

"I am the Good Shepherd" John 10:14-16

Freedom Center Ministries Inc.

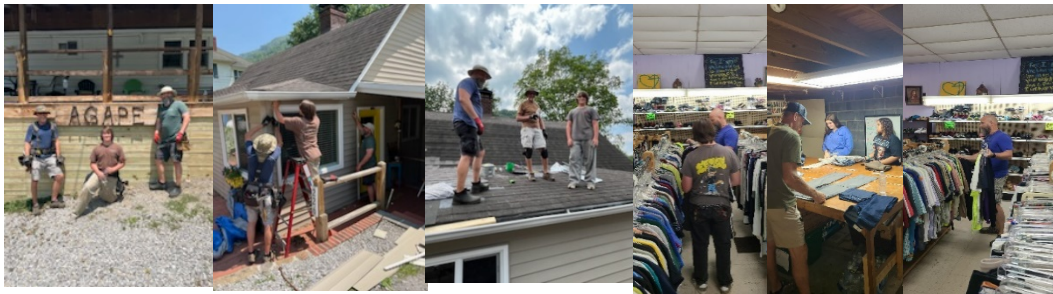

June - July 2025 news

Greetings Missionary Friends and Family,

When we ask Father God to bring folks across our path at FCM, we should watch and expect someone to come in who needs our assistance. One day, a friend and her daughter came in, and we listened to their story in regards to her daddy. They needed assistance with his funeral. We shared Jesus' love for them. Along with the funeral home, the FCM, and another ministry, made arrangements for the funeral. Shortly after, the daughter received Jesus as Savior and was baptized.

One of our South Carolina Church partners returned in June. It is always a joy to have friends from our home state. Our friends from New Hope BC in Seneca came to serve, and we showed them the ministry's needs. The mission house had some rain and wind damage. The Agape house had outdoor damage from the black bears getting into the garage cans. The team used their skills and talents to serve in God's ministry. The men repaired a roof, installed vinyl siding on the mission house, and put a wood skirt around the Agape House deck. While the women served in the FC shop and warehouse. The donations were inspected, sorted, and the shop was stocked for the families to meet their needs.

A Kentucky church came on its first journey to Lynch to help the community. They worked with several families and replaced a wooden fence at Agape House.

Here is another way God used us at FC. A couple from Virginia came over to Lynch for a friend's funeral and needed a necktie. A restaurant worker told him about FCM. He got a black tie. They were running late, so they asked to change clothes in the bathroom.

Other folks are just driving by and come in for prayer needs.

The July Back-to-School Mission Week was for God's glory. In obedience, four churches came on the annual journey: Buck Creek BC, Longs, SC, Wampee BC, Longs, SC, Indian Lake BC, Northport, AL, Memorial BC, Frankfort, KY, and 3 other churches were represented.

Father God is faithful. He blessed FCM with 70 volunteers who loved on 235 children and their parents. On Friday, two volunteer teams went up to Beaver Creek School and served 31 children. We are thankful for the Holy Spirit saving 26 souls. The local church will be contacted for follow-up with these salvation decisions. The volunteers served the community and the school children with love. Each child received food, new clothes, and new shoes at the foot-washing tent. They enjoyed playing outdoor games and getting their faces painted after a haircut. The last tent to visit was for family prayer.

- 856 friends served at FC, including Back to School Week
- 26 salvation decisions
- Faithful ministry and prayer partners

Prayer Warriors, we cherish your prayers!! Thank ya'll on behalf of our people group in The Appalachians; may God's blessings continue to flow to His people. Robin and George are humbled, "Serving our Father by serving His People" in the Southeastern Kentucky Mountains. Thank you for your PRAYERS and support! May God receive the glory and honor in our works.

PRAY TO THE ALL-SUFFICIENT ONE FOR:

- FCM folks on the prayer list: salvation, healing, lives transformed
- Local and worldwide missionaries
- Spiritual Awakening Around the World
- Missionary couple/family for long-term service with FCM
- Kentucky School Children and School Teachers

Throughout the world, cultures are different. As we serve in Kentucky, we learn about the mountain culture's likes and dislikes. The folk's needs are items of necessity. The clothes culture is blue jeans, hooded sweatshirts, flannel shirts, t-shirts, and boots/casual shoes. There are very few exceptions. The folks do not wear 100% wool, corduroy, old-style heavy sweaters, pleated pants, turtlenecks, shirts with advertisements, men's suits, or outdated clothes.

So, to be good stewards, the ministry will respect the culture and provide only basic needs. Also, this will help with seasonal warehouse space.

The ministry's needs are to be basic: shoes, bed sheets, bed blankets, comforters, towels, and housewares that include pots, pans, and silverware only. Thank you for your partnership in God's work and ministry.

FCM SHOP NEEDS AT THIS TIME:

- T-shirts with long and short sleeves for all genders, ages, and sizes
- Men's summer and winter tennis shoes size 9-13
- All sizes sheet sets (twin, full, queen, and king)
- Bath towels
- Kitchen pots and pans

In the Vine, John 15 ... Abide in Jesus Christ!
