

Our Team

Scott Marwood, Owner of Clarion Tax Services

Received his training in accounting and business administration at Humber College in Toronto. During the late 1980s and early 1990s Scott owned and operated Martech Computer Products, a leading corporate re-seller of computer software to three levels of government and large corporations. Coupling his accounting background and his hi-tech experience, he began to sell network accounting solutions to small and medium-sized businesses that were PC based as the technology was emerging. In 1994 Scott relocated to Vancouver, BC and began to freelance as a senior bookkeeper and tax preparer to a variety of small businesses, including sectors such as IT, Services, Restaurants, Professionals, Retailers and Consultants. He was Chief Financial Officer for the 40th Federal Election NDP riding of St. Paul's in the fall of 2008.

Sewa Dhami, Senior Bookkeeper

Brings 16 years of accounting experience in all facets of bookkeeping for small to medium-sized businesses. Working in Excel, Quickbooks Desktop or Online.
