

An Interpretation of The Book of REVELATION: A Demonic Battle to Corrupt Christianity, Dominate Humanity, Pervert Thought, Control the Media, and Steal Ideas

By: Steven Kenyatta Briggs

Late May 2023, after stumbling into a deeper understanding of the pervasive evil in America, I had a feeling I should read the Bible's book of Revelation, and do my level best to interpret it. At the time, I had only read about one page of Revelation (Chapter 13), way back in junior high.

As you read my interpretation, you may conclude that I am anti-Protestant, anti-Catholic, or anti-Christian. None of these are the case. When I was a few months old, I was baptized Catholic. When I was 8-years old, I was baptized Baptist. When I was 22, I was baptized nondenominational Christian. I'm 58 now; still, and always, a Christian. The conclusions I've reached are an unbiased assessment of the plain facts.

My interpretation of Revelation correctly vilifies fake Christians, who seem to be the vast majority of Christians (?) and the most effective agents of Satan. It is up to true Christians, known by the love in our actions, to protect Christianity and humanity from fake Christians.

II Corinthians 11:13-15 warns about fake Christians, led by Satan, acting like Christians, and says we can tell fake Christians by their works:

13 "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ.

14 "And no marvel, for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.

15 “Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.”

Now, about Revelation...

Revelation is layered with symbols. In Chapter 17, an angel reveals the Beasts’ seven heads represent seven mountains, which, in turn, represent seven nations. The angel also reveals a certain woman represents Babylon, which, in turn, represents some unknown nation. But there is an order and reason to the angel’s (and the Apostle John’s) use of symbols. Interpreting Revelation requires interpreting symbols. But any interpretation should adhere to the existing order and reason.

The Apostles John received his Revelation visions many hundreds of years before the events described in Revelation began to happen. So, naturally, the book leaves many questions unanswered; like what is the “mark” in the forehead or in the right hand?; what is the image? what does the head that was “wounded to death” but healed mean?; what are the 42 months?; what is the dragon? –all these question, and more, left unexplained.

I’m going to explain everything. God willing.

PRELUDE

The most important sections of Revelation deal with three terrible Beasts, and how the Beasts are finally defeated.

In making sense of Revelation, it’s essential to understand how important faith, religion and churches (and mosques, temples, synagogues, etc) were to the development of modern society. As humanity evolved, many societies came and went, but the ones that tended to endure tended to share belief systems, and were built around houses of worship. So, although these houses of worship were fallible, like the people who ran them and worshipped in them, humanity owes an unparalleled debt to these holy places.

Because large churches were so instrumental to creating stable, more humane and reasonable nations, it is reasonable that churches, mosques, synagogues, etc, have substantial influence and power today. The problem, like the problem with kings and presidents, is determining when there is too much influence and power.

KEY REVELATION BACKGROUND

Jesus was born in the Roman Empire, at a time when Rome covered North Africa, part of the Middle East, and a good chunk of Western Europe. Rome was huge, diverse, and must have seemed as if it would last forever.

The Apostle John began writing Revelation, near the end of his life, in or around 95 A.D., as Christianity was spreading throughout Rome.

Although Christianity started in Rome, the first Christian nation formed outside of the Roman Empire, in Armenia, around the year 300. But, not long after, in 323, Christianity became the state religion of the Roman Empire. A few years later, in 330, Christianity was the state religion of Ethiopia, in Africa.

Fast forward a hundred years, or so, the seemingly impossible happened: Between the 5th and 6th century, Western Rome fell, and the Western world entered the Dark Ages.

The fall of the Western Roman Empire set up one of the key mysteries of Revelation –a vision of a head “wounded to death.”

Moveable Type. As the Dark Ages trudged along in the West, great things were afoot elsewhere. In the 11th century, Chinese inventor Bi Shong invented one of the most important technologies of the next few centuries: moveable type printing. Moveable Type was ornate, and somehow more persuasive, and soon spread throughout the world.

- Also in the 11th century, the Great Schism occurred, when the Eastern Orthodox Church split from the Roman Catholic Church. Separate from this, in 1439, the Russian Church joined the Roman Catholic Church –but broke from the Roman Church, permanently, 9 years later, in 1448. Thus, Eastern Christian churches played no role in the crimes and scandals described herein.

The Moveable Type Printing Press

The next great technological breakthrough, relevant to Revelation, came in 1440, when Johannes Gutenberg invented the moveable type printing press, which printed almost 100 times faster than hand printing.

Moveable type printing became the new high-tech industry for the next few centuries; creating powerful new publishing industries, which provided the public a new and semi-affordable form of entertainment: books.

Before long, publishers and politicians learned the moveable type press was extremely effective at molding the opinions of the masses. Soon the first newspaper appeared, in Germany, around 1600. And the world was changed.

Publishers also learned moveable type printing could be used to rob the public. Thus, for the next 200 years, publishers stole stories and ideas, at will, from common people –who had no form of copyright law to protect their works (not until 1710, when the UK introduced the Statute of Anne).

- This effort to steal common people’s ideas will be a recurring battle, lateral to the advent of all three Beasts of Revelation.

Guns

Simultaneous to the advent of the moveable type printing press, and the birth of industrialized propaganda, guns (rifles and muskets) were getting more sophisticated and appearing on battlefields; cannons also. The Western worlds’ heavy investment in guns and cannons changed the global power balance. Soon, most major world powers were Western nations. Before long, guns enabled Europeans to conquer the new continents of North and South America, and to conquer one very well-known continent, which had previously been unconquerable: Africa.

THE FIRST OFFENSE AGAINST GOD:

The Renaissance

All of the catalytic events, giving rise to the first Beast of Revelation, occur during the Western European Renaissance. The Renaissance (the “rebirth”) happened during the 15th and 16th centuries, and is defined by a widespread effort, in Europe, to revive the ideas, achievements and glory of the Roman Empire.

Although, in the West, we laud everything about the Renaissance, the Renaissance had a terrible, heretical ulterior motive –to make God in the image of man. More specifically, part of the goal of the Renaissance became to remake God into the image of a White man, then promulgate the view that White men are nearest to God; thus, nearest to perfection; thus, superior.

Currently, the third paragraph of Wikipedia’s “Renaissance” entry reads: “The Intellectual basis for the Renaissance was its version of humanism, derived from the concept of Roman humanitas and rediscovery of classical Greek philosophies, such as Protagoras, who said that ‘man is the measure of all things.’”

During the Renaissance, Europe's greatest thinkers and artists fictionalized and revised history, and began to corrupt Christianity. We see this in Leonardo da Vinci's painting "The Last Supper" (circa 1495), where Jesus and all of his disciples were depicted as White (given that Israel was in the Middle East, and only a couple hundred miles from Africa, it is certain that Jesus and his disciples were various shades of brown). These Romantic revisions of Jesus started before Leonardo, but this fallacy became the pervasive "truth" during the Renaissance –and it opened the door to a much more audacious heretical act –which helped bring about the first Beast. That catalytic heretical act was Michelangelo painting the image of God, at the invitation of Pope Julius II, on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, in Michelangelo's celebrated work: The Creation of Adam (1512).

As a liberated Westerner, I believe individuals should have the right to illustrate God (where to display these images remains a matter for debate). But, as a thinker and a Christian, it is unacceptable that a Christian religious leader would commission such a work for display in a holy chapel.

Why?

Because the second Commandment directs: "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth."

But Michelangelo didn't just paint God on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel, for centuries of visitors to witness; Michelangelo depicted God as a White man (old, lazy, and being carried about by naked cherubs). For Europe's contingent of powerful White supremacists, determined to elevate White Europeans above all other races, this heresy became a powerful tool to indoctrinate millions of new passive White supremacists, and served as prima fascia evidence that God was an old White man (after all, if it is displayed in a chapel in the Vatican, it must be true). Best of all, Michelangelo's painting supported the Renaissance supremacists' deepest belief: Man is the measure of all things; White men were superior; hence, whatever White men viewed as best and correct, was so.

Thus, a New World was born, where rich men manipulated God's image to achieve their interests.

And into this New World came the first Beast...

The First Beast (Out of the Sea): THE BEAST of the DRAGON

In 1492 Christopher Columbus proved the world was round. Soon, the West discovered the Americas, which started an international race to claim the already occupied new lands. The discovery of the Americas ushered in an age of genocide, plunder, theft and enslavement. This was the first Beast, which took over the Earth from the 15th century to the mid 19th century.

