

Biography

Bishop Nathaniel Edwards, Sr.

Bishop Nathaniel Edwards, Sr., a native of Florence S.C., his earlier years were spent in Brooklyn, New York. He is the very fine Bishop of the Salisbury Tabernacle of Prayer. It was through the late Apostle Washington's leadership that he accepted the call to Pastor in 1980, where he received much of his spiritual tutelage.

Bishop Edwards has a unique preaching style and his passion-filled sermons touch the lives of those seeking God's restoration, understanding, and healing by offering present-day applications of the Bible's timeless message.

He is a God-fearing man who committed his life to the Lord at the age of 20. As a young minister, he was diligent in seeking the will of God for his ministry. Bishop Edwards served faithfully for 15 years as the Pastor of the Baltimore Tabernacle of Prayer church. His ministry has reached thousands, as he traveled extensively as a preacher, evangelist, and teacher.

His ministry has also included radio, and various outreach ministries. Many esteem him as a Bishop's Bishop; a Pastor's Pastor; and a Leader's Leader. His wife and children revere him as a loving husband and role model father to many sons and daughters of the gospel.

Bishop Edwards has been the recipient of numerous certificates of merit, given keys to many cities by their mayors. A special award in 2011, he was the recipient and honored by President Barack Obama with the Presidential Volunteer Service Award in Washington, D.C., by way of Pastor Judy Talbert of Washington D.C.

In addition, the Mayor of the City of Salisbury, proclaimed "Bishop Nathaniel Edwards, Sr. Day", December 16, 2017, in celebration of his 80th birthday. The Mayor acknowledged his lifelong dedication to family, church, community and with gratitude for all those who benefited from his unwavering faith and passion to spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Bishop Nathaniel Edwards has been married to Rosie L. Edwards for 62 years. From this union, they have 5 children, 18 grandchildren, and 8 great-grandchildren.

Bishop Nathaniel Edwards, Sr., is a true "Man of God" that has been called "in such an hour as this"! After more than 40 years in ministry, Bishop Edwards believes that God's church should be a caring community equipping the saints to "take the Kingdom of God" by force.
