QUILTERS GUILD OF THE SOUTHERN CRESCENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE—WANDA HUDERSKI

Welcome to 2020 a year of new challenges, possibilities and opportunities.

This month's newsletter contains a lot of information for you to review. In addition to our usual listing of programs for the next couple of months several of the committees have requests for input from our membership.

Please be on the lookout for these requests, give them some consideration and kindly respond to the committee with your feedback.

BOARD MEETING MINUTES—JANUARY 3, 2020

Sarah Swab

Present: Wanda Huderski, Co-President and newsletter/website; Kristin Slagle, Co-President; Sarah Swab, Secretary; Brandi Shockley, treasurer; Robbin Manter, community service; Judy Daymont, newsletter; Sharon Pope, Retreat 2020; Evie Tomlinson, night programs 2020; Candy Shively, Joann Gorrell, Emma Ross, Day Programs, 2020; Tina Wilson, membership; Joan Willcocks, Daytime "M.C."; Wilma Johnson, Daytime refreshments; Susan Peryam, 2020 raffle quilt sales.

Meeting called to order at 12:05 pm by Wanda Huderski

No Board meeting was held in December, thus no minutes to approve. Motion to approve November 2019 minutes by Candy Shively, 2nd by Wilma Johnson. Unanimous approval

Committee Reports:

Treasury: Treasurer did not attend meeting, no report

Silent Auction 2020: Donations for Silent Auction 2020 are being accepted by Joann Gorrell.

Membership: Membership cards and raffle tickets are ready to hand out to members upon payment of 2020 dues.

Community Service: Sew-in today went well. Robbin has developed a form that shows who worked on each phase of each community service quilt. This form will be included with the in progress quilt until completion. Robbin is also asking for suggestions on quilt patterns.

Refreshments: Daytime: no refreshments will be needed for the months of March or December. No one volunteered to coordinate refreshments for the evening meetings. Members of the board will provide refreshments for the January evening meeting.

Library: No report

Raffle Quilt 2020: The quilt represents the 100th anniversary of the 19th Amendment which allowed women to vote. Quilt is completed and Susan requested ideas on what venues it would be appropriate to sell tickets at. A motion was made by Candy and 2nd by Kristin to use up to $100 to print promotional material for the quilt. Motion passed.

Raffle Quilt 2021: Joan Willcocks presented a quilt that she was willing to donate that would be our 2021 raffle quilt. A motion was made by Wanda and 2nd by Susan Peryam to accept Joan's lovely quilt as our 2021 raffle quilt. Motion passed unanimously.

Newsletter and website: Judy Daymont will "shadow" Wanda and take over the Newsletter Editor position in the near future. Articles are to be submitted to: qgscquilters@gmail.com.

Sunshine and Shadows: Two cards have been sent to members so far this year.

Programs: Candace Hassen will present a lecture and trunk show at the January evening meeting. Bonnie Langenfeld will be here on February 7, 2020 with a presentation on Realistic Fabric Art, and will have a Trunk Show, followed by a workshop the next day titled "Beardie in Bobbin Work." There are spaces available for the February 8th workshop. For the February 27th evening meeting a lecture and trunk show will be presented followed by a class on February 29th. The February class, "Wrapped in Ribbon" is full.

Retreat 2020: Only a few spots left for members to sign up. Final payment is due no later than the March evening guild meeting. A voluntary Christmas theme project will be offered.

New Business:

The Foundry School that meets at Saint Andrews in the Pines has requested that we teach a group of 9th and 10th graders how to quilt. Joan Willcocks will be heading the group of volunteers. The 1st of five classes/meetings will be on January 31, 2020. Joan has asked for volunteers to help.

Joan and Kristen will be hosting a pre-day meeting sew-in where members can come and receive help on their projects. This will be from 9-12 am. One of their planned projects will be sewing/paper piecing the guild nametag.

Monthly Mini: Jane Coleman is compiling a list of monthly mini volunteers for 2020.

FEBRUARY DAYTIME PRE-MEETING SEW-ALONG

Friday, February 7th

GUILD NAME TAGS

Whether you've been waiting to find the right time to sew your first guild name tag or a replacement, here's your opportunity. Our daytime pre-meeting sew-along for February is a paper pieced nametag-making session.

We'll meet Friday, February 7 from 9:30-11:30 am at HTCC and get the job done.

SUPPLIES Needed

- Fabric scraps (approximately 5"x7" pieces of 3 or 4 colors)
- Scrap (approximately 8"x10" contrasting piece for background of star.)
- 1 coordinating fat quarter (border and backing)
- Batting 5"x7" White or a light color scrap.
- Basic sewing supplies: pins, small sharp scissors, seam ripper, etc.
- Sewing machine -don't forget your cord & foot pedal and extension cord (You could probably partner with a friend to share a machine.)
- Neutral (or matching) thread & bobbins
- Rotary cutter & small mat & small rulers. We will have a couple for the group, but personal one to share with your neighbor would be helpful.
- Glue stick

For more information or questions contact Kristin Slagle.

