

EXODUS OUTLINE

BY: FRANKLIN CAMP

The promise had come through Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and the descendants of Jacob had now grown in number. They were to be formed into the redemptive nation. The book of Exodus gives this account.

I. The picture of sin.

The picture of sin is given in the book of Exodus, showing it as a task master, holding men in bondage, hard and cruel.

II. The people - the nation a channel of redemption

III. The poverty of spirit necessary for redemption:

Hear the people cry beneath the load and the burden of their hard task masters. This is but an illustration of the statement of Christ in Matthew 5:3, "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of God."

IV. The preaching of redemption:

Moses was called, commissioned, and confirmed by God to reveal unto the nation of Israel his covenant. "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word of God." (Rom. 10:17).

V. The price of redemption - blood:

The passover lamb was an example and an illustration of the cost of redemption - Exodus 12.

VI. The penalty of rejecting redemption - death, shown in Exodus 12.

VII. The passover, a memorial of redemption - Exodus 12:

They were to tell their children the meaning of the memorial feast of passover.

VIII. The point of redemption - that is, the significance of it:

It is threefold: salvation, separation, and service.

IX. The pure worship required of the redeemed - Exodus 20:

The Ten Commandments underscore the importance of pure worship in one's relationship and service to God.

X. Personal relationships:

The first four commandments have to do with one's relationship to God. The second part of the Ten Commandments has to do with inter-relationships with other people. In order for there to be proper relationships with others, one must begin with a correct relationship with God.

XI. Pleasing God through willing and whole-hearted gifts and service:

This is shown in their free-will offerings for the building of the tabernacle. Their liberality was such until Moses had to stop them.

XII. The pillar of fire and cloud:

Here one has divine direction and protection.

2. Exception (II Chron. 30:17).

G. Ceremony of the first Passover.

1. The first Passover was eaten by the Israelites while standing, with their shoes on their feet and their staves in their hands.
2. It was eaten with unleavened bread and bitter herbs to remind them of their haste and bondage.

H. The object of the Passover seems to have been threefold: 1) Commemorative; 2) educational; and 3) typical.

1. Its primary object was to commemorate the Lord's passing over and sparing the children of Israel while He slew the first-born of the Egyptians.
2. The Passover was also a divinely ordained means for education of their children (Ex. 12:26-28).
3. The Paschal lamb was typical of Christ. See section II.

II. The Paschal lamb was in several respects typical of Christ (I Cor. 5:7).

- A. It was without blemish and so was He (I Peter 1:19).
- B. It was killed between the two evenings, and so was He (Matt. 27:45-50).
- C. Its blood procured salvation and deliverance, and so did His (I Pet. 1:18,19).
- D. Not a bone of it was broken, nor was one of His (John 19:36).
- E. There may be other points of intended resemblance, but those given are sufficient for our study.

III. From Egypt to Mount Sinai

- A. Preparations for the exodus (Ex. 12:29-46).
- B. The Passover instituted (Ex. 12:37-13:19).
