Oakley Police Partner With the "Coats for Vets Project"

The Oakley Police Department has partnered with the "Coats for Vets Project" to help promote vets and families in need this winter. The "Coats for Vets Project" is built on the belief that every Vet in need deserves to feel safe and thanked for their service during moments of need this holiday season. The Oakley Police department has partnered with two local students/residents who attend SVSU Lani Borrego, Kimmy Cruz who have spearheaded this project and we would like to thank them for their diligent work and efforts in this program.

The project kicked off October 24, 2025 and concluded November 21, 2025 with dedicated support from Granny's Kitchen, D's Party store, Frank's Supermarket and Big rock Coffee & Events for drop off locations. The total number of coats, hats and apparel collected was in the excess of 250 items, these
