Trustees report: Allan still plans to smooth the gravel in the driveway areas when the weather dries.

History committee: Nothing to report, as there have been no meetings.

Historic District: Tom Lacombe reported that a 45-page draft of the consultant's survey has been prepared. The next step in the process is to have a public hearing on or before May 18. It was decided to suggest that this hearing be scheduled for Tuesday, May 11 at 7:30 at the community center. All affected parties will be invited, by letter, to attend.

BEARR Group: Brian Wilkinson reported that several members of the group plan to attend the next public meeting of the South Warren Fire Department, and that they intend to volunteer for various administrative positions. Also, Brian will send invitations to Supervisor Cullers to attend the BEARR virtual [Zoom] meetings.