As reports of endless free land to claim in the Americas spread, wealthy Europeans planned to subjugate, slaughter and enslave nations. But there was one powerful voice, a man of God, who might stop them –the Pope. So the first step in dominating the world was to weaken the Papacy and the Church.

Martin Luther and the Protestant Reformation

In 1517, in Germany, Martin Luther's Ninety-Five Theses letter to Bishop von Brandenburg attacked the Pope's authority, and accused the Pope of trying to stand between the people and God. As a result, soon, people began leaving the Church, by the tens of thousands, to join the new Protestant church –with many new branches and spin-offs on the way. Thanks to Martin Luther, everyone was free to interpret the Bible as they wished.

Luther may have acted independently, or under instruction (from the way his Theses was quickly translated and distributed throughout Europe, I suspect he was funded by various business interests). In either case, his historical portrayal as the second savior of Christianity is almost blasphemy.

The Protestant Reformation, of course, was only possible because of the new moveable type printing technology. Before the moveable type press, only churches and the extremely wealthy could ever hope to purchase a hand written Bible. But the moveable type press suddenly changed that. And the corrupt publishers, who likely sponsored Martin Luther's Ninety-Five Theses, seized on this, and cajoled families to display their faith by purchasing their own semi-expensive Bibles. Thus, the wealthy publishers who divided the Church, used the division to market their first best-seller: the Bible.

Soon, Protestants piled into ships, new Bibles in tow, to claim some free land in America. Once in the New World, with only their consciences to guide them, if they didn't participate in atrocities, they'd routinely ignore the state-sponsored genocide and enslavement of Native Americans and Blacks.

Meanwhile, with the power of the Papacy decimated by the split of the Church, the Pope, like the rest of the world, was powerless to stop the onslaught; a silver lining: under the Pope's moral guidance, Italy remained out of the genocide and conquest industries for centuries. [Italy eventually tried its hand at colonization –but almost 300 years after the others, in 1890.]

Back in Europe, undesirables and the unemployed crammed in boats for the New World. Hence, continents to pillage and slaves to sell, the marauding and slave-trading economies of Europe exploded with wealth, for centuries.

The first Beast was at hand.

Decoding the First Beast Verses ¹

Chapter 13, Verse 1

AND I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. ★ 37, 34, 33:8 Rom.

*And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and I saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.*²

The 7-headed Beast out of the Sea is, collectively, England, France, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands, Belgium and Germany, going out to plunder the Americas and Africa. The ten horns and crowns are explained later.

You may ask, “Why Germany? During this time, they weren’t conquering, killing and enslaving –at least not like the others.”

Germany’s role was the Protestant Reformation and Martin Luther, which enabled all of the subsequent crimes against humanity.

² “Blasphemy” refers to Martin Luther’s Ninety-Five Theses.

The Leopard, Bear & Lion

-2 And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

The Leopard. “Like unto a leopard” means acting with stealth and predation.

Feet of a Bear. “The feet of a bear” means two things... The old Roman Empire, where and when John wrote Revelation, had a “fighting season,” the season when Rome could safely make war with other nations. Fighting season lasted 7 months, March 18th to October 19th, and existed because fighting in the winter months meant risking the lives of an entire army –largely because of the poor design of Roman soldiers’ shoes –just leather straps and a leather bottom –no protection against wet and cold. This changed in the 15th and 16th century, when weltd rand shoe-making emerged: thick hard soles, sewn to thick leather bottoms, with insoles and outsoles, attached to sealed leather tops. This improved design extended the fighting season, by making European soldiers’ feet more resistant to cold –like bears feet. Thus, and first, feet of a bear refers to the amazing new shoes European soldiers wore. Now, in much of the world, European soldiers could make war year round.

Second, feet of a bear is also be a metaphor for walking fearlessly and disrespectfully (the way large bears are known to plunder campsites).

Mouth of a Lion. The “mouth of a lion” means two things. First, lions have loud “roars,” which travel great distances. With the advent of moveable type printing presses, the same publishers that divided the Church, used their press to make their voices and views travel far and wide (like the mouth of a lion), to move opinion in their favor. Second, “mouth of a lion” also means speaking very belligerently, in a threatening or war-like way.³

The Dragon

“... And the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and his great authority.” The “dragon” has two meanings.

- 1. “The dragon” means guns and canons (military power). John came from a time when the greatest combat technologies were swords, spears and arrows. The 15th - 19th century guns and cannons that John saw in his vision may have been almost beyond his comprehension. But the guns and cannons he saw blew fire and smoke –like a dragon.

- 2. “The dragon” also means Satan. In Revelation 12:3, 4 and 7, John describes a 7-headed dragon, which we learn, in 12:9, is Satan.

Thus, the Beasts’ power, seat and authority come from the dragon: guns, cannons and Satan.

13:3 -The Head “WOUNDED to Death,” But Suddenly Healed

3 And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.

The deadly wounded head that is somehow healed, represents the fall and rebirth of the Western Roman Empire. The Western Roman Empire fell around 500 AD. Rarely, if ever, are defeated conglomerate nations reborn. But the Western Roman Empire was reborn in 1254, when Germany, Austria, and parts of Italy and France united in the new “Holy Roman Empire” (surviving until 1806). In the 15th and 16th centuries, the Renaissance occurred, and the Holy Roman Empire rekindled its ancient Roman heritage: conquest.

13:4 -Worshipped the Dragon

4 And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him?

Ch. 18:18

The “dragon” means military power (guns and cannons). “Worship the dragon” is to overly admired the Beast’s military power –and even to try to imitate its military power.

13:5

THE 42 MONTHS –and the “Mouth”

5 And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. Dan. 7:8, 11, 25

“And there was given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies: and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months.”

The “mouth” is the new moveable type press, used to attack the Church.

42 months was the time it took the Pope to ban Martin Luther’s Ninety-Five Theses. It was 41.6 months from publication of Luther’s Ninety-Five Theses (October 31, 1517, to von Brandenburg) to his appearance at the Diet of Worms., April 18, 1521. It was 42 months (almost 43), from publication to when Luther’s Theses was banned, in the Edict of Worms, May 25th, 1521. (Luther was Excommunicated by Pope Leo X, January 3rd, 1521).

REVELATION 13: 6 and 7

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. Joh. 1:14
7 And it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations. Dan. 7:21

Verses 6 and 7 describe Martin Luther’s attack on the Christianity. “Make war with the saints, and to overcome them” describes Luther defeating the Church. Power over “kindreds, and tongues, and nations” describes the international spread of various forms of Protestantism, thanks to Luther.

13:10: Christians Ordered to Fight the Beast

10 He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints. Is. 33:1 ★ perseverance

This is an order for true Christians to fight the Beast, whole-heartedly.

The Second Beast (Out of the Earth)

THE BEAST of the IMAGE & MARK

In Revelation 13:11, a second Beast emerges out of the earth. This Beast, the Beast of the Image and Mark, arrives about 440 years after the first Beast, around 1955. This Beast represents the United States. The Beast has two horns, which represent, either, Japan and Israel (two of America's new post-WWII allies), or big media & tech and the defense industry (these two horns are not mentioned again, and do not factor into the rest of Revelation).

The image and mark are uniquely horrible sins, because unlike regular sins, God does not forgive worshipping the image or having the mark.

Why do I say the Beast of the Image and Mark represent the USA? First, because four of the new Beast's attributes suggest it is the USA (13:12 says the Beast has the same powers as the first Beast, and causes the earth to worship the first Beast –the West; 13:13 suggests the new Beast is a nuclear power –in the mid 1950s, only USSR and the US were nuclear powers; 13:12 and 13 describe the Beasts' wonders and miracles; the Beast is so admired that other nations imitate it). Second, other aspects, described in Revelation, discussed later, also suggest the Beast of the Image and Mark is the USA.

Revelation 13:13 and 14 use the expression “in the sight of men” and “in the sight of the beast.” These “sight” references pertain to America's TV, film and internet technologies (visual technologies, relying on screens), more stimulating than prior entertainment and propaganda tools. The accelerant for these technologies came in 1955, when the US cable TV industry was born.

In 13:13, the first new power attributed to the Beast is the ability to make “fire fall from the sky.” I took that as a reference to intercontinental ballistic missiles, which America first developed in 1957 (the SM-65 Atlas).

