CEASE AND DESIST FINAL REQUEST
FROM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

September 20, 2025

To: Brett Scott Anderson
3528 Ragweed Valley Road
Royal, AR 71968

To: Members supporting Mr. Anderson: Tammy Armstrong, Donna Bamburg, Shirley Barr May, Tammy Buckaloo, Shirley Clostio, Ruby Gray, Debra Meziere, Belinda Smith, Monty Trichel, Audrika Young
(sent to each person's address of record on Tribal Registry)

LEGAL ISSUE (Attachment 1): The current Tribal Council has no legal standing for being an entity in the State of Louisiana. Without legal standing in the State of Louisiana, an entity cannot claim to be an IRS tax exempt entity. This article describes the laws the above group of people are violating. <https://www.ariellalaw.com/post/are-you-misrepresenting-your-nonprofit-organization#>

Brett Anderson was elected to the Tribal Council in February, 2018. He knows all of the following history.

LEGAL ISSUE (Attachment 2): The first legal entity (comprised of a few representatives of the "vetted individuals" of the Tribal Registry) was named the "Lac Noir Black Lake Tribe of Native Americans of Louisiana, a Nonprofit Corporation" It was legally formed in the State of Louisiana on January 12, 2016, with Charter Number 42013374N.

LEGAL ISSUE (Attachment 3): Fred Simon filed for sole business owner, under his private social security number, of his Intellectual Property which he called the "Tribal Registry" and described as an "Indian Tribe" business, doing business as a Native American Tribe, under the name of "Natchitoches Tribe of Louisiana" on June 17, 2016.

LEGAL ISSUE (Attachment 4): Fred Simon gave name use license to “Lac Noir” on June 17, 2016. On July 20, 2018, the “Lac Noir” was officially name-changed to “Natchitoches Tribe of Louisiana Nonprofit Corporation (NTL-NC).

LEGAL ISSUE (Attachment 5): The Officers of NTL-NC were re-affirmed on August 13, 2018. On October 4, 2018, (without Board authority and unbeknown to Fred Simon) Belinda Brooks filed IRS Form 1023-EZ, making an error of marking wrong box of “unincorporated association” rather than “corporation.” That error has been rectified. All Grant Funds and Donations have been handled by NTL-NC Treasurer Peggy Smith, since August 13, 2018, through the only Bank Account set up under the authority of NTL-NC.

All public transparency documents can be viewed at:
www.NatchitochesTribeOfLouisiana.info

LEGAL ISSUE: In December, 2024, the Tribal Council refused to follow the Board of Directors and Officers of NTL-NC. Their authority to function as a committee under the legal umbrella of NTL-NC was removed. Since then, the individuals who have remained under the control of Brett Anderson have taken over the Facebook and website belonging to the legal authority of NTL-NC. Through these two communication venues, they have persisted in giving wrong information to registered tribal members. They have allowed slanderous postings, denying access to registered tribal members in opposition to their views. They have rejected all prior “Cease and Desist” letters sent by NTL-NC Board of Directors.

LEGAL ISSUE: Through the two communication venues (Facebook, website), this group have requested donations. The Board has received information that Bank accounts have been opened by this fraudulent group, grants applied for, and donations have been accepted. All these financial activities are in violation of IRS laws as well as Louisiana State Chapter 12 Nonprofit Corporation Laws.

LEGAL ISSUE: The Board of Directors have taken multiple legal steps (required by State and IRS rules) to mitigate the damages being caused by a group of people who persist in denying the legality of the only legal corporation which provided liability coverage for volunteers since its founding on January 12, 2016. Tremendous financial harm has been done to NTL-NC. Its Board continues in their efforts to counter-act fraudulent actions which could implicate all volunteers (including those addressed in this letter) with IRS tax evasion charges.

LEGAL ISSUE: This is the final ‘CEASE AND DESIST’ letter that will be sent to this group. Individually, each of you have a decision to make. The deadline for your decision is 30 days from the date on this letter. The NTL-NC’s next action will be lawsuits, including class action suits, and reports made to the Attorney General’s office to stop tax fraud on the public.

COMPLIANCE ACTIONS REQUESTED
By Deadline

Number One. Transfer administrative control of FaceBook:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/402497333877971>

to Board of Directors of NTL-NC.

Number Two. Transfer webmaster control of <https://ntl-tribe.org/>

to Board of Directors of NTL-NC.

Number Three. Transfer control of all forward pointing domains (known and unknown) to website www.ntl-tribe.org (i.e., natchitochestribe.org) to Board of Directors of NTL-NC.

Number Four. Transfer control of all known and unknown email addresses used for administrative purposes (i.e., natchitochestribeoflouisiana@gmail.com) to Board of Directors of NTL-NC.

Number Five. Identification of all donations, fundraising, and grant applications made since December, 2024, and handled under the Tribal Council, excluding the legal NTL-NC Treasurer's approval and record-keeping, and all records and documents relating to such financial transactions to be transferred to the Board of Directors of NTL-NC. Any such financial items not turned over will be immediately referred to the State Attorney General's office upon discovery of such withheld financial information.

Number Six. Cease and Desist all activities which are identified as “for and on behalf of” the Natchitoches Tribe of Louisiana immediately upon receipt of this letter. Proof of delivery will be from various means, as permitted by the Attorney General’s guidelines: registered mail, known e-mail addresses, posting on NTL-NC websites, social media posts and re-posts, telephone notification, etc.

Number Seven. All individuals who wish to remain engaged in legitimate activities on behalf of the legally identified Natchitoches Tribe of Louisiana (by both Louisiana Secretary of State and IRS 501c3 Letter of Determination) are required to submit Volunteer Applications as described on website: <https://natchitochestribeoflouisiana.us>

They will be initiated into appropriate committees under the direction of the Board of Directors of NTL-NC as legally required by the State of Louisiana Nonprofit Corporation Laws. There is no timeline on this registration; however, if any activities are resumed by any individual outside of this legal process, they will be immediately reported to the Louisiana State Attorney General's office for violation of Nonprofit Corporation law and public financial fraud laws.

The Below Signed Board of Directors certify the contents of this letter and the Attachments described herein.
