

Guardianship and Conservatorship Program Regulations

411 Changes of Circumstances/Modification/Termination

411.1 The guardian and conservator has an affirmative obligation to be alert to changes in the individual subject to guardianship and/or conservatorship's condition or circumstances, to seek out information that will provide a basis for termination or modification, and report to the court when a modification or termination in the authority of the guardian and/or conservator should be considered.

411.1.1 A guardian or conservator shall immediately (but not later than thirty days) notify the court if the condition of the individual has changed so that the individual is capable of exercising rights previously removed.

411.1.2 A guardian shall file with the court within thirty days of any substantial change in the condition of the individual under guardianship or any changes in the residence of the individual and shall provide a copy of the notice to the individual and any notice parties.

411.1.3 A conservator shall notify the court within thirty days of any substantial change in the value of the property of the individual subject to conservatorship and shall provide a copy of the notice to the individual, any notice parties, and schedule a hearing for the court to review the adequacy of the bond or other verified receipt.