This Beast is driven by 5 goals: 1. Making money (preferable corruptly); 2. Making Western people and social systems look superior to other people and nations; 3. Harming non-White and non-capitalist people and nations; 4. Infecting White Westerners with hate; 5. Shaping social thought via TV and internet (visual technologies).

- As we'll see, the Beast is so evil, it is also intent to destroy the US and the West, by impairing and perverting Western minds and values –for profit.

Heresy & Blasphemy

Usher in the Beasts

The first and second Beasts, both, first emerge after TWO incidents of massive heresy or blasphemy.

As you read earlier, the first Beast (out of the sea) emerged after Martin Luther attacked the Pope, and the Church allowed graven images of God, represented as a White man (creating Adam, who was also depicted as a White man), in the Sistine Chapel.

The second Beast arrived not long after two heretical events occurred in the middle of the 20th Century. The new heretical and blasphemous events that precipitate the Beast of the Image and Mark are as follows.

First, In April 1948, Millar Burrows first announced the finding of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The story alleges Bedouin shepherds discovered the scrolls inside ancient jars inside a cave in Palestine, in 1946; for the next year or two the scrolls moved through numerous hands, until they came into the possession of John C Trevor, of the American Schools of Oriental Research, in 1947; Millar Burrows, the director of ASOR, announced the finding of the scrolls on April 10th, 1948. Trouble is, the scrolls are fake. ⁴ This scheme was concocted to facilitate the creation of Israel, by Western businessmen (who will conduct activities in Israel that are illegal in the US).

May 14th, 1948, one month after the scrolls were found, Israel was created, when the Jewish People's Council declared the establishment of the State of Israel. Immediately, US President Harry Truman recognized Israel as a valid state. Soon, the actual heresy would begin, when Bible publishers began to alter the Bible –based on the Dead Seas Scrolls.

Second, in 1947, Oral Roberts began preaching prosperity gospel on US radio. The show did well. Thus, seven years later, in 1954, Roberts began leading a prosperity gospel television show. The show was a hit. Prosperity gospel supports the Beast's celebration of greed, and blasphemously manipulates and perverts scripture to allege wealth is the will of God and a sign of divine favor. Money and economies are an invention of man.

Thus, emerged the Beast of the Image and Mark.

⁴ I'll explain why I'm certain the Dead Sea Scrolls are fake in a separate publication. But if you read the scrolls history, you'll see the warning signs of fraud.

The Beast of the Image and Mark Arrives

The Beast of the Image of Mark is a compound entity, comprised of numerous members. There is a capped number of members. The Beast can operate effectively with just a few members, but operates at maximum evil effectiveness when all of its members are in place.

The first three members of the Beast united in 1955.

The Beast did not reach full strength, until 1972, when the sixth executive member ascended to power.

The Three Unforgiveable Crimes/Sins Of the Beast of the Image and Mark

Revelation 14:9 and 11, etc, establish that there are three groups of unforgiveable crimes or sins: 1. worshipping the Beast, 2. worshipping the Beast's image, 3. receiving the mark in your forehead or right hand. There are a total of about 10 specific crimes (more on these specific crimes, later).

THE BEAST OF THE IMAGE & MARK: The Fundamental Corruption of America, And the World

The Beast of the Image and Mark brought about the total corruption of US politics and business, and the corruption of our social and family values.

The first three members of the Beast went into action, in 1955, with tremendous effectiveness and success. But the door was opened for the Beast in the late 1940s and early 1950s, when the US began McCarthyism: getting American society to reflexively reject certain ideas; vilifying anyone who said the words communism or socialism –the Beast deepest enemies.

This was “thought policing,” and was fundamentally un-American.

But why would this happening in the middle of the 20th century?

Because a group of American businessmen were planning to take over American politics, to keep White American business leaders forever in control of all levels of America's government. By outlawing the idea of socialism and communism, these leaders were preserving their own power.

There were several layers to the plan, but one essential layer was corrupting US politics by paying huge donations to get politicians, who would do what the business leaders wanted, elected. Members of both parties, Republicans and Democrats, accepted the donations (bribes).

The formation of America was a result of the first Beast (the Beast of the Dragon); hence. America engaged in some extremely unconscionable actions until slavery ended. (More accurately, America continued to do some pretty bad things, but we started getting on the right path after slavery ended.)

A great example of how America began to correct itself and began to display good values are, and began working to get corruption out of American institutions, can be observed by reading "Appendix 4 The Federal Election Campaign Law: A Short History," where you learn the first campaign finance law was passed in 1867 (right after US slavery was abolished). This law stopped federal officers from asking Navy Yard workers for contributions. Over the next hundred years, America adopted many great anti-corruption laws, to get money out American politics (e.g., the 1907 Tillman Act, which prohibited corporations from contributing to federal campaigns; a 1910 federal campaign finance disclosure law; the Federal Corrupt Practices Act of 1925). These anti corruption laws continued into 1971, when the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 was passed; requiring disclosure of campaign donations AND expenditures, and it ALSO limited spending on media.

After all of these good actions, immediately after Supreme Court Justice Louis Powell (the sixth and final original leader of the Beast) joined the US Supreme Court, in 1972, the Supreme Court and other branches of American politics began to dismantle restrictions on donations and disclosure, over the next few decades. By far, the worst offender was John G Roberts, Jr., the current Chief Justice, who presided over the passage Citizens United, the insane law that allowed unlimited corporate donations and no disclosure.

But backing up to around 1948, when the idea of the Beast was still germinating, the first phase of the coming assault on America life, values and institutions began: The effort to get women to join the American workforce.

Of course, it's great and very appropriate for women to work. But the American corporate leaders behind this push wanted women to work -NOT because they valued women's minds and contributions- rather, they wanted women to join the workforce to flood the workforce with workers. This drove all wages down. The winner: the business leaders -the Beast.

But the impact of women in the workforce on American values was much, much worse... As wages went down, more and more families needed two incomes to make ends meet. For more and more families, this meant more and more mothers would not be at home afterschool –not until they got home from work. For many families, this meant kids, 12 to 17-years old, were home alone, to do whatever they wanted. Teen pregnancies skyrocketed. Fake Christians and corrupt business leaders blamed Black music and rock & roll.

Soon, a separate solution to all of the pregnant girls was necessary.

In 1960 “the pill was introduced. Thus, by the mid 1960s, sexually transmitted diseases were the new #1 communicable disease in America.

By the late 1960s, the Beast extolled America’s sexually liberated women, who, with the pill, like men, no longer had to suppress their impulses.

The Beast was also transforming American politics. Before 1964, Blacks and Whites both voted in about equal numbers for Democrats and Republicans. But in 1964, the Republican party used the “Southern Strategy” to get most Whites in the Republican Party, and most Blacks in the Democratic Party. Whites were now in the Party of business; the party of the Beast. You can guess which White group was not welcome in the Republican Party: Workers. If you believed in the rights of workers and unions (the enemy of business) you were out. Thus, White working men, who believed in living wages and unions, became part of the Democratic Party patchwork.

Laterally, with corporations quietly assuming control of American politics, some young construction workers were given meth, to keep them alert and working. Soon a dangerous new addict was created. But, since flooding prisons with White prisoners was not the image the Beast wanted to project, America changed its drug laws for Whites. ⁵

By the mid 1980s, hardcore porn was available to most US homes.

The Beast (US business) knew all state and national power is political, and determined to control US politics, via deception. But as the Beast’s onslaught progressed, it was not sufficient to only corrupt the US and West. The Beast was out to corrupt every nation that would accept its technology.

Decoding the Second Beast Verses: The IMAGE

13:11-13

The first few verses of Revelation 13 are pretty easy to decode.

-11 And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.
12 And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
13 And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, Deut. 13:1, 2, 3

- 1. “Spake as a dragon” means he spoke with the voice of a tremendous military power. (Dragon also means Satan.)
- 2. The second beast (US) caused the world to worship the first Beast (Europe), because the second Beast came out of Europe.
- 3. “Make fire come down from the sky” is the ability to launch nuclear bombs that hit targets around the world.

The Image, The Mark, In the Sight

In Revelation, 13:11 to 18, John has a vision of a second future Beast, with extraordinary powers—that rely on extraordinary technology. John did not know the name of this technology, so he assigned separate words to the two different technologies. To understand John and Revelation, we must know the definitions of three words or phrases: 1. In the sight of, 2. Image, 3. Mark.

