(d) The treasurer shall receive and deposit in appropriate bank accounts all monies of the Association and shall disburse such funds as directed by resolution of the, Board of Directors, and shall sign all checks and promissory notes of the Association, keep proper books of account; cause an annual audit of the Association books to be made by a public accountant, or by three members of the Board of Directors, at the completion of each fiscal year; and shall prepare an annual budget and a statement of income and expenditures to be presented to the membership at its regular annual meeting, and deliver a copy of each to the members.

ARTICLE XII

VOTING RIGHTS OF MEMBERS

Section 1: All members shall be owners and shall be entitled to one vote for each lot owned. When more than one person holds an interest in any lot, all such persons shall be considered as one member. The vote for such lot shall be exercised as they, among themselves, determine, but in no event shall more than one vote be cast with respect to any lot.

Section 2: Suspension of Voting Rights. The Association, by and through its Board of Directors, shall have the power to suspend the voting rights and the right to the use of any recreational or common facilities including swimming facilities in and upon the common areas, if any, by an owner for any period during which any assessment against his or her lot remains unpaid and for a period not to exceed 60 days for any infraction of its published rules and regulations other than the failure to pay any such assessment.

ARTICLE XIII

BOOKS AND RECORDS

The books, records, and papers of the Association shall at all times, during reasonable business hours, be subject to inspection by any member. The Declaration, The Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws of the Association shall be available for inspection by any member at the home of the secretary, where copies may be purchased at reasonable cost.

ARTICLE XIV

INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1: In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the association shall indemnify Glen R. Gordon and David Dimeo, and each of them, collectively and individually, as incorporators and members of the original Board of Directors of the Association, and hold them free and harmless from any obligation, liability, charge, expense or indebtedness arising out of, or related to, their activities in incorporating the Association and conducting Its first and organizational meeting of the Board of Directors and Membership.

Section 2: The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation) by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

The termination of any action, suit or proceeding, by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

Section 3: The corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party or is threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnify for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Section 4: To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of a corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in Sections (1) and (2) of this Article, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 5: Any indemnification under Sections (1) and (2) of this Article- (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections (1) and (2) of this Article. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by the shareholders.

Section 6: Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in subsection (4) of the Article upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article.

Section 7: The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any By-law, agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

Section 8: The directors of the corporation have the authority on behalf of the corporation to authorize the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE XV

AMENDMENTS

Section 1: The By-Laws of the corporation may be altered, amended or repealed and new By-Laws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the members present at any annual Association meeting.

Section 2: Any petition for changes in the By-Laws shall be submitted to the Board ninety (90) days before the annual meeting.

Section 3: Any petition submitted to the Board for changes to the By-Laws must have ten percent (10%) of the Association member's signatures.

Section 4: Any petition placed on a ballot for an annual meeting is subject to approval by a majority vote as specified in Covenants and/or By-Laws as the case may be.
