Summary of School Context:	St Mary's PS Edenderry is a fully vertical, co-educational Catholic primary school under the patronage of the Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin. The school places a strong emphasis on the holistic education of the child, nurturing their academic, spiritual, emotional, social and physical development. The school caters to 425 pupils, representing a diverse student population from a broad range of cultural, linguistic, and socio-economic backgrounds. This diversity is embraced and celebrated as a strength of the school community. The teaching staff consists of 28 teachers, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 17 Classroom Teachers - 8 Special Education Teachers (SET) (including 1 Full-Time English as an Additional Language (EAL) Teacher) - 2 Early Intervention Class Teachers The school is further supported by 6 Special Needs Assistants (SNAs) and a team of ancillary staff. The staff is known for being forward-thinking, supportive and hard-working, committed to providing high-quality education and care for all pupils. The school is well-equipped with excellent ICT resources, which are integrated into teaching and learning to enhance pupil engagement and digital literacy. A broad and enriching extracurricular programme is offered, including a wide variety of sporting activities, music and choir, and wellbeing initiatives such as yoga. These activities reflect the school's commitment to fostering the overall wellbeing and personal growth of each child. The school enjoys the support of our parent body, and the Parents' Association is active once again this year, playing a valuable role in strengthening the home-school partnership and supporting school initiatives.

Table 2: Wellbeing Promotion Indicators of Success

Key Areas	Indicators of Success
Culture & Environment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children, young people and staff experience a sense of belonging and feel safe, connected and supported. • Systems are in place so that the voice of the child/young person, teacher and parent are heard and lead to improvements in school culture and ethos.
Curriculum (Teaching & Learning)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children and young people experience positive, high quality teaching, learning and assessment, which provides opportunities for success for all. • Children and young people access co-curricular activities to promote their physical, social and emotional competence to enhance their overall wellbeing.
Policy & Planning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Schools and centres for education use a Self-Evaluation/Wellbeing Promotion Process to develop, implement and review wellbeing promotion. • Schools and centres for education incorporate wellbeing promotion into whole school policies and practices.
Relationships & Partnerships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Children and young people, their parents and other external partners are actively involved in wellbeing promotion within the school community. • All adults in schools and centres for education have an increased awareness of the importance of wellbeing promotion, including listening to children and young people, and supporting them to internal or external pathways for support when needed.

Target[s]	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The percentage of pupils in a survey who state that they generally have a positive experience when on yard (safe and happy) will increase from 77% to 85% by June 2027. (Well-being Key Area 1, 3 and 4 Cultural and Environment, Relationships and Partnerships, Policy and Planning) 2. The percentage of pupils who state in a survey that their voice is heard and valued increases from 81% to 88% by June 2027. (Well-being Key Area 4, Relationships and Partnerships) 3. The school recognises that wellbeing is as important for the staff as for the children and young people. Appropriate supports are put in place for staff wellbeing (Wellbeing Key Area 1, 3 and 4 Cultural and Environment, Policy and Planning, Relationships and Partnerships)
