

Rev. Pennon Lockhart, Ph.D.

415 Owatonna Circle, COSF 30296

678.644.2306 (C); 770.996.5810 (H)

www.glovismin.com

Rev. Lockhart is a retired (2023) Senior Pastor of Greenforest Community Baptist Church in Decatur Georgia, and a guest minister with the New Life Presbyterian Church in South Fulton. He is a former professor of theology and Biblical languages for the American University of Biblical Studies and former adjunct professor at Beulah Heights Bible University, Atlanta, GA. He also served as the lead professor of theology with the JEM Bible Institute of Jamaica.

His ministry in missions and research in the area of Biblical linguistics has taken him to Egypt, Ghana, Liberia, Benin, Ivory Coast, Mali, Senegal and many other international locations. He has authored numerous publications through Global Vision Ministries. His most recent works can be found at www.glovismin.com. Dr. Lockhart is a retired Mechanical Engineer, USMC veteran, and a member of the Association for the Study of Classical African Civilizations (ASCAC). He was a former board member for C.A.U.S.E. (Community Action Unified by Strength and Engagement) and the Chairperson of the Greenspace/ Parks and Recreation Committee.

Rev. Lockhart currently serves as president of the Chippewa Forest Home Owners Association, City of South Fulton. His wife of 54 years, (Dr. Charlotte Lockhart) died from breast cancer in 2024. He has two adult children and two grandchildren.

Updated March 5, 2026