The 13th Annual Young Authors Showcase
“United in Hope”

Submission Guidelines
DEADLINE: Friday, March 19, 2021

Theme:
The COVID-19 pandemic is a unique phenomenon in that it has affected every country around the globe. However, as is common in tragedy, hope shines through for those who persevere. Hope is a uniting force during this time as people struggle to cope with its ongoing effects and once again start to imagine a life without social distancing or wearing a mask. Indeed, the younger generation is capable of dreaming of a human existence that is even more dynamic, more advanced, and more resilient than ever before.

Students should explore the following questions through the lens of citizen diplomacy and include creative ways that we stand together looking toward the future.

How can the next generation of citizen diplomats help communities respond during and after the pandemic? In what ways does international experience affect an individual or community’s ability to stay hopeful? What are some examples or illustrations of coming together and celebrating our hope in humanity and its future? What are some unique ways that your city, country, or culture has proven to be hopeful during the past year?

Specifications:
- Students may only submit one (1) piece of writing.
- Articles can be creative writing, essays, anecdotes, and other written works excluding poetry. (The Poetry contest is separate and the application can be found with your teacher or on the Lexington Sister Cities website, www.lexingtonsistercities.org).
- Article submissions are not to exceed 500 words, and submissions must be written in English.
- All work must be original.

Entries:
Each participating student author must be between 13 and 18 years of age by April 1, 2021. All entries must be the original work of the entrant. Only new pieces inspired by the theme should be submitted.

Work must be submitted to Lexington Sister Cities by e-mail by Friday, March 19, 2021.

Email: lexingtonsistercities@gmail.com

Judging:
A panel will judge entries on the basis of originality, composition, and theme interpretation. Author’s name, title, description of work and name of school are kept confidential until judging has been completed. The judges’ decision will be final. The top five articles selected will be sent to Sister Cities International for the international competition.

International Competition: First, Second and Third place winners will be selected in the international competition. The Grand Prize Winner (first place) will receive $1,000, 2nd Place will receive $250, and 3rd Place will receive $100. The article will also be published on the Sister Cities International website.
