

Jamie Reich
BIO

Jamie Reich has worked in art and design his whole life, but only recently- and happily- found oil painting. He has worked as a scenic artist and prop master in theaters including the Guthrie, a scenic painter for movies and music videos, a faux-finisher, and a backdrop designer/painter for commercial photographers. Jamie founded and owns Apropos, a company that specializes in interior design and fabrication services for retail stores, restaurants, and hotels.