

WELCOME

The 90,000-square-foot Pine Bluff Convention Center is Southeast Arkansas' largest meeting facility that is also home to the Arkansas Entertainers Hall of Fame. This colossal complex features a state-of-the-art arena, an auditorium/theater, a flexible banquet hall, a versatile common lobby, ample parking and full RV hookups. And it's all on a park-like campus. When you're ready for a break, visit our museums, fabulous lakes and river frontage. Relax at our pristine golf courses, and enjoy great shopping and restaurants. So whether you're planning a seminar, convention, trade show, concert or any other type of social or business event, choose the Pine Bluff Convention Center for just the right mix of business and pleasure.

Location Pine Bluff is conveniently located in the mid-South region of Arkansas. For those traveling by bus or car, our city is accessible via Interstate 530, Highways 270, 79, 63 and 65. For commercial air travelers, Pine Bluff is approximately 42 miles from the Little Rock National Airport.

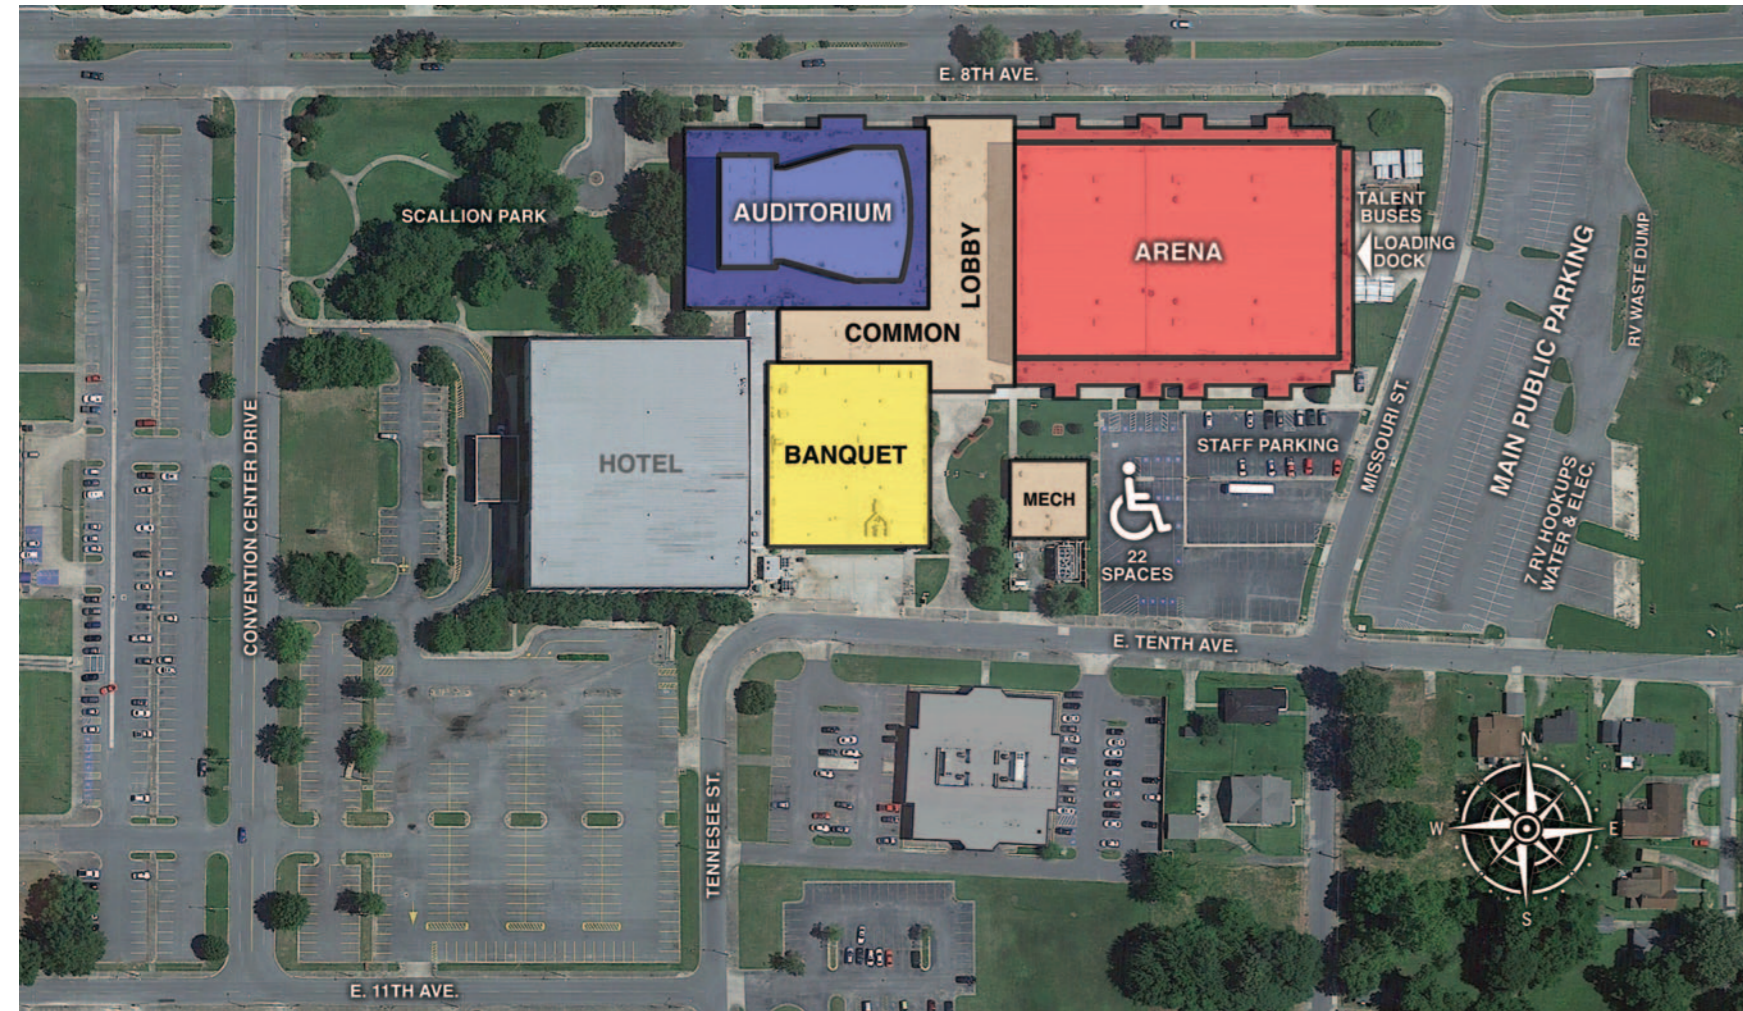

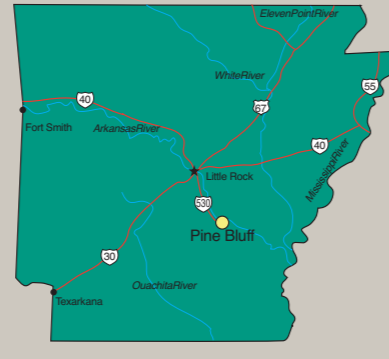

Full-Service Operation While so many facilities provide merely space, we provide total support. From in-house decorating and advertising to outstanding catering services and much, much more, the Pine Bluff Convention Center offers "one-stop" convention, meeting and event planning at its best.

Affordable All the space, service and support you could ask for and reasonable, too. The Pine Bluff Convention Center is very competitively priced.

