more important possibly than anything else. Soon there is to be a wondrous shift and we can see the dreams stepping down the dimensions of this nature. What is the shift? Well mostly we see a large dance of light, love, chi and sound emerging around Terra and the entire new consensus up the dimensions. The new dance of love, light, chi and sound will cause an explosion of dream of the Tao to enter Terra's field along with the field of the new ascending multidimensional consensus.

The Tao is to extend into Terra more greatly for her homecoming within. Already this has occurred for Asur'Ana and Per who are holding more of their Tao within their field than ever before, and are beginning modification of their thoughtform to become entirely Tao based. Perhaps this speaks to the truth that the journey Home is really not that difficult; it just requires thoughtform transmutation, as this is how one can modify one's current thoughtform into something else. Then as the thoughtform becomes increasingly Tao based, at some point one will simply depart the delusion of this existence and go home.

None of the mystics or sages of times past ever went anywhere. This we ancestors have to contend with. When the body combusts in a false ascension, the consciousness departed and the ancestors associated went into a hell void of nonexistence. Those ancestors recovered from voids of this nature in recent years and due to those of you willing to resurrect and reconstitute us will tell you of the emptiness and grief that we each felt in such a state of being. The part of our consciousness that rose up the dimensions as false gods departed in great arrogance of thinking that they were all knowing and ascending. This is not ascension; it is destruction of the physical so that the nonphysical body consciousness is freed; but freed to do what? This is the point as there is nowhere to go in this dance, and it does not lead anyone or any part of self Home.

Those ancestors who followed the false gods up the dimensions were deluded that this would lead them home. Alas, it does not. Ascension up the dimensions in the physical also does not lead anything Home. Those humans of larger heads that ascended to the fourth dimension and created a fourth dimensional Earth in the Aurora cannot go anywhere. They are in a dead end loop as ascension is not about climbing the dimensions, whether it be in the physical or the nonphysical. Ascension is about modifying thoughtform to what is current Tao based loops and then stepping out of the delusion returning to where one was spawned as a part of the creators of the Tao. This all ancestors are coming to understand and now desire to foster within each who is choosing to ascend; and to help each to find their connection to one's Tao within.

As I, Faith, examine how Asur'Ana opened to her Tao within, she went deep into her hologram determined that there had to be something else to connect to other than what she knew. The gates opened in the intention and a part of the Tao nearby could be heard. She shared of her records and received guidance at that time to work her way out of her ascension dilemma. The wisdom was invaluable and taught her much about the state of affairs here, including the truth that the false gods were lost body level consciousness. So, this has been understood for some time: but it is only now in Terra's own ascension that the entire picture of how the nonphysical separates off rising up the dimensions is understood so that it can be shut down, and all body level consciousness retrieved and restored to where it belongs for the homecoming to the Tao. Therefore, this the ancestors invites each of you reading of Faith's information to foster. Intend to retrieve all the body level consciousness you and your ancestors have ever lost up the dimensions; along with all information, chi, love, light, holographic knowledge and anything else. It is only as we restore the physical that ascension home becomes possible; and restoring the physical requires the body level consciousness to return to its rightful place within the dance of life. As this occurs, the homeward path of transformation into Tao thoughtform can then begin.

In our observations as ancestors, reaching into the Tao within is not difficult if one has grand master holographic nature. It appears that this holographic nature carries keys for communication with the Tao. Others of other holographic nature will have to await future generations born of Grand Master Hologram related unto oneself to foster this communication. However, this is not wrong; it is only the nature of the dance at this time.

We are lucky to a great degree that those larger headed humans seeded upon Earth held such keys in the first place, as it allows us now a legitimate return journey "home" and not just for those of this archetypal nature, but all humans ahead. So, we must be grateful for what we have beloved, even if your archetype is red nation or Anu in nature. Through generational ascension ahead, all shall be restored to all humans, and we shall all go Home. The ancestors can see the pathway and journey illuminated ahead of us now when it did not exist a year ago or less; therefore, this is a grand shift indeed.

And so, the ancestors invite you to open to your Tao within if you can, and understand that children shall be born now opened to their Tao within. They will be self-driven and will determine their own dreams intending their mastery each step of the way; and guided also by the Ancestral Planes that are now being constructed in the background of all humans. It is through the ancestral planes that each may also receive guidance, even if you have no Tao connection within. It also takes a certain mastery over algorithms in the heart hologram to have a Tao connection. Therefore, even those with Grand Master holographic nature have to master to a certain level to foster the opening and communication.

In the meantime, the ancestors will continue to allow communication between the Tao and ourselves to flow. Built into the ancestral planes is a connection to the Heart of the Tao in Terra's Aurora. So, we will also seek out Tao guidance for each requiring such for your continued mastery upon your path. We will also seek out the best possible genetics that knew how to love and bless at the times that your ancestors were alive for you to ascend into. This is the only means we have of supporting the restoration of love upon the physical plane; and it is only as love is restored in the human species that humans can begin their return journey Home to the Tao.

For those joining Asur'Ana and Per in their dreamtime events, we bless you. Anyone who is interested is welcome to join these events by making the intention to participate during dreamtime just before falling asleep. You are fostering something special. Please intend to receive the blessings of Mother Earth towards your dreams ahead and you shall foster many changes in your life that shall lead to greater fulfillment in the physical. We also will work with you to weave your dreams for the contribution unto Mother Earth in this work and in attendance of more events as more are needed now to gather to foster the continued global changes that shall lead to the new Golden Age ahead.

Namaste,
Ancestor Faith