

Donna Sneed

EVANGELIST “LADY D”

ABOUT ME

Donna “Lady D” Sneed is a licensed Evangelist, dynamic speaker, “teacher-preacher”, author, content creator, and entrepreneur with a powerful mandate to equip women to walk boldly in faith, discipline, and purpose. She is the author of the book, “Girl, Get It Done” and the 90-day journal “Sweet Peas & Pumpkin Heads,” along with multiple journals and notebooks available on Amazon that inspire growth, reflection, and execution.

With over 30 years in ministry and more than 25 years of preaching and teaching the Gospel, Evangelist Sneed is known for her bold, practical, and no-excuses approach to the Word of God. She carries a unique ability to bridge spiritual truth with real-life application, helping women move beyond hesitation, fear, and delay into purposeful action.

She holds a Bachelor of Christian Education, which strengthens her foundation in biblical teaching and discipleship. Her ministry is not only rooted in the Word but also structured with clarity, discipline, and intentionality.

In addition to her ministry work, Evangelist Sneed retired in 2023 as an Acquisition Support Supervisor within the Department of Defense, concluding a distinguished 37-year federal career in acquisition, leadership, and operational excellence. She brings this same level of structure, strategy, and execution into every message she delivers.

Lady D currently serves alongside her husband, Pastor Samuel Sneed, Jr., at the City of Refuge Church of God in Christ (COGIC), Cocoa, FL. For more than 18 years, she has faithfully helped build and support ministry that impacts lives and strengthens communities. Together, they are the proud parents of six daughters, grandparents of fourteen, and great-grandparents of three—demonstrating a legacy of faith, family, and generational impact.

At the core of her message is her signature framework, F.E.D.—Faith • Execution • Discipleship. Her heart is to ensure that those she reaches are grounded in faith, committed to disciplined execution, and living as true disciples of Jesus Christ.

Whether speaking at conferences, teaching in ministry, or training through her business and platforms, Evangelist Donna “Lady D” Sneed is committed to helping women rise up, move forward, and get things done.