-14 And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth^R by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and did live. II Thess. 2:9, 10

DEFINITION: “In the sight of...” (13:13 and 14) refers to the fact that the Beast relies on two new VISUAL technologies, TV and computer internet, to discharge its powers over men and nations.

- In 13:13 and 14, John sequences the technologies; first the image (TV), then the mark (computer internet). The next definitions are more important.

Four Definitions of “Image”

Image has four definitions:

1. “Image” is a TV (television).

Since John lived over 1800 years before TVs, he didn’t know what they were called. The term John used was “Image,” because TVs display an image.

2. “Image” is the actual viewing image of a TV screen (just as we might use the word today).

3. “Image” : the ability to use a TV or receive a TV signal.

4. “Image” is the physical or social likeness of a person (as the word is often used today).

Thus, when John uses the expression “make an image to” he intends ALL THREE meanings listed above, so “make an image to” means

- a. Make or purchase TVs (so people can view them).
- b. Make TVs accessible (transmit TV signals, via cable or radio waves).
- c. Make yourself in the likeness of someone else.

14 And he deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which

Thus, in 13:14, when the Beast tells the world they should “make an image to the beast,” the Beast is telling the world to do each:

- a. To make or buy TVs, so they can see the Beast.
- b. To make or buy the ability to receive TV signals.
- c. Remake their national and personal images in the likeness of the US.

15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

And in 13:15, when John describes the Beast’s “power to give unto the image,” he is saying the Beast (the US) had the power to animate the images on the TV screen, and create motion pictures, the most powerful technology of the 20th century. (“Speak” in 13:15, means the images on the TV also have sound that viewers can hear –thus, the TV characters have voices.)

Two Definitions of “Mark”

“Mark” has two definitions:

1. “Mark” is an visual identifier, placed in the forehead or in the right hand of humans, which identifies people, and their souls, who will be punished in Hell, due to engaging in certain unconscionable and unforgiveable crimes.
2. “Mark” is any computer, laptop or smart-phone devise that has a visual display screen that connects to the internet (which can be used to view endless terrible content and make purchases).

Again, John lived 1900 years before computers, laptops and smart-phones were invented, so he did not know the correct name for the devices he saw in his vision. The term John used was “mark,” because computers, TV, and smart-phones were the devices that people used when they were branded with the mark, in their foreheads or right hands (for viewing terrible images on the internet), and condemned to Hell.

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

Thus, in 13:16 (above), when John wrote “causeth all...to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads...,” John was clearly using the word mark in the sense of the first definitions (above), concerning the identifier that brands people for punishment in Hell.

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

But in the next verse, 13:17, above, when John wrote “...that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark...” John is using the word mark in the second sense (a computer, laptop or smart-phone), and John is saying that people with computers, laptops and smart-phones can buy or sell. (I’ll explain the entire passage, 13:17, soon.

Now we can pursue the sins and crimes of the image and mark.

The IMAGE and MARK Are Psychological Crimes/Sins, Committed Via TV or Internet

In the 19th century, a new science emerged in the West: psychology. This science, and the technologies of TV and internet powered the Beast.

John W Gardner was the original leader of the Beast. Gardner received his PhD in psychology from U.C. Berkeley in 1938. Gardner worked for the US military's Office of Strategic Service (OSS) during World War II, where he helped perfect the art of psychological warfare, "reprogramming" and subtle brainwashing. In 1955, Gardner became CEO of the Carnegie Corp; where, in 1964, he conceived and launched a commission that created the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (which created PBS, NPR –and Sesame Street).⁶ Gardner became the US Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, in 1965.

Because Gardner understood the power of visual mass media, in 1955, he was selected by Nelson Rockefeller and William S Paley to lead the effort to publicly finance wiring for cable TV, throughout America.

Psychology and Brainwashing.

In the 1930s and 1940s, various military research studies showed TV and film (and comparable screen based technologies) were extremely effective for shaping public thought. Controlling these means (cable TV, film and future screen based technologies), to maintain power and shape public opinion, became a primary motive of the Beast.

The Image and Mark Worked By Psychologically Reprogramming People

The image and mark sins are unforgiveable. What makes these crimes, or sins, so terrible is they carry a psychological toll that fundamentally alters or reprograms the victim. The victims are usually unaware that their psychology is being permanently altered. And often the victim and perpetrator are both damned. These personality altering crimes were/are primarily spread using (1) TV, film or internet (visual media), and (2) often involve psychological tactics.

...In The Sight Of...

The fact that the image and mark were related to visual technology is plainly intended, with the phrase “in the sight of the Beast” (13:14).

The Apostle John is telling us that the Beast’s image power over all nations, AND the Beast’s mark powers over all nations, derive from the Beast’s access to our eyes, our sight: via TV and computers.

The Means = Mass Psychological Reprogramming, Via TV and Internet

Revelation 13:14 says: “And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do...”

“By the means,” did not refer to the TVs and laptop used to access people’s minds (the devices only carried the messages), or even to the changes caused in people; rather, the means referred to the science behind the Beast’s magic: psychology - mass media distributed psychological reprogramming, or brainwashing; not implemented by force, but by subtle persuasion.

John lived 1400 years before the word “psychology” was coined. To John, the power to brainwash a person, was an evil “miracle.”⁷

The Beast’s ability to alter thought and action was unheralded. The Beast could alter human sexuality, make us more hateful, make us hate our own nations. The Beast even had the power to make us measurably less intelligent –the Beast would save this evil skill for children.

Originally, these foreign nations were safe, beyond the reach of the Beast, because they lacked the technology to receive US TV and internet images and shows. The Beast had to break through this barrier, to speak directly to the people of foreign lands.

Revelation 13:14 first uses the expression “make an image to the beast.”

“Make an image to the Beast” has three (3) definitions.

Two of these definitions apply to foreign nations, outside of the West.

⁷ The US also bolstered its psychological efforts to expand Western cultural dominance with simple behavior modification strategies, such as having US Presidents NOT take private meetings with some dignitaries who did not wear Western clothes, but taking the meetings when they did wear Western clothes.

Defining The Three “Image” Crimes

The two foreign (non-western) definitions of “making an image to the beast” or “worshipping the Beast” are:

Definition #1: “Making an image to the Beast,” on a national level, outside of the West, is when a foreign nation is persuaded, by the US or the West, to make, or accept, a device or portal (a TV or internet conduit system) through which the Beast can send entertainment, propaganda, pornography, etc, to the people of a foreign nation.

Definition # 2: Making and Image to the Beast is when citizens of foreign (non-Western) nations emulate and imitate Western values, behaviors, dress, beliefs, values, monetary systems..., and reject their own traditions, dress, values, etc. (This is also called worshipping the Beast.)

The Domestic Meaning of Worshipping The Beast’s Image (or “Making an Image”)

The leaders of the Beast conspired to use their media tools to proliferate a view that White Westerners were superior to other races and non-Western countries, and superior to communist and socialist countries.

Domestically, this supremacist inculcation caused many Westerners to overly adore their race, and feel superior to others. But many Westerners went a giant step further, and cultivated hatred for other races and cultures, without having any experience with the races and cultures they hated.

Definition #3: Western “Worshipping the Beast,” is when White Westerners are reprogrammed, via TV or internet, to hate non-Whites and/or non-Westerners.

Why Are Foreign Leaders Who “Worship the Image” Not Forgiven?⁸

Why it is unforgiveable for foreign nations to worship the Beast?

My best guess is that national leaders have a duty to protect their people. I also suspect many world leaders allowed this tech into their nations because they received substantial bribes. But only God knows for sure.

⁸ Revelation 17:1, 2, and 18:4, and 19:19 instruct that “kings of the earth” (leaders of nations that allowed Western reprogramming and brainwashing tech into these nations) are damned for “fornicating” with the Beast.

The Number of the Beast

18 Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is ¹Six hundred threescore and six. 666

The Apostle John did not use the English numeral “666”, nor the Roman numerals. John used Greek characters, pronounced chi (600), xi (60), and sigma (6), which translated 600+60+6. John wrote the characters with an overscore mark above them, somewhat as they appear below:

 (Image from Wikipedia)

I put no weight on characters, because John puts no weight on the actual characters. Rather, John seems to stress the numerical value: 666. This causes me to believe it is not the characters upon the Beast, but the Beast upon the characters. “Let him that have understanding count the number of the beast.”

