Challenge Quilt Guidelines

The Atlanta History Center is asking for traditional quilts. Check out Pg. 6 for more information

July articles are due July 10th

Next Board Meeting: July 7th - 7PM - ZOOM

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE — JANE MCAFEE

Summer travel brings the opportunity to explore more quilt shops. Last month I was in Florida and needed some fabric for a project I had brought with me. The nearest quilt shop was on a farm. As I drove over the cattle guards and through the pasture and between the grazing cows, I had lots of questions. But at the end of the road, I opened the door to a quilt shop that had rooms filled with delightful fabrics. I hope you have the opportunity to explore quilt shops this summer whether locally or during your travels.

We are almost half way through our scrappy year. I've learned so much this year about taking the remnants from my other projects and using them to make something beautiful. Judy Daymont kicked off the year with beautiful examples of scrappy quilts. Her research brought together a wealth of information, tips and organization ideas. She was so thorough I wondered if there was more to learn.

Then our speakers brought even more inspiration. The scrappy small group provides community and all the benefits of shared ideas and inspiration. And the May community service project was both scrappy and fun. Jennifer Clay's well-written guidelines made the blocks easy and enjoyable to create.

There is still so much more to look forward to in 2022. Check out the schedule in the newsletter. Please join us June 23 for the ice cream social which is also the last opportunity to turn in your entry for the challenge quilt. I look forward to seeing the African Curves entries in July. And keep working on your scrappy projects for our November Scrap Quilt Finale!

This month send me a quick email at qgscquilters@gmail.com telling me the location of your last purchase of fabric (in person or on line). Those who respond in June, will be included in a drawing for a prize.

Jane

presented by The Modern Quilt Guild

Thu. Feb. 23 - Sun. Feb. 26
2023

Atlanta Convention Center
at AmericasMart

As part of our 25th Anniversary celebration, we are encouraging interested members to attend QuiltCon Atlanta 2023, which is put on by The Modern Quilt Guild. This is a rare opportunity to attend a national quilt show, right in our own backyard!

While still in the planning stage, we're contemplating organizing carpools, meeting for dinner and perhaps spending the night in Atlanta. Go to <https://quiltcon.com> to learn more about the show.

AUCTION 2022

Joan Willcocks

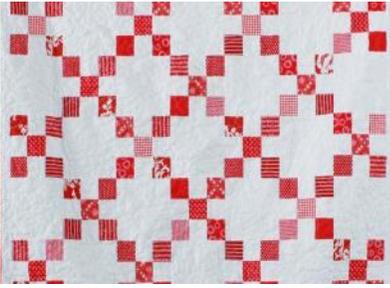

Only 5 months until we hold our annual Auction at the Night Meeting on Thursday, November 17, 2022! It will be a LIVE Auction, full of fun and excitement.

This year we are asking you to donate a completed, hand-crafted item (or basket of items), suitable for giving to a friend, family member, or perhaps something one would keep for herself! Please bring these gift items to the Nov. 17th meeting, where we will auction them off with a starting bid of $20. If you aren't able to make/bring the gift item, you are invited to donate new, holiday-themed fat quarters to fill a basket as part of the final auction item.

We hope to have a lot of wonderful, quality items to offer the members. In order to help me to plan, please send me an email with the “theme” or idea of the item) you are donating. My contact information is on Pg. 11.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Jennifer Clay

Quilt of Valor Community Service SEW-IN Friday, August 5 9:30 AM - 1 PM - FPC

Sarah Swab will lead us in making Irish Chain quilts. Sarah will bring 3.5" squares for the 9 patches. Please bring your machine and basic sewing supplies; or plan on trimming & ironing. Don't forget your lunch!

Thank you to all of you who contributed string blocks to make community service quilts. I collected a total of 150 blocks, which is enough to make three quilt tops. Congratulations to Patty Hobson, our 1st place winner, who turned in 55 blocks! She won a signed copy of "Love Your Creative Space", by Lilo Bowman, our May Zoom speaker. Second place went to Deb Sweeney, who won a wall hanging pattern and stencils from Missouri Star, "Finished is Better than Perfect".

These quilt tops go together easily, so I encourage you to continue to use your scraps and make your own quilt with these addictive string blocks.

We continue to accept your pillowcases, quilt tops and finished quilts for the following groups. Thank you so much for your contributions!

Type of Quilt	Organization	Size Range	Team Leader
Baby Quilts	Pregnancy Resource Center	Width: 30" - 45" Length: 40" - 55"	Jennifer Clay
Throws for Children, Youths & Adults	Christian City	Width: 45" - 60" Length: 65" - 75"	Jennifer Clay
Patriotic Quilts for Veterans	Quilts of Valor	Width: 55" - 72" Length: 65" - 90"	Sarah Swab
Throws & Pillowcases for Youths 10 & Up	Bloom Closet	Width: 45" - 60" Length: 65" - 75"	Robbin Manter

CALL FOR TRADITIONAL QUILTS!

The Atlanta History Center is reaching out to local quilting guilds to request quilt donations that will be displayed and used for interpretation at the Smith Family Farm. They are looking for:

- 19th century-style patchwork or pieced quilts.
- They do not have to be "old".
- Traditional style, NO modern motifs, logos, or patterns.

If you are interested in submitting a quilt, email Olajuwon Grady (404.814.4026) or the Collections Department at one of the following emails:

ogrady@atlantahistorycenter.com OR collections@atlantahistorycenter.com

SMALL GROUPS - SCRAPPERS!

Judy Daymont

Monday, June 20 from 10 - 2 PM
Fayette Presbyterian Sunday School Room

We have a new home! FPC has graciously offered the use of a large classroom in the basement. If you plan to join us, please let me know and I will include you on emails with directions, updates, etc.

This group is open to all Guild members. Work on the project of your choice - scrappy or otherwise! Don't forget your lunch.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS

Barb Moyle

When a guild member lets me know a card is needed, I send one out from our guild. In an effort to respect the individual's privacy, I don't announce who or what - as it is up to the individual to share that information with the general membership.

Contact me to have a card sent. My contact information is on Page 11.

A big "Thank You!" to Gloria Filippelli who has agreed to take over Sunshine and Shadows when I move in the Fall.
