PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE — JANE MCAFEE

It is the season for autumn fun. My husband and I took our 11-year-old grand twins to the Georgia National Fair in Perry. The guys quickly took off to explore the rides, while the gals, Cadence and I, headed to the horse barns.

Later, when we went searching for vendors to find Cadence a gluten free lunch, the VFW looked like a good option. After I placed an order for a burger with no bun, someone came and asked specific questions about her needs. He then cooked for her in a separate area and delivered not one, but two burgers! Thank you VFW!!!

After eating, Cadence was finally ready to head to my happy place to see the Georgia Living Programs. I enjoyed the quilts when Cadence wasn't distracting me with the many art exhibits that caught her interest. We weren't in there as long as I would have liked, but I gathered some ideas for future projects and I did find Joan Willcocks' quilt and one of David Scott's quilts. It was fun to see the work of our guild members represented at this event.

Cadence eventually got me back to the horse arena to watch the draft horse show. We arrived home late full of junk food and with an unanimous agreement to return next year.

It was a good beginning to my autumn fun. Check out this newsletter so you don't miss out on the exciting things going on during these autumn months. You will find information on the election, the wrap-up to our scrappy year, the auction and so much more.

Let me know what you enjoy about autumn! Email me at:

Happy autumn quilting!

Jane

AUCTION 2022

Joan Willcocks

LIVE Auction
Thursday, November 17 - 7 PM - FPC

The Auction is right around the corner!

I hope you are working on your hand-crafted items or constructing your unique, curated gift bundle for this event. Our starting price for each item will be $20, but they are worth so much more!

Are you uncertain as to what to make or assemble? Perhaps reviewing the items shown below will give you some ideas. Or you might consider:

- ◆ Wearables & accessories
- ◆ Knitted, crocheted, etc. items
- ◆ Tote bags, purses (can't have too many)
- ◆ Kitchen accessories, aprons
- ◆ Holiday ornaments & décor
- ◆ Wall hangings, bulletin boards
- ◆ Homemade doll clothes
- ◆ Complete kits (including patterns & fabric)
- ◆ The list is endless!

Sylvia Bolton made a fabulous, festive wall hanging for us. Just imagine it decorating your home for the Holidays!

Bring your donations (and your credit card, check or cash) to the night meeting on November 17th.

If you need a ride to the auction, please let us know at qgscquilters@gmail.com. If you can't make it to the auction, but are donating item(s), let us know and we will make arrangements to receive them.

Terrific Tool Tote, made by Judy Balek, measures 11"x9"x7" when closed. It is a great way to organize everything to take to retreat, the next class or Sew-In!

This quilted Project Tote includes two project boxes and two design boards. Handy to take with you anywhere.

Made by Judy Daymont

...And don't forget about these gorgeous quilt-inspired stained glass windows. They will be auctioned off individually, so you have three chances to take one home! Donated by Jane Coleman

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Jennifer Clay

On September 15th, I delivered 9 quilts and 60 pillowcases to Christian City. They were extremely grateful and the items will be much appreciated. Thank you to all who contributed.

We hope to donate 160 placemats to Fayette Meals on Wheels. However, we only received 80 by the October 7th deadline. Let's see if we can get another 80 made by Friday, November 4th. That will still allow us to deliver them before Thanksgiving. Placemats should finish 12" x 18".

Going forward

Please make every effort to complete your Community Service quilt. If you have a top that you are unable to make into a finished quilt, please prepare the backing & binding and contact Jennifer for a quilting referral. Robbin Manter has volunteered to guide and supervise members who wish to finish their quilt on her longarm at her house. We also have a few members with longarm machines who have generously offered to do some quilting for us.
