QUILTERS GUILD OF THE SOUTHERN CRESCENT

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE - JUDY DAYMONT

A very special "Thank You" to Susan Peryam, Laura Wheater and Evie Tomlinson for pulling off our first hybrid meeting last month. Thirty members watched our speaker, Emily Taylor, via Zoom at the church, while 20 joined from home. It was a great speaker and Guild fellowship rolled into one!

I regret having missed the last two meetings. I babysat grandsons (ages 3 and 5) during the former and suffered the inevitable head cold during the latter. But I am back and better and looking forward to seeing many of you at QuiltCon in just a few days.

As I think about the Guild offerings over the past month and a half, I realize that we are living up to our purpose, as put forth in our Bylaws. So far this year we conducted a Sew-In for Community Service; learned new quilting techniques from Emily Taylor and our own Evie Tomlinson; and shared dessert with our quilting friends as we learned about this year's programs.

I hope the Guild is living up to YOUR expectations, also.

I think what I am most proud of are the opportunities to connect with fellow Guild members in a small group or social setting.

- You are welcome to join others in the Fellowship Hall for a casual Sit 'N' Sew during the mornings prior to our Day meetings. Next one is Friday, March 3 at 10 am.
- Our Book Club's first meeting is March 21st from noon till 2 pm. We will meet at the City Café in Fayetteville and discuss Between Heaven and Texas. If you haven't already, let Deb Sweeney know you are coming. See Page 6 for more info.
- Our Anniversary Luncheon on Sat. April 29 will be spectacular. See Page 5.
- The Wool Applique Workshop runs from April through June. Check out Page 3 for details.
- And of course, our Ice Cream Social in June and Holiday Party in December are always a lot of fun!

Next Up is QuiltCon! Those of you who have never been to a major quilt show (like Paducah, Houston, or regional AQS offerings), may not realize what an amazing opportunity it is to have The Modern Quilt Guild's QuiltCon so close and convenient. The wealth of displayed quilts, variety of vendors and numerous quilt technique demos will certainly enhance your quilting life. We hope to see you there!

Yours in quilting,
Judy
