

Jodie Lucey Ahern

Bio: Jodie Lucey Ahern was born in Haverhill, MA, and trained in studio art at Connecticut College, New London, CT, where she earned her BA degree in 1973, with emphases on painting and printmaking. She has also taken courses at Minneapolis College of Art and Design, Highpoint Center for Printmaking, the University of Minnesota, and Massachusetts College of Art. She exhibits her paintings and original prints regionally and nationally.

She is a current member of the Women's Art Resources of Minnesota and retired senior editor at the Minneapolis Institute of Art, a post she held for fifteen years. She has held editorial leadership roles for many publications in Massachusetts and Minnesota. She has edited art books and catalogues for the Minneapolis Institute of Art, Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian, Arts Midwest, Books & Projects, The University of Minnesota Press, and the Minnesota Historical Society Press.

Ahern's artwork is found in public and private collections in the United States, including Regions Hospital, Minneapolis; Fairview University Hospitals, Minneapolis; The Marsh, A Center for Healing, Minnetonka, MN; Springboard for the Arts, St. Paul, MN.