2020 UPCOMING DAY TIME PROGRAM— MARCH 6TH — ROAD TRIP

Candy Shivley

Our March Daytime Meeting will be a road trip to see TWO quilt exhibits in Carrollton.

A Thread Runs Through It is the title of the exhibit at the Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum. This juried exhibit features work by at quilter from across Georgia and South Carolina who are members of Studio Art Quilt Associates (SAQA). Did you know that FOUR of our own guild members belong to SAQA?

A second exhibit, entitled JAM Session, will be just down the street at the Carrollton Arts Center. This exhibit features works by four Juried Artist Members from the GA/SC SAQA region.

Mark your calendar NOW for this fabulous road trip. You will probably be leaving Carrollton about 3:30 pm.

Note: The Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum does have an admission charge of $4 (group rate for our guild).

We will meet in the covered entrance area outside our usual meeting space at Holy Trinity Catholic Church (HTC) NO LATER THAN 11:45 am to form carpools to Carrollton. We hope those with space will offer rides to those who need a carpool. RIDERS should plan to give their driver $5 - $7 toward gas. All who are riders or driving a carpool should refrain from wearing fragrances or scents out of concern for those with allergies.

All guild members will receive an email during February with a link to an evite to RSVP and request rides and/or offer space in your car.

WATCH for this email! This will make our logistics go more quickly at HTC. Even if you plan to drive independently, please RSVP so we get a head count. Independent drivers should plan to be AT the museum no later than 1:00 pm to join up with our guild group for the reduced price.

Lots of fun classes this year. Remember you get a crystal every time you participate, and prizes will follow!

BOARD MEETING MINUTES CONTINUED...Challenge Quilt 2020:

Laura Wheeler and Sue Tryon are coordinating the challenge quilt for 2020. It will be tied in with the theme of the 19th Amendment to the Constitution. Completion month will be July for both day and evening meetings.

Tabled until next Board Meeting:

A discussion was held regarding the possibility to have the silent auction in December be both quilting items as well as handmade items made by guild members. Motion was made by Sarah and 2nd by Kristen to table the discussion to February to allow members to consider the possibilities. Motion passed. Additionally tabled is the final budget for 2020.

Motion to adjourn Sarah, 2nd by Kristen. Motion passed

Meeting adjourned at 1:05 pm.
Next board meeting: February 7, 2020

COMMUNITY SERVICERobbin Manter

Service Sew Day WHAT A SUCCESS. I thank all of you for coming out in the rain. We made 64 squares. Some people took additional squares home to finish. We had people putting together kits.

The squares we made will make 2 twin, 2 throws and 2 kid quilts. Now we need volunteers to sew them together. I did not mean to leave you with the impression that all of the quilts should be what I call a popping quilt. I love that we make quilts in all types of designs and colors. The idea of walking into a place that only had popping quilts - scary.

I know that I took at least a few of you outside your comfort zone. I'm glad.

2019 COMMUNITY SERVICE RECAP

Sue Schultz

Our guild went above and beyond with community service in 2019. I am so proud to have been able to work with this group as one of your community service chair persons for the past six years. You are truly a blessing to so many.

In 2019 our guild donated:

- 10 twin size quilts and pillowcases to the kids at Christian City
- 18 quilts and 61 pillowcases to the women and children at Promise Place
- 17 quilts and pillowcases to our veterans
- 61 crocheted baby hats for the hospital NICU babies made by Wilma Johnson
- 5 bags to Bloom Closet
- 34 quilts and 14 burp cloths to the Fayetteville Pregnancy Resource Center
- 38 small kennel quilts to shelters in need
- 100 baby quilts to A Baby's Helping Hand
- 1 Breast cancer quilt

That is 180 quilts, 88 pillowcases, 5 bloom bags, 38 kennel quilts, 14 burp cloths and 61 baby hats!!!

You all are amazing!!!!

Amazing results!

Thank you to everyone who participated.

It was truly a team effort.

2020 DAYTIME PROGRAM AND CLASS—FEBRUARY

2020 NIGHTTIME PROGRAM PREVIEW

Evie Tomlinson, MJ Johnson, Claudia Singleton and Wanda Huderski

Thursday night meeting - Jan 23, 2020 7:00pm

Fayette Presbyterian Church

Come and be inspired by Candace Hassen
<https://quiltdesignsbycandace.com/>
A trunk show by a local fiber artist

Here is how Candace describes her program--

“My Trunk Show program is all about inspiration. I show about 20 large quilts and share how I got the idea for each one. I discuss the strategies I used to stay organized throughout the project, explain the reasons behind my design decisions, and provide tools to help you keep your own projects moving from start to finish. The goal of this program is to help you see the world with fresh eyes, and to learn to find inspiration in so much more than just other quilts.”

MEMBERSHIP

Joy Brett & Tina Wilson

So far, we have 43 returning members and 1 new member...a total of 44 members have paid for 2020.

Welcome to our new member Judy Fruscione!

If you don't renew your membership by the March nighttime meeting your email address will be removed from future distributions and updates.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS

Barb Moyle

If you are aware of any guild member needing a card please contact Barb Moyle at azmoyle@aol.com.

