Eleanor Pearson is a multi-award-winning author and Primary School teacher from regional NSW.

She writes picture books that inspire readers to find joy and wonder in everyday life.

With an extensive background in education and a deep love for storytelling, Eleanor has developed author talks that foster creativity, curiosity, and confidence in her audience.

BOOKS ARE NOT JUST FOR BEDTIME

Written by Eleanor Pearson | Illustrated by Angela Perrini

This vibrant picture book reminds readers that books are everyday companions – not only to be enjoyed at bedtime.

Whether at the park or waiting in a queue, Books Are NOT Just For Bedtime encourages young readers to discover the magic of books, wherever they may be.

THE GIRL WITH A FEATHER IN HER HAIR

Written by Eleanor Pearson | Illustrated by Julie Spencer

This lyrical picture book follows a girl as she explores the Australian bush.

Inspired by Eleanor Pearson's own love of bushwalking, The Girl With A Feather In Her Hair is a poetic text that encourages readers to slow down, connect with nature, and find beauty in simple things.