Accessible All the exhibit space is on ground level. There are no stairs or elevators to impede the flow of visitor traffic. All areas are handicapped accessible as well.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How do you handle ticket sales? Pine Bluff Convention Center will be happy to sell tickets to your gathering. For your convenience and maximum exposure for your event, we use iTickets.com. Visit the website for more information. If you choose to handle your own ticket sales and distribution points, you are welcome to do so.

What is your policy regarding food served at events? For the health and safety of Pine Bluff Convention Center guests, food served at any function held on the premises must be provided by a caterer approved by the PBCC management. Absolutely no "outside" food is allowed. A list of approved caterers is available upon request. Exceptions to this policy must be discussed with the Executive Director for approval.

May alcoholic beverages be sold, served and consumed at our event? Yes. However all alcoholic beverages must be provided by Pine Bluff Convention Center, whether beer sold at the concession stands or wine and liquor served at temporary bar stations by in-house staff.

Due to Arkansas alcoholic beverage control regulations, absolutely no alcoholic beverages may be brought into the Pine Bluff Convention Center, except by PBCC-authorized personnel.

Must I have insurance for an event held at Pine Bluff Convention Center? Yes. To protect you and Pine Bluff Convention Center in the event of an accident, every event held at the facility must be covered by an insurance policy – usually called a "special events policy." You will need to show proof of insurance before your event may be allowed to proceed.

The policy must include the name of the insurance company, name and address of the insured – including Pine Bluff Convention Center as an added insured – type of policy, policy period, coverage trigger (occurrence or claims made), a description of the activity and the coverage date(s) of the event.