A clue is the word count. We don’t count numbers; they’re used to count.

The verse is saying the number of powerful individual entities that collectively comprise the Beast are 666. There are 666 entities in the Beast.

The number 6 (the final number in the expression 600+60+6) represents the six original leaders of the beast.⁹

They are all very powerful people, and the top 57 of the top 66 are 57 of the 111 most powerful elected leaders in the US.

At the end of this document, I name the 6 original leaders of the Beast, I also name the full 60, and most of the 600 (and more). Since other aspects of this treatise are more pressing, I’ll save further number details for the end (plus, the frat boys have sucked the seriousness out of the number). But the remaining details are pretty interesting. [SPOILER: Because the Beast thrives on TV and internet, most major US cable TV, film, Big Tech, computer and internet providers are of the Number of His Name.]

, upside down, sort of looks like the word sex; see: . More on this, later. Until then, please ponder: what if the Beast’s name is “Sex”?

That No Man Might Buy or Sell

People seem to universally misunderstand Revelation 13:17. It reads: “And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.” You’ve made it this far, so you should know what John means. I’ll explain.

Jesus, John and the other Disciples lived in a time when their nation, Rome, enjoyed freedoms we don’t have in America. Jesus and the Disciples were common people, and they had little money (if any). But, in Rome, there were multiple ways to conduct transactions. The rich and middle class usually used money, while the poor usually bartered. Thus, in the New Testament, only once do the disciples ever possess Roman money (Matthew 22:19, a denarius; Jesus then asks whose image and name are on the coin; then rejects the coin), but there are several New Testament verses where Jesus and the Disciples discuss trading (barter). Jesus and the Disciples were free to live within Roman society, and make legitimate transactions, without money, by trading their possessions, offering their labor, etc. They were also free to camp in a meadow or forest, or barter or work for a room. John and the Disciples had much more freedom than we have in America, under the Beast.

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

In Revelation, John looked into the future and saw the 20th and 21st centuries, where everyone was forced to participate in the new money system, with no barter, labor trade, or alternate currencies allowed. The Americans John saw were not allowed to disengage from the system; camping was not allowed in most places; even homelessness was unlawful.

To John it was clear: “And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark (a computer), or the name of the beast (money with the Beast’s name on it: “The United States of America”), or the number of his name.” (a credit of bank card in the name of any of dozens of financial services associated with the 666 entities who are the Number of His Name).

Later on, I’m going to do a variation of this fill-in-the-blanks exercise.

13:15 “Power to Give LIFE unto the IMAGE...Speak”

13:15 And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.

Revelation 13:15 describes one, now, obvious power of the TVs that John saw. The power to distribute motion picture, with sound.

John was familiar with art; one of the most popular technologies of his time, an image on a flat display face. But the technology John saw in his vision was miraculous. The images John saw on the TVs, computers and phones were exact photographic duplicates of actual people. Most miraculously, the images moved, like real humans move. John saw moving picture: video and movies.

Power To Give Life Unto The Image. When John wrote “And he had power to give life unto the image of the Beast...” John was saying the Beast (powerful US companies) had the power to make moving pictures, movies and videos, and to distribute the videos to computers, phones and TVs around the world. “Of the Beast” (“give life unto the image of the Beast”) refers to the fact that the Beast owned the technology and made enormous profit from it.

“Speak” means the videos also had sound, so the character were heard.

Possible Second Definition: Create Social Disruption

13:15 may also describes the Beast’s power to foment foreign unrest. “And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast...” could describe that US TV and visual propaganda was so persuasive it could cause citizens of foreign nations to want their nation to become like the US and West, to such an extent that citizens of these foreign countries would reject their societies.

“That the Image of The Beast Should...‘Speak.’” In this case, “Speak” could mean that the Beast’s propaganda films of US wealth were so effective they could incite vocal demonstrations and protests (speak) for social change.

“...And cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed” could mean the protests could lead to upheavals, where innocent traditionalists were killed.

13:16, THE MARK

16 And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:

The mark is symbolic, and represents a sin that is so horrible that the sinner will not be forgiven by God.

Discovering what the sins of the mark are took some effort.

In Search of the Unforgiveable Sins of the Mark

Understanding the full and true meaning of the mark requires understanding a few things.

First... The Beast of the Image and Mark is a nation, and that nation is the United States of America. The first Beast had seven heads, which we later learned were nations (mountains: European nations), ruled by seven kings.

The second Beast has one head, but has all of the power of the first Beast, and it causes people to worship the first Beast. With this, and the other reasons I gave earlier, we can be certain the Beast is the USA.

Second... The Apostle John was an incredible writer, but at least once he inaccurately used the word “all” (or perhaps it was transcribed from Greek poorly). This inaccuracy is very demonstrable.

In Revelation 13:16, John wrote: “And he causeth ALL, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads.”

But we know that NOT ALL people received the mark, because 20:4 describes how all the souls that did not have the mark or worship the image of the Beast were saved: “... neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands,” so they were permitted to live with and reign with Christ.

This is important because many people who discuss the mark, who seem reasonably informed, wrongly insist that “all” people will have the mark imposed upon them. Not at all. What the Apostle John meant by “all” is all types of people (“...small, great, rich, poor, free, bond...”) will have the mark.

The Crimes Against Conscience

So, I had to determine what these crimes or sins were. To do this, I did the only thing you can when interpreting Revelation: I turned to Revelation.

I felt God sent the angel to inspire John to write Revelation, not to make us wonder and scared forever (what does that do?), but to give us enough information to be watchful, so maybe we might find and stop the Beast.

So... John lived to be around 92 years old. He was very close to Jesus and wrote five books of the New Testament. But he didn't write Revelation until he was near the end of his life. I took this to mean God knew that the images that John would see were so horrible that John should not have to live his whole life with those images seared into his mind. From that, I reasoned somewhere in John's writing, in Revelation, he should reveal the nature of these horrible, unforgiveable crimes.

Chapters 13 to 20 mention the mark eight times. 13:16 and 17 introduce the concept of a mark, and say it will be on the hand or forehead (symbolic); 14:9 and 11 instruct that everyone with the mark, or who worships the Beast's image, goes to Hell; 15:2 and 16:2 really have no useful information about the mark; 20:4 explains that people without the mark will be saved.

Only Revelation chapter 19, verse 20, gives us an idea of the nature of an unforgiveable sin; that passage reads: "And the Beast was taken, and with him the false prophet, that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped the image."

So being a false prophet, and leading someone to commit a type of sin that is unforgiveable, is itself unforgiveable. Makes sense.

Next, I looked for all of the types of sins that John mentions in Chapters 13 through 20 (when the image, mark and judgment upon people with the image and mark occur), and I found the answer.

John uses, with anger, five words that point to three or four types of crimes/sins. I excluded from this count words like "drunk", which is/are consistently used to emphasize the excessive nature of other offenses ("...made drunk with the wine of her fornications...", 17:2). I also exclude words that are too vague, and only modify but don't identify a specific sin or crime; words like unclean and abomination.

Here's the breakdown:

1. John uses the word "fornication" or "fornications" seven (7) times;
2. John speaks of "making war with the saints," "war with the lamb," or wasting the "blood of the saints" five (5) times.
3. John uses the word "whore" four (4) times;
4. John uses the word "blasphemy" four (4) times;
5. John uses the word "harlot" (prostitute) once (1).
6. John uses the word "hateful" once (1).¹⁰

More important than this, Jesus speaks once (16:15) in those eight key chapters of Revelation (13-20), to speak against walking around naked: Jesus says: "...Blessed is he who watcheth, and keepeth his garmets, lest he walks naked, and they see his shame."

So, from all of this, the crimes and/or sins that are so condemnable as to be unforgiveable have to do with:

1. Sex
2. Attacking God or the Church
3. Sex for money
4. Blasphemy
5. Hatred.

So now I had a good idea what sins John saw that were so unforgiveable.

The Apostle John's saw a vision of the future, where the sins unfolded on modern computers, TVs and phones. John saw horrific sins. The things that made these sins seem somehow miraculous was the technology –and the means. John lived 1800 years before the light bulb was invented; paper hadn't even been invented. The nearest thing to technology John had was a candle. So the advanced TV, laptop, phone and computer screens John saw in his vision were miraculous –and so was the psychology behind the images.

