◆ Confidentiality & Anonymity

- Confidentiality: Do not disclose any proprietary information belonging to your client, employer, or organization.
- Anonymity: Names of individuals, employers, clients, or specific locations must not be included. (If you wish to share your own information, a clearly marked section of the form allows for that.)

◆ Quality of Submissions

- Accuracy of Information: Share only information you believe to be accurate. Clearly indicate when sharing personal opinion, interpretation, or experience.
- Safety First: Do not suggest or endorse practices that compromise safety or deviate from recognized codes, standards, or regulations. Lessons learned should be framed in the context of improving safety.
- Clarity of Lessons Learned: Keep submissions focused on the lesson or unexpected finding. Avoid excessive technical detail that may confuse the message or reveal sensitive information.
- Ownership of Submissions: By submitting, you confirm that you have the right to share the content and that it does not infringe on any third-party rights.
- Relevance of Contributions: Submissions should focus on lessons learned, hidden risks, or shared experiences related to equipment integrity. Content that is primarily sales-driven or promotional may be withheld unless it clearly supports the spirit of shared learning.
