PRESIDENT'S LETTER

SARAH SWAB & EVIE TOMLINSON, CO-PRESIDENTS

"A Stitch in Time" is now a memory but what a fantastic memory! I am sitting here reminiscing the days of planning, organizing, and finally putting the plans in action. Our great leaders, Laura Bosma and Susan Peryam had a vision and executed those plans perfectly. They also had their great organizer during the event, Candy Shively. Thanks to the leaders and everyone involved that our show was successful. The board voted to send a bolt of batting to Comfort Quilters as a thank you to the Church.

It is getting closer to the end of the year. This means it is time to step up and volunteer for a position with the guild. Rosemary Griffin is heading up the nominating committee. She would love to hear you say yes to some of our empty positions.

Can you hear me now? Yes, we have our new PA system! It should help everyone enjoy our programs.

Don't forget we have a new website with up to date events. It is QGSCquilters.com

QGSC BOARD MEETING MINUTES—NOVEMBER 2, 2018

The meeting was called to order at 7:00pm by Sarah Swab

Tina Wilson

Board members present: Sarah Swab, Evie Tomlinson, MJ Johnson, Wanda Huderski, Emma Ross, Susan Peryam, Laura Bosma and Tina Wilson.

formatting the text of the by laws document prior to a group review of the document for required changes.)

Minutes from last month was approved

The board reviewed text of a proposed letter notifying the former webmaster that our URL has changed and the site is no longer hosted by Weebly. It was approved with minor adjustments and will be sent certified with a return receipt requested with signature.

Membership reported: 46 members at evening meeting and 32 members and 4 guests at day meeting

Daytime group is looking for a meeting facilitator

Old Business: Susan Peryam reported that the Stitch in Time Quilt Show was a huge success. Thank You to 141 volunteers. There were over 220 quilts on display and more than 600 visitors attending the show and 20 ribbons were awarded. A Thank You to EGCM absorbing the cost totaling over $1,000.

Raffle Quilt: Ticket sales increased another $387.00

- The 2019 raffle quilt is with Sharon Jeffries for quilting and will be ready for presentation at the December night meeting..

New Business: The board approved a donation of batting to Common Threads at Evergreen Church in appreciation for the church's support of the quilt show. A suggestion was made to set aside funds for the next show (in two years so as to not compete with East Cobb). Nothing was finalized regarding this matter.

Show & Tell: Participating ribbons will be awarded at the next meeting

Newsletter articles are due by the 10th of the month to Wanda

A change of location was announced for the February Sulky workshop. It will be held at St. Andrews Episcopal Church in PTC.

Website: Our new web site is up and running. In January following each member's payment of the 2019 dues each member will be sent an e-mail with instructions on how to access the members only section of our guild web page. Initially we will include a copy of the by laws, library list, membership roster and name tag template. (Wanda is working on

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00pm.

Have you browsed our library cabinet at the night guild meeting?

We have a vast number of quilt books and videos on DVD that you can check out and use for a couple of months.

Learn a new technique or find a pattern for a quilt project.

Come and see what treasures we have for you to jazz up a quilted gift. Our cabinet is an opportunity to poke your creativity into a WOW!

PROGRAMSNIGHTTIME FOR NOVEMBER 15 AT 7:00PM*QGSC ANNUAL GUILD CHALLENGE 2018 -

The 2018 Challenge Quilt Extravaganza is due at November 15, 2018 Night Meeting. Please bring your quilt for the challenge to be signed in by Sharon Pope. Please arrive a little early to allow ample time for this. If your label is completed as outlined in #4 below, that is all the info we will need for the Challenge.

To commemorate our QGSC 20th Anniversary, your Challenge for 2018 is to:

1. Choose a month of the year that will be represented in your quilt. Any month...based on a holiday, your birthday, your vacation month, etc...you choose. This will determine the general color and/or theme, it is up to you how you interpret it. IE: October birthday, I could choose a pink birthstone or opal as a starting point -or- I could make it about Halloween or those colors!
2. Your quilt must have 20 of something in it. IE: 20 blocks, 20 prairie points, 20 squares, 20 triangles, 20 buttons or other embellishments...express your creativity!
3. Your Challenge Quilt can be any size or shape, or wearable, but understand that if it is larger than can be displayed on the panels, it will be folded in quarters.
4. Your quilt must be completed = quilted, bound, and have a label. The label should indicate the month you're representing, and what you have included 20 of.

