

About the Firm

Whole Health Solutions, LLC is a public health consulting firm specializing in strategic planning, technical assistance, and community-centered health system transformation. We support healthcare organizations, government agencies, and community partners in designing and implementing data-driven, equity-focused solutions that improve population health outcomes.

Core Competencies

- Strategic Planning & Facilitation
- Technical Assistance Delivery
- Community Health Needs Assessments (CHNAs)
- Stakeholder & Community Engagement
- Capacity Building
- Qualitative & Quantitative Analysis
- Health Equity Strategy Integration
- Implementation Planning & Performance Measurement

Recent Projects

CDC Public Health Infrastructure Center (PHIC)	Provided technical assistance for PHIG and Rural/Tribal Health initiatives, and facilitated strategic planning retreat.
Community Catalyst TA Support	Provide technical assistance to clients and develop resources/training to achieve project goals, and facilitated listening sessions for CMS/Deloitte project.
CHNAs & Implementation Plans Cone Health, AdventHealth, University of Central Florida	Support development of community needs assessments for underserved populations, provided technical assistance for performance tracking, and researched evidence-based programs.
Orlando Police Department Community Response Team (CRT)	Led strategic approach to engaging underserved communities, and spearheaded development of operational toolkit and SOPs.

Khristen Holmes, PhD, MPA
Founder & CEO, Whole Health Solutions, LLC
khristen@wholehealthsolutionsllc.com