October - November - December 2021 news

Greetings to our beloved Family and Friends,

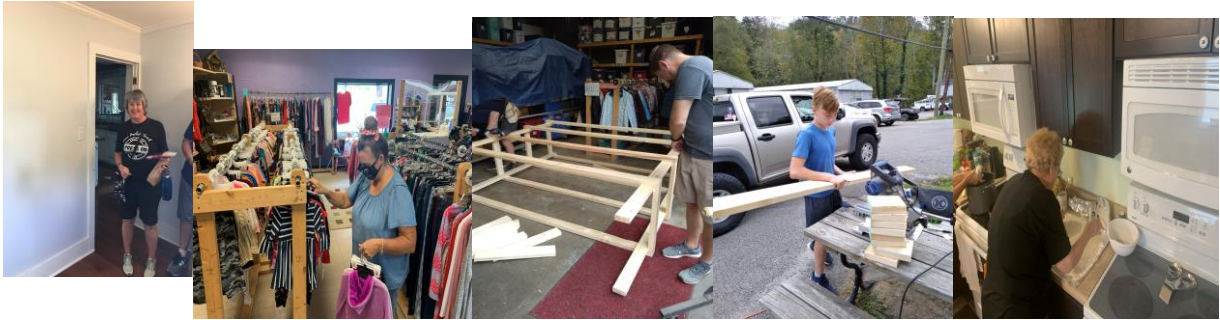

It was wonderful to visit with family and friends for Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays!

It is amazing how God is always on time. He cares about the details of our lives; we are not surprised but it makes us thankful of just how good He is to the children. A mission team from Freedom BC, Salemburg, NC unavoidable changed the trip dates three times. The FCM planned a coat give-away and the date was set. Well, yes you are right, the mission team scheduled and partnered with us for that date. Therefore, on that Saturday 53 folks were blessed with coats, toboggans, and gloves. We met and had fellowship with new and old friends. They all were prayed with and one sweet girl about 10-year-old received Jesus Christ as Savior. I share this story for God's glory!

As one may think of a miracle to be a great wonder or supernatural happening. Well, we experience a miracle this week under the house as we worked on the plumbing. God showed the mission team a loose joint in the pipe. That pointed to the main problem; a plugged pipe that we had for years. It could have been a terrible future problem. Again, God cares for the small and large things in our lives. The Union BC, Griffin, GA missionary family installed new pipes, wood flooring, built wood shelves in FC warehouse. They inspected, sorted, organized donations, and stocked the shop. Shared devotions with the local folks.

The folks in the community are blessed by the mission teams service and the donations they brought without the year. Some donated monetary gifts for other items such as new bed sheets and men blue jeans. FCM continued to serve community wide as they served hot chocolate and helped pack food boxes with local ministry.