SO EXCITED!!! CAN'T WAIT TO SEE ALL YOUR CHALLENGE QUILTS!!!

Sharon Pope

Peachtree City Library, Floy Farr Room

No early Stitch-in. Please arrive 15-30 minutes early to place your dish.

Reminder: Overflow parking is right next door at the children's playground. Use the walkover bridge for easy access to the library's lower level entrance to Floy Farr Room

Quilters, our Daytime Christmas Luncheon is Friday December 7, 2018 at the Peachtree City Library downstairs in the Floy Farr Room. Please arrive 30 minutes early (by 1 PM) to place your dish. Bring your Upcycled Mittens or Accessories from felted wool/cashmere for Show 'n Tell. Gloria Filippelli and Friends have wonderful gifts for us so be sure to attend.

On behalf of your 2018 Programs Team we want to thank you for a great year! This is a great meeting to welcome your 2019 Programs Team, they've got an awesome year planned for us.

UFO Harvest 2018-2019 - Deadline for entry extended to November Night Meeting.

You can still enter the UFO Harvest!! Please give or email your lists of UFO's to Judy Daymont. No matter how large or how small - you are a winner!! A winner of "what" remains to be seen !

PROGRAMS—NIGHTTIME FOR DECEMBERDec 13, Thu 7:00pm Holiday Party

December is fast approaching and with that is our night time Holiday Party. For the past several years we have done a modified pot luck. The guild has provided the meat, drinks, and paper goods as well as table covers. We have had mixed success with this and as Sue Tryon and myself were trying to figure out what we wanted to do this year, it took us several minutes to conjure up what we had done last year. To say it was less than a big hit is an understatement. We've tried to be mindful of the taste and budget of the ladies in the guild and it seemed that while the side dishes and desserts were a hit our meats were not.

So, this year we are going to go with a total pot luck dinner.

We know that there are lots of wonderful cooks and bakers in our guild so we are encouraging everyone to bring what you like. It can be an appetizer, entrée, side dish or dessert. The guild will still provide all the paper goods, cutlery, drinks, and table covers.

Go with your own strength and comfort level. This is not about stress, we are all about enjoying the evening. If we have to deal with nothing but desserts we will have to do our best. In case you have been wondering last year we had assorted cold meat and cheese trays.

Looking forward to seeing you there,

Call Judy Mahfood if you have any questions

Sue Tryon

December Meeting Silent Auction

Please put our annual AUCTION in your calendar - Thursday, December 13th!

This is a major money maker for our Guild.....money for speakers, workshops, community service projects and all the extras. If you have a handmade item or two to sell, please arrive early so we can find spaces and auction forms for your treasures. This auction is always a good place for finding special Christmas/Kwanzaa/Hanukkah gifts!

Place: Fayette Presbyterian church, Hwy. 92, Fayetteville

Time: 7:00pm

Bring: Money and a smiling face!

Go home with: a few baskets of fabulous quilting goodies!

And, thanks to all of you who donated to this worthy cause.

Are you still looking for something to contribute to the Silent Auction??

An idea for something to auction off might be your time or talent. Such as, if you like to do hand binding, offer to bind a quilt. Or if you have a longarm, offer to do a simple edge-to-edge quilting design on a top.

You could print up a 'certificate' page and fill in your talents.

Lots of people would love to have their project quilted and/or bound!

Jane Coleman (and friends)

PROGRAMS EVENING 2019

“Home Grown – Reap What You Sew”

If you want to sign up for a workshop or for more information contact:

Judy Daymont – judydaymont@gmail.com

Jan 24, Thu @ 7:00pm“Risk Takers and Flip Flops: An Art Quilter’s Story” with QGSC member Candy Shively

Join Candy as she shares her journey as an art quilter. Lots of eye candy (quilts) and interesting insights into quilts as “art”.