The list of eight unforgiveable crimes of the mark begins on the next page. Each crime is spread widely, via TV or internet, and each carries a devastating psychological impact.

¹⁰ The evidence supporting hatred being one of the unforgiveable crimes is weakest. But John and Jesus both spoke very strongly against hate, and an impression was made on me to do the same –but only hatred of a certain type, spread a certain way.

The Unforgiveable “Mark” Sins

11 And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name.

Revelation 14:9-11 make clear that mark crimes/sins are unforgiveable.

People receive the mark in their foreheads (their thoughts) by receiving and viewing corrupt and perverse TV and internet images, or in their right hands (their deeds) for producing them –distributed, for profit, by the Beast.

There are 7 or 8, unforgiveable mark crimes (listed in random order):

Unforgiveable Mark #1:

Porn Inflicted Perversion & Addiction

When John lived, there was prostitution, but not pornography.

Today, the US paid pornography industry is estimated at $15 to $98-billion dollars, distributed via internet and cable TV (I believe that’s a gross underestimate, and excludes free pirate porn sites, shared drives, DVDs...).

Now the world has innumerable porn addicts, most of which will never seek treatment (and treatment is iffy, at best). Porn destroys values, alters our views of sex, our bodies, relationships, and cause preoccupied perversion.

The Beast loves addicts, who always return to buy more.

People who indulged in internet porn, became perverted, addicted, altered their psychology or sexuality, have the mark in their foreheads.

People who distribute pornography, and altered the lives, sexuality and body-images of others, have the mark in their right hand.

Unforgiveable Mark #2:

Attacking or Dividing the Church

Questioning the Church, to improve services, spread love and save lives is reasonable. But trying to divide and split the Church is an act done to weaken God’s influence, and strengthen evil, greed and inhumanity.

Those who try to divide the church have the mark on their right hand.

Those who stoke division, and mindlessly spread blasphemy, hate, and division, and proffer it as God’s word, have the mark in their forehead.

Unforgiveable Mark #3: Internet Porn Whores.

The internet created thousands of ways for Americans to get wealthy.¹¹ One of the internet's new career-options for women (and men) was to make porn videos and sell them online. A few women made hundreds of millions of dollars, and in the Beast's new America, they also became celebrities –known even to elementary school children.

This inspired countless American girls to grow up and do the same. Very few made huge money. But all contributed to the decline of American morals; all contributed to the terrible body image issues and psychological maladies that many American girls, boys, women and men now face; all contributed to the furtherance of the worldwide porn addiction problem.

People who star in, produce and distribute these sorts of videos have the mark in their right hand (their deeds).

Unforgiveable Mark #4, Blasphemy: Prosperity Gospel; False Prophets

Prosperity Gospel. In his visions, John saw televangelists, preaching prosperity gospel, assuring the faithful that Jesus wants them to be rich.

Millions of people were misled, away from God, by prosperity gospel shows. People watched these shows, and did all they could to get rich (mistakenly believing this would make God happy), but failed to get rich, and came to feel unloved, and forsaken, by God. This is a crime against God.

False Prophets. John was certainly speaking about prosperity gospel when he mentioned false prophets; but I also believe John was speaking about dishonest businessmen, politicians, judges, TV and tech CEOs, who extolled the virtue of TV and internet, then sat idly, reaping huge profits, as these platforms became increasingly dangerous for children and young people.

The people who star in, create, produce, distribute and broadcast these videos, have the mark in their hands (their deeds).

People who viewed these videos and believed God wants them to be rich, may be dumb, but I'm not sure if they have the mark.

¹¹ White Americans, that is. The managers of America's internet system disrupt internet traffic flows to minorities' websites. True.

Unforgiveable Mark #5: Child Internet SexCrimes

The internet created a portal for child pornography; greatly increasing crimes against children. Participating in this, at any level, is unforgiveable.

Watching videos, or looking at photos, of child pornography, is an unforgiveable mark in the forehead (their thoughts).

Making and/or sharing illicit images and videos of children is an unforgiveable mark in one's right hand (their deeds).

Unforgiveable Mark #6: Social Media Inflicted Hatred

The second Beast had the first's hateful power ("...all of the power of the first beast..."), and power to spread hate ("miracles...in the sight of the beast").

Most members of the Beast are supremacists, who oppose race mixing. This violates science, nature and God. The first law of anthropology (if I recall correctly) is: When peoples meet, they mate (Darwin's adaptive radiation). Genesis 1:26 and 28, God instructs us to "have dominion" over the Earth and to be fruitful and multiply. God doesn't propose racial barriers.

Dominion requires that we proceed bravely, without fear dominating us.

But, in the 20th-21st century, US psychologists learned babies can be taught to hate, by showing them videos of someone of a different race harming someone of their race. ¹² This was teaching babies to be fearful –and to hate.

Humans sometimes become hateful after a frightening attack, especially by someone visibly different from them. But with video and the internet, the Beast could cause people to become cowards and hate, without provocation.

In the 21th century, social media companies spread hate, by distributing videos of non-Whites harming Whites (the converse may be true also). Users who spread the hateful videos were rewarded with many followers.

People who became hateful because of TV and internet videos, have the mark in their foreheads (their thoughts).

People who create, distribute or profit from videos that caused others to become hateful, have the mark in their right hand (their deeds).

¹² I once observed a video report of researchers showing White infants react to a dark person harming a White character (the infants' were angry & unforgiving). We might assume babies of other races might react similarly.

Unforgiveable Mark #7: Child Intellectual Torture

Just as it is an unforgiveable crime to create and publish child pornography (or to sexually abuse children), it is equally unforgiveable to deliberately permanently damage a child's intellectual development.

In 1965, HEW Secretary John W Gardner (the first leader of the Beast), created Head Start, to permanently damage and impair the mental functioning of disadvantaged (Black and Latino) children 3 to 5-years-old. ¹³ Between 1965 and today, Republicans in congress cut spending on all or most other social programs serving Blacks and Latino youth; but since Head Start was created in 1965, they have uncharacteristically consistently approved Head Start funding –and increased Head Start's budget (as they cut welfare, food stamps and afterschool programs for older children). These Republicans voted to keep Head Start running because they knew Head Start was intended to inflict permanent brain damage on disadvantage children.

[NOTE: If you don't see how this is connected to TV or the internet... John W Gardner, while CEO of Carnegie Corp, initiated the creation of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB), PBS and NPR (and indirectly, Sesame Street). Gardner then used CPB to fund wiring America's cable system. Gardner also used Sesame Street as a Head Start supplement, to engross children, 3-5 years old, and keep them from engaging in physical and interactive play –the best thing for young children's intellectual development.]

In the mid 1960s, the US began exporting these Head Start early learning methods to countries in Latin America and Africa.

The US also uses Head Start's terrible methods in magnet kindergarten and first grade classes (ages that should also be engaging in creative free play –not watching TV) that serve Black and Brown children.

Head Start promised that children would gain up to 20 IQ point. But, on average, children lost 16 or more IQ points.

Today, Head Start has served (impaired) about 40-million children.

Creating a system to inflict brain damage on children, and voting to continue it, for almost 60 years, is an unforgiveable mark in one's right hand.

Unforgiveable Mark #8:
Cyber-Apathy (AKA Soul Death)

We should always feel for the welfare of other humans. Seeing them in anguish should cause us distress. We are God's greatest work.

Today, with internet video sharing, many kids and adults watch horrific videos of people being tortured and murdered, by armies and gangs; they see videos of people, mangled in car accidents, in agony, moments before they die.

Watching these videos desensitizes us, and kills our humanity.

As the Beast causes ever-escalating suffering, it wants us desensitized. People who do not feel for others will never come to their defense.

People who watch these videos will have the mark in their forehead.

People who create and share these videos, to desensitize others, have the mark in their right hand (their actions).

Unforgiveable Mark #9:
An AI Warning

AI is the most evil and pressing non-ecological threat to humanity, and the Beast's greatest deception. AI steals screenplays, stories, photographs, art and even voices from the internet, then, on command, will create new works of art –comprised entirely of stolen art, which the talentless can falsely claim to have created. US tech companies created this tech, NOT because there was a demand, but because they stole so many works of art, over the years, and so violated copyright law, they hoped to be exculpated, by making everyone criminals. AI, if adopted, will be the mark in a nation's forehead, marking the leaders' corruption; AI will be the mark in a nation's right-hand, marking the people as too pampered, immoral and stupid to create art, much less defend it.

