Mindra Funds has acquired by Mantra Funds, Part of the Mantra Group, a Stealth Mode Investment Fund, Mostly Focused on the Deep Space Industry. The Mantra Group, a financial control and supervision company focused on natural monopolies, has announced the acquisition of Mindra Funds. The Mantra Group has been operating in stealth mode since 2011 and has a portfolio representing in average 9.8% of GDP in each country it operates in, giving them access to approximately USD7.2T worldwide.

The Mantra Group has been focused on developing emerging and edging industries such as the Deep Space Industry, Global Migration, and AI since 2012. They have also been involved in sponsoring extreme research and endeavors, such as the highest BASE jump from Everest, in collaboration with Adidas and Red Bull.

One of the Mantra Group's recent projects, PRIDE, brings a new model of corporation, civilian and military governance, which recently revealed a DAO Non-Crypto Safe Mode governance model. This allows for the quick incorporation of new businesses and entities using the DAO paradigm without interfering with crypto currencies, while maintaining transparency for local tax offices, central banks, and financial securities.

The United Space Forces are supported by the Mantra Group, making them independent from government and public funds.

After acquiring Mindra Funds, it will continue its operation as a semi-independent unit as part of the Mantra Group family.

The representative of the Mantra Group stated, "We are excited to bring Mindra Funds into our portfolio and continue our focus on developing emerging industries and supporting the United Space Forces. The acquisition of Mindra Funds will allow us to expand our reach and continue our mission of financial control and supervision of natural monopolies."

The Mantra Group has remained secretive about their operations, stating only that they are focused on financial control and supervision of natural monopolies. The level of influence and specific activities undertaken by Mantra Funds varies according to the country in which they are operating. A representative of the Mantra group stated 'We are watching'.