Feb 28, Thu @ 7:00pm“Georgia Quilts” with Anita Weinraub

Anita edited Georgia Quilts which compiles the work of the Georgia Quilt Project, the most authoritative survey of quilts and quilters every undertaken in the State. Sure to be a fascinating view into our quilting heritage!

Mar 28, Thu @ 7:00pmLife Beyond Strip Piecing: 7:00pm, or “I Lead Two Lives” with Marti Michell

You’ve seen Marti on TV and at quilt shows, but now is your chance to meet her up close and personal! Check out website: www.frommarti.com

Mar 29, Fri 10:00am– 4:00pm“Pineapple Smoothie” Workshop

Have you been putting off making a pineapple quilt because it looks too hard? Now is your chance to learn Marti’s method for fast and easy pineapples with no wasted fabric. $40 class fee due with sign up. Use your own fabric for this 3 color quilt – make a little, make a lot. You can purchase Marti’s pineapple ruler from her.

Apr 25, Thu 2:00pm – 9:00pm“Drop In & Sew In” – Community Service

Come join us anytime throughout the day and evening for fellowship and sewing fun. Bring your own donation project or work on a kit provided. We will order out for supper and at 7 pm, we will break for a regular meeting with Show & Tell, Monthly Mini, announcements, etc.

May 23, Thu at 7:00pm“A Little Something Extra” with Joan Wilcocks

Joan has dazzled us for years with her quilts that have that “certain something”. Now, she will share different ways to take our quilts from good to great. Joan is a treasure trove of ideas and never disappoints.

Jun 27, Thu @ 7:00pmBirthday Party with Games & Prizes

Let’s celebrate another great quilting year with fun and games...and cake, of course!

Jul 25, Thu @ 7:00pmDay & Night Quilt Challenge – Along with a Sit & Sew Supper (Pot Luck)

This year, there will be ONE challenge quilt, but you’ll have the opportunity to enter your quilt TWO times. We will have different criteria for judging in the Day versus the Night meeting. You can enter either or both venues! “Double your pleasure, double your fun!”

Aug 22, Thu @ 7:00pmFrom Traditional to Contemporary: “Releasing the Artist in All of Us” by Eileen Sullivan

Eileen’s presentation is certain to speak to all types of quilters and inspire us to venture into new quilting territory. She was among the first to present foundation piecing as a way to create art quilts. Her “When Grandmother’s Lily Garden Blooms” is in the permanent collection in Paducah.

Aug 23, Fri 10:00am – 4:00pm“How Does Your Garden Grow” Workshop

$40 class fee due with sign up. The thrust of the workshop is to develop unique, individual floral gardens from the numerous blocks given in handouts. Class work will complete several blocks then move on to composition, ‘sew-able’ arrangements, variations and preplanning an entire project. Check out website: www.thedesignersworkshop.com

October meeting! ****

Nov 14, Thu @ 7:00pm
UFO Finale – “Reap What You Sew”

This is your opportunity to pat yourself on the back for all the UFO’s you completed this year. Whether it was zero (well, you at least thought about it!) or 100 (don’t you just hate those overachievers!) you are a WINNER!!

Dec 12, Thu @ 7:00pm
Silent Auction and Christmas Party*QUILTERS GUILD OF THE SOUTHERN CRESCENT*UFO HARVEST: 2018-2019

- The Goal of the UFO Harvest is for members to reap the benefits of completing their Unfinished Objects.
- Unfinished Object (“UFO”) is a quilting project, of any type, that is Under Construction (“UC”) or Ready to Quilt (“RQ”) as of Oct. 1, 2018 and is listed on this sheet.
- “Completed” means that the project has progressed to being Ready to Quilt (“RQ”) or Finished (“F”) by the October 2019 meeting.
- The Harvest will culminate in some fun (maybe silly) awards and prizes. No “quilt police” are involved and members are on the honor system.
- Status Definitions:
 - ◇ “UC” or Under Construction means that you have a design or pattern, have assembled your fabrics and have at least begun to cut or stitch your project.
 - ◇ “RQ” or Ready to Quilt – means that the quilt top is complete and ready for quilting, including the backing and batting.
 - ◇ “F” or Finished – means that your project is quilted, bound (if needed) and ready to use or display.
- While not required, we do look forward to seeing your UFO quilts in Show and Tell throughout the year!
- For more information or to send your sheet: judydaymont@gmail.com or 678.516.4533 (cell).