Creative AI is the latest evil ploy in 500 years of corporate art theft.

Nations that adopt AI will learn, too late, that AI will accelerate moral and creative decline. Technology, created by stealing from a nation's creatives, to replace human creation, is Satanic. Western AI will cajole non-Western users to emulate the worst aspects of Western life.

God gives us free will (John 3:14-21). Some use their free will to steal creative works and create systems built on theft and using shell companies to bribe judges. True writers work hard. God values artists and true writers, who choose to work hard. Thus, every book of the Bible cites an author.

The Third and Final Beast: THE BEAST of APOCALYPSE

When the first Beast first appeared, 13:1, the seven nations of the first Beast, from the 15th through 19th centuries, were England, France, Spain, Portugal, Netherlands, Belgium and Germany.

When the 7-headed Beast appears next, as the Beast of Apocalypse, in Chapter 17, it's at least 500 years later, in our current world.

In Chapter 17, verses 5-18, an angel answers and reveals a MYSTERY. Here, we learn the 7 heads of the first Beast represent 7 mountains (7 nations); the woman in Chapter 17 represents Babylon, a great city, sitting on 7 mountains; the mountains have 7 kings, 5 have fallen (died, or gone away), one is alive (in the time period that the angel shows John), and the remaining king has not yet ascended to power –but, when he does, he will only reign a short time before the Apocalypse ¹⁴ ; the Beasts' 10 horns represent 10 kings who ally with Babylon, then betray it; it is unclear who the kings are, because Babylon has yet to choose the kings, or the kings have yet to choose Babylon.

Babylon is Destroyed in an Hour

In Chapter 18:10, 17, 19, Babylon falls in an hour; suggesting nuclear war.

Who is Babylon?

Babylon is a union of the US and two unknown countries. ¹⁵

¹⁴ Revelation is a symbolic juggernaut. Related to my effort to protect my IP, I posted details of forthcoming infringement claims on my old website (www.datacaper.com), 2021 to 2023, showing recurring infringement of my specific use of symbolism. Immediately after this, US news companies, whose parent companies will be named in these suits, began to use the word “symbolic” dozens of times a day (after avoiding the term for 80 years). Reading Revelation, and boning up on symbolism, and how to use symbolism in writing (and in a sentence) should be required for all Western journalists.

¹⁵ Clearly, because the wealth and power, inspiring global awe and ire, is certainly the US. This is further supported in Chapter 18, by the huge volume of “trade by sea” (18:17) of all goods, including cars and slaves (“...horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls...,” (18:13). The other two countries will be from one of the original 7 European countries.

Decoding the Beast of Apocalypse:

The Meaning of the Second Beast Merging into the First Beast, And Both Becoming a New Beast

The first Beast disappears, at 13:10, almost as soon as it appeared.

The second Beast (the US) then commands our attention, from 13:11 through Chapter 17. This second Beast, the Beast of the Mark, imposes its image and mark on the world.

But in Chapter 17, the first Beast is resurrected, and becomes the dominant Beast again, as the angel explains the seven heads represent seven mountains, the woman is Babylon, which sits on the seven mountains, the mountains have seven kings. AND, the angel explains that five of the old kings have died. This clearly means, at the time of the vision, five of the old kingdoms no longer supported the Beast. Thus, this final incarnation of the beast is much weaker, and vulnerable.

Was, And Is Not. In 17:8 and 11, the Beast of the Image and Mark is referred to as the Beast that “was, and is not.” This means the Beast is either no longer alive, or no longer a tremendous threat.

We then learn the second Beast (the Beast of the Image and Mark) has merged into the first Beast; 17:11: “And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.” “...Even he is the eighth, is of the of the seven...*,” means the second Beast (the Beast of the Image and Mark) has become the subordinate Beast, and is somehow alive within a weakened incarnation of the first Beast, and both are conjoined in the third and final incarnation of the Beast –the Beast of Apocalypse.

The second Beast merging into the weakened first Beast is a bit scary, for two reasons.

First, simply because the Beast of the Mark is suddenly dead (“was, and is not”) in 17:8 and 11. This should cause us to wonder if the US is destroyed in some related cataclysm (a great battle in a larger war), or if the US rejected hate, greed and corruption, and saved itself from the Beast.

The second reason the Beast of the Mark merging into the Beast of Apocalypse is scary is because it means some unknown European forces will bring about the Apocalypse.

But this is also hopeful.

The first Beast merging into the Beast of Apocalypse is hopeful, to me, as an American, because it MAY mean America will end its transgressions against the world, and MAY be able to extricate itself from the doomed Beast of Apocalypse, by admitting all of its transgressions, foreign and domestic, asking forgiveness, and sincerely promising to make amends. I suggest this is possible, because, in Revelation 17, we see the once mighty Beast of the Image and Mark (the USA) is only mentioned in one verse (17:11). This change, from dominant stature to subordinate stature, may mean (assuming the US survived any other catastrophe) that only part of the Beast of the Mark survived and merged into the Beast of the Apocalypse. If so, maybe the US rejected the Beast's terrible ideas; and without a host, maybe the only part of the Beast of the Image and Mark that persisted and merged into the Beast of Apocalypse were the Beast of the Image and Mark's powers and ideas (the mark and the image), but NOT the nation (the US) itself.

It's also hopeful that, in Chapter 18, the Apostle John doesn't actually witness the destruction of Babylon.

In Chapter 18:1 to 3, John sees an angel, who reports of the fall of Babylon. Then, 18:4 to 8, a voice from Heaven instructs the nations of Earth to punish Babylon. Then, Chapter 18:9 to 24 describes the voices report of the fall of Babylon. Why is this hopeful? Because virtually everything about Revelation is symbolic. So, it's possible that America and the final Western alliance are defeated in a nuclear Armageddon, which ends in an hour; but it's also possible that this defeat is a symbolic defeat. Because I hate war, I hope the fact that John does not actually witness the fall of the US and West means the US and West may have finally learned that their hateful, corrupt ways were wrong, and renounced those ways, etc, negating the need for a nuclear attack. God gives us the gift of free will. As an American who does not want to be vaporized in a nuclear Apocalypse, I hope the reason God gave us the book of Revelation is to give us a chance see what we're doing wrong, and choose between a painful symbolic death, or a much more painful, and real, death by nuclear annihilation.

Only God knows.

Afterword:
How To Save Christianity and Humanity,
Before and After the Apocalypse
(A Love Story)

All of this may cause you to wonder if Western Europeans are genetically more predisposed to commit certain crimes than other races, or if Satan prefers or is more apt to prey on them?

No.

The first two Beasts were unleashed when groups of wealthy and powerful people decided to covertly take-over Western governments and religion. Consistent with various conformity studies, the people of these countries went along with this evil because people tend to go along with what their society views as acceptable or expected. The people were still guilty of horrible crimes, and knew better, but they were catalyzed and fueled by their leaders –for centuries, in the case of the first Beast.

As far as Satan... Until recently, I tended to view Satan as a silly idea. But Satan is a living force of absolute evil, who thrives on suffering. I think he's drawn to hateful people in powerful places. With them in his grip, he can do immeasurable harm.

As for the Apocalypse...

There's no stopping God's will. People can only try to be on the side of good, and get the Beast, image and mark, out of their societies.

I started this piece with some firm words about how Satan has used fake Christians to do unparalleled international damage.

If you've read any of my prior work, you know I never point to a problem without offering a solution.

So how do we stop fake Christians?

First, by knowing that we are a real Christian, by acting in accord with two of Jesus' most powerful instructions...

First, in John 13:34, Jesus says:

34 "A new commandment I give unto you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "By this all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Jesus is speaking to all of us, but he is also speaking to the leaders of his of his Church, his original disciples. He is telling Christian Churches to have love for each other. Martin Luther's attack on the Church did not show love for the Church. And, as Protestant nations stepped away from Catholic nations, and vilified Catholics and the Pope, they did not show love for the Church.

Next, in Mathew 25:34-36, and 40-42, Jesus says:

34 "Then the King will say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundations of the world:

35 "For I was hungry and you gave Me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in;

36 "I was naked and you clothed Me; I was in prison and you came to Me."...

