Wednesday October 15

Hours: 9:00-5:00 daily,

with a break for lunch

On Wednesday evening, please stay after to celebrate our success! Details TBA

CONTENT

Monday morning Steve will demonstrate how he starts a portrait from life. Then he will guide participants in painting a series of five 3 hour portrait starts from models, through a combination of demonstration and individual instruction.

FEE

$550 tuition, plus painting materials. Models provided.

Steven J. Levin was trained in Minneapolis in traditional atelier methods similar to those of 19th Century Paris. Levin's work displays a thorough understanding of light and form, a deep reverence for beauty, and a decided respect for the works of the old masters.

Levin has exhibited widely and been featured in prestigious group shows in San Francisco, New York, London, Beijing and Barcelona. He has been featured on the cover of American Artist Magazine and has been the recipient of numerous national awards and prizes, including awards from the American Society of Portrait Artists, the Portrait Institute, The Artist's Magazine, the Salmagundi Club, and most recently the Art Renewal Center. He is represented by Cavalier Galleries in New York, and Tree's Place Gallery on Cape Cod.
