Lori Piestewa: Lori Piestewa, who in 2003 in southern Iraq became the first Native American woman to die in combat, was from Tuba City. Piestewa Peak in north-central Phoenix was renamed in her honor shortly after her death.

Piestewa, 23, was classified as missing in action after enemy soldiers ambushed her unit in March 2003. She was declared dead on April 4, 2003. Piestewa was a member of the Hopi Tribe, whose reservation is near the Navajo Reservation community of Tuba City. She was a single mother raising two toddlers.
