

Biography

Lady Sheila M. Edwards

Lady Sheila M. Edwards is a native of Salisbury, Maryland and has been the wife of Pastor David Edwards, Sr. for 23 years. Lady Edwards faithfully supports her husband in ministry by being considerate, thoughtful, reverential, and devoted as he heeds God's call. She is the embodiment of the woman noted in Proverbs 31:28 that states, "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her."

Lady Sheila loves working with children, a passion that is very dear to her heart. She attended Salisbury University where she received her Bachelor of Science degree in Elementary Education and Master of Arts degree in Early Childhood. Lady Sheila secured employment with the Wicomico County Public School System where she has been teaching prekindergarten for the past 26 years. During her tenure, Lady Sheila has been recognized for her outstanding performance in the classroom, and has been nominated "Teacher of the Year" on numerous occasions.

In addition to teaching, Lady Sheila also enjoys spending time with her family, exercising, trying healthy foods, and playing with the family dog, "Kobe." She is the devoted mother of six amazing children: Danielle, David Jr., Daniel, Malachi, Aaliyah, and Josiah.

Lady Sheila strives each day to be the best version of herself she can be. Her favorite scripture is Psalms 139: 14, "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works."