40 "The King shall answer and say to them, 'Verily, I say unto you, Inasmuch as you did it to one of the least of these My brethren, you did unto Me."

41 "Then He will say to those on his left, 'Depart from Me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels.'

42 "For I was hungry and you gave Me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave Me nothing to drink,..."

So, we know we are a true Christians by the love we show each other, and other Churches, and the love we show the weak and socially disenfranchised.

So, if you're a true Christian, show the love, and call out fake Christians.

But that's not enough.

Between now and the Apocalypse, and thereafter, it's not enough just to love one another and to be kind to the weak, the poor and social minorities. People who love God, humanity and our Earth, have a responsibility to protect all life on this planet. Humanity should not overpopulate to the point that millions of species, God's creatures, are made extinct, as has happened. Like Noah, we have a duty to protect God's creatures. Christians' love should reflect in how we treat the planet and all creatures in it. We should not overpopulate to the point that we are fighting and killing for the few remaining resources, as we are now. We have been too fruitful, and multiplied too far. Christian churches, and all men of God and spiritual leaders, have a duty to encourage humanity to live in concert and balance with nature.

I Corinthians, 13:9 and 13:

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

13 And now abide faith, hope and love, these three;
but the greatest of these is love.

So, I promised to reveal the Number of His Name, the 666, at the end of this report. I present and explain that list on the following page.

I decided that I Corinthians, 13:9 and 13 were too beautiful to appear on the same page as that evil cast.

The Number of His Name:

600+60+6;

To be clear about what the Beast is, the Beast is a group of 666 wealthy and powerful people, who, today, use the Republican Party to maintain power. But, YES, many Democrats are members of the Beast. The Republican party was maybe the greatest party (with Lincoln and Eisenhower), until the early 1960s, when it was taken over by John Gardner and the Beast. You can learn if a candidate you support is a member of the Beast, or apt to be, two ways: (1) check them on OpenSecrets.com, if they accept money from corporations or the wealthy, that's a bad sign; (2) use OpenCorporates.com to see if they have any shell companies (through which CEOs and corporations can pay them bribes).

Being a member of the 666 is not as complicated as you might guess. Under John W Gardner, US schools and government agencies began to issue all students, many colleges, and most federal workers various intellectual and character assessments. The preferred 666 profile is slightly above average IQ, but with a very low character profile assessment score (willing to get their hands dirty, take unethical orders, offer and accept bribes, lie, but loyal to money and Western dominance). One ethical person could ruin everything.

Couple last things... As I wrote this section, I forgot the name of a Greek alphabetical character. So I went online, and a link took me to Wikipedia's Number of the Beast page. Amazing, on that page, I learned that in the Revelation 13:18 passage "Here is Wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast..." there are 3 other meanings for the Greek word "psephisato" (count), including "to vote," to reckon, and to decide. I loved this because the Number of His Name are elected officials, who "vote" and “decide.” Get it? (See full Wikipedia passage, below.) I’m not humble.¹⁶

Before we get to the Number of His Name, it’s worth noticing that, as I explained, the Greek characters for 600+60+6, when turned upside down, look like the English word sex; AND most of the Image and Mark unforgiveable sins are related to sex. Coincidence.

Please consider the characters below.

The top row are the characters chi, xi and sigma, all capitals; 600+60+6.

The second row are the same characters, upside down. Looks like “sex”?

Next, the following two rows are characters, similar to those the Apostle John used.; the left are normal, the right characters are upside down.

Why am I fascinated with this?

I’ll explain... The Beast, meaning many of the leaders of the Republican Party, in my mind, have displayed, throughout my life, a love for inflicting pain that seems Satanic, more so than sadistic. And I fully believe John Gardner was ¹⁶ “The number of the beast is described in Revelation 13:15–18. Several translations have been interpreted for the meaning of the phrase “Here is Wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast...” where the peculiar Greek word ψηφισάτω (psephisato) is used. Possible translations include “to count”, “to reckon” and also “to vote” or “to decide””

a Satanist. But the very strange thing about Satanists is they seem to have a consuming interest in sex (from my very limited reading on them, they tend to like to hurt and kill things that are much smaller than themselves, and worldly pleasures like upscale lodging and trendy clothes, but they really love gratifying themselves, via self stimulation and non-traditional and deviant sex.

Why this matter is because a disproportionate share on the mark crimes had to do with very disturbing sex practices.

I find it incredible that the Beast's number, turned upside down (deviated), looks like the English word for sex -500 years before there was any English language, and 1500 years before there was an English speaking country named the United States of America.

Now, just for fun, if the Beast's name were "Sex", as I pondered 20 pages back, what would the secret meaning of 13: 17 be?

17 And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

"And that no man might buy or sell,
save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast,
or the number of his name."

If we replace John's necessarily cryptic words with the correct alternates, and sub in the debatable word "sex" in the final position, the verse reads:

"And that no man might buy or sell,
save he that had a computer,
U.S.A. money, or sex (to trade).

Given that they say prostitution is the world's oldest professions, and John's conveyed that internet prostitution is an unforgiveable mark sin, it half looks like John could be making a joke with Revelation 13:17. Could he be joking that no one can buy or sell anything in America unless they have a computer, money, or they're willing to prostitute themselves?

I think I'm on to something.

Now for the Number of His Name...

The Beast's name is United States of America. So "number of his name" means "the number of people who control the United States of America."

The 600+60+6, the 666, also known as the Number of His Name or the Number of the Beast, are the people who, collectively, form the Beast. They are listed below, in reverse order. 666 is not just a group of people, it's the method to maintain power: by controlling US media, money and politics.

Be mindful that these people and positions, listed below and following, ALL know they serve the interests of US businesses (most, or all, receive donations from businesses and CEOs, or bribes via shell companies), they know they're actions are corrupt, and they know all major US businesses are corrupt. But not all of these parties understand they serve Satan. Just as many foreign leaders and untold millions of foreign citizens were psychologically altered to serve the Beast, the Number of His Name have been thoroughly profiled (this, after being psychologically adjusted as children, enjoying American TV and internet), and groomed to serve American business: the Beast of the Image and Mark.

The 6

The number 6, the final number in the expression 600+60+6, represents the six original leaders, the executive branch, of the Beast: John W Gardner, Nelson Rockefeller, William S Paley, Henry Kissinger, Milton Friedman, and Lewis F. Powell Jr.

John W. Gardner was the overall leader of The 6.

I'm not sure if the 6 founding executive positions remained vacant after the original 6 retired or died, or if these positions were filled (only Kissinger is alive today). If these positions were filled, it is probable that John C Malone became the leader of the Beast after Gardner died. And, if so, I suspect Shira Perlmutter became the first female member of The 6. Unlike the 60 and the 600, all of The 6 understand they serve Satan.

The original 6 were, by far, the most evil, powerful and corrupt force, ever, in American politics and business. The new generation is just as evil, but less intelligent, less organized. That's how it is when your values are deceit, theft and greed, and not accuracy, excellence and hard work; your frame of reference is always a little more off; each successive generation is necessarily inferior, more reckless and dangerous; until it all implodes or explodes.

The 60

The 60 are: (1) 50 US Senators (half of the Senate, usually Republican members, but not always); (2) 5 Supreme Court Justice; (3) The President of the U.S.; (4) the US Vice President; (5) The Chief of Staff; (6) Secretary of State; (7) Attorney General.

Yep, every US President since Richard Nixon has been a member of the Beast. The President is NOT the most powerful member of the Beast. Presidents have more power, in the short term, than the Beast; but if a President defies The 6, the people who control American political spending, that President will not be re-elected. Similarly, candidates that do not agree to the goals of the Beast (a business collective) will not receive campaign funding.¹⁷

The 600 are large group of private, federal and state forces.

In my estimation, the 600 include: 218 US Congressional Representatives (218 is a majority), the FBI Director, CIA Director, Homeland Security Director, Fed Chair, Director of the FCC, CEOs of most top 100 US companies, key state and federal appellate judges, key governors, key secretaries of state, Big 6 film and Media companies, the Librarian of Congress, all major U.S. banks and financial services, credit card companies, defense contractor CEOs, US military chiefs, Big Tech CEOs, Registrar of Copyright, the top 50 US universities, the top 40 US law firms...