Nancy Sapin comes from a family of creative sewers, a grandmother who was a seamstress and a mother who made all of her Barbie doll clothes, then later, all of Nancy's. While Nancy learned to sew when she was very young, she really began sewing in earnest when she was in her early 20's. After having 3 children, sewing and crafts took a back seat to owning and operating an electronic assembly business. She employed and taught women, both in groups and individually, the art of hand winding and assembling electronic coils and transformers. During this period of time, she honed her skills of teaching, precision, patience, scheduling, and dedication toward quality and creativity.

After running her own business for 17 years, when the company for whom she was assembling electronic parts moved their operation offshore, she closed her business and moved to Asheville, NC, where she began a college education. Here, Nancy learned when she tutored fellow students while taking the same class, that you learn more yourself when you teach others. Nancy joined a Nationwide Business Leadership Club, Phi Beta Lambda and served as their Western Region Vice President in her senior year, while winning many State and National competitions. She received numerous awards, including Business Student of the Year, and graduated with highest honors.

Nancy has now come back full circle to sewing. She moved to Franklin, NC, after meeting and marrying her husband, David, in 2004. In 2006, she began sewing Sulky samples for use at Sulky Sew Exciting Seminars, Certification Trainings and in Consumer and Trade show booths. Nancy has been a National Freelance Educator and designer for Sulky of America since 2007.

She has presented numerous Sew Exciting Seminars, Quilt Guild presentations & Sit & Sew classes. She co-taught Sulky Teacher Certification Trainings, taught and lectured at various national AQS, ASE & OSQE events besides conducting countless Freelance teaching events. Her designs have been published in numerous Sulky books: "Sew, Craft, Quilt & Embroider Confidently with Sulky Stabilizers" (#900-B19), "Fun with Sulky Blendables and Solid Color Cotton Threads" (#900-B21), and Sulky's newest Book "Embellish your Life with Sulky" (#900-B22).

Nancy's positive "can do" attitude allows her to accomplish the goals she sets before herself and brings fun and enthusiasm into the classroom.

2019 7TH ANNUAL RETREAT—THURS, APRIL 11, 10:00AM THROUGH SUN, APRIL 14TH, 4:00PM

Retreat Committee: Sharon Pope, Laura Wheeler and Sue Tryon

Are you ready for another QGSC Retreat Weekend? How does 4 days & 3 nights of sewing, learning, sharing & being inspired sound??? Oh, and how about not having to cook or any home chores to steal your focus? As our returning retreaters tell us year after year, they are ready to sign-up before the current one ends!

Hope you will join us once again at Charlie Elliott Wildlife Center, in Mansfield, GA...only 1 hour away!

Our Retreat Agenda will include:

- another Mystery Quilt - #5,
- a fun Scrap project,
- our Annual Community Service Quilt project,
- and by popular demand, another Mini-Challenge.

These are all voluntary participation projects, so you will have the weekend for any you may want to try, or have all weekend to work on your personal projects. If you have a tip or trick you would like to demo, we would love to have you share that with us!

We have eliminated the door prize & grab bag exchanges. In their place, we will have a Secret Sister exchange for anyone who wants to participate. Once you are registered with your deposit paid, you will receive a preference sheet to fill out and return. These will be randomly issued to retreaters who want to “play along”, without a name attached. You will then purchase an item, or items, up to a value of $35, and bring gift wrapped to the retreat. We will exchange these throughout the weekend rather than having door prize drawings.

The Registration Form for the retreat is attached with this Newsletter.