So far, 2 cards have been sent out from December requests. Hoping for more sunshine & less shadows in 2020!

Thanks.

2020 RAFFLE QUILT -

Susan Peryam and Jennifer Woods

The 2020 Raffle Quilt commemorating the centennial anniversary of women's right to vote in the United States is ready for display and ticket sales.

We are excited to announce that we are participating in the Sewing Expo at the Infinite Energy Center in Duluth, March 12- 14, 2020. This is a great opportunity for the guild. Our booth at the expo to display the raffle quilt and sell tickets is free as long as we participate in the expo ambassador program. Ambassadors volunteer 4 hours of their time, get free admission, and tickets for prizes. To register to be an ambassador go to - sewingexpo.com, click on volunteer and complete the ambassador application. Choose location of Atlanta and Group Affiliation QGSC.

In addition, we need volunteers to staff the guild booth - raffle quilt display and ticket sales. Volunteers need to commit to a half day.

(Make a day of it, be an ambassador and spend time in our guild booth.

Questions? Contact Susan Peryam

Be sure to let Susan know if you have registered to be an ambassador and/or can commit to a half day in the guild booth. We want to make sure you get special recognition. Thank you.

Also, we, Jennifer and Susan, want to hear from members -

What kind of prizes or awards would make you want to get out and sell tickets. We will go to the Board with ideas for rewarding member ticket sales in February.

What venues do you know about that would be a good place to display the quilt and sell tickets. Think about church craft fairs, community gatherings, market places, etc. You may be eligible for a prize if you find a venue.

Contact Jennifer Woods or Susan Peryam .

2020 CHALLENGE QUILT DAY AND NIGHT

Laura Wheater & Sue Tryon

The Theme for the 2020 Challenge is the 100 Year Anniversary of Women's Right to Vote in the US.

What does this mean to you? What does this mean to your family? What does this mean for our country?

How can you best commemorate this milestone?

- Due date = the July Day Meeting.

(Voting will happen at both the July Day Meeting and the July Night Meeting.)

Quilt Requirements:

- Include a Finished 3 layer quilt
- Include at least one figure of a woman.
- Include at least one photo transfer

- Include the words "One Hundred" or the number, "100"
- Include the colors Red, White, and Blue. (Other colors are optional.)
- Include a LABEL on the Back of the quilt which includes the Title of the quilt, Your Name, and Date of Completion
- Quilt Size: from Mini to Lap Size. (No Larger.)

Our Afro-American sisters who have not reached their 100 year anniversary yet are invited to share their interpretation of this theme.

Questions? You may contact Sue Tryon at evening meetings or Laura Wheater at most daytime or evening meetings

PLANNING UNDERWAY FOR NEXT YEAR ALREADY!!!

PROGRAMS 2021

Hello Members,

Working hard on night-time programs for 2021; Cleme is assisting me. My plan is to have one national/traveling speaker for traditional quilting and one for art quilting.

Gyleen Fitzgerald is the featured speaker for September 2021. She will be doing two workshops. Please go to her website (www.colourfulstitches.com) and let me know which workshops you are interested in taking.

For art quilting, I am considering the following people for this choice; please take a look at their websites for their offerings and let me know if you have any interest in any of them and any preferences for talks or workshops. If you have any other suggestions in this quilting genre, please send them to me. Currently looking at Hollis Chatelaine, Jan Girod and Kristin Rodriguez of Fiber on a Whim and Laurie Ceesay Landree.

PLEASE GIVE FEEDBACK BY FEBRUARY 4; send me an e-mail or you can post to the QGSC Facebook page.

I would like to know if the membership likes combining the daytime and nighttime meeting challenges; if so, I will work with the challenge chair for that year to continue.

Lastly, let me know any interests/ideas you have in speakers, techniques, etc.

Thanks and I look forward to hearing from the membership.

Myla

Note!!

Myla is asking for feedback. This is your chance to have some input in the decisions she needs to make for 2021 programs.

The Southeastern Quilt and Textile Museum in Carrollton, GA is hosting a large quilting event on February 21 & 22, 2020 called IMAGINE 2020 - A QUILTING EXPO.

It will be held at the Carrollton Center for the Arts.

<https://www.imagine2020expo.com/>

This program needs you!

The nighttime program committee will be presenting

Helpful Tips from the Sew-n-Sews on Thursday March 26, 2020

We all love to learn new ways to store our sewing items.

Maybe you have organized your scissors, thread, or etc.

We want to share your great sewing hacks with others just like in your favorite magazine, they pick their favorites and publish them.

Of course, the magazine gives out awards if you are published. I bet we have some awards too!

We are asking you to send a picture with a 50 word or less description.

Send your pics and description to Evie Tomlinson.

Put Helpful Tips QGSC in the subject

I am starting the new year with a new challenge on my design wall. Thank you so much for taking the time and effort to make a star block for the president's quilt. I have already designed a layout using EQ8.

Sarah Swab has challenged me to get it done before 6 months like she did. All I can say is, I'M WORKING ON IT.

I love my blocks and our guild rocks!!!
