

Alex Ford

Alex Ford graduated in May of 2017 from a 4 year full time classical painting program in Minneapolis. Since graduating, Alex has spent the past year continuing to refine his education, seeking out additional training with some of the worlds foremost contemporary living masters. Alex lives in the twin cities suburbs with his wife and daughter, and is looking forward to the arrival of their second child this May.