PARISH

AUGUST

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH DURING THE TRANSITION

Good and Gracious God, We ask you to guide us in our time of transition. We need your wisdom, that we might be receptive to change, conversion and growth. We need your grace to redirect our hearts so we may be willing to offer ourselves in joyful service. Do not allow fear, ignorance or pride to limit the work of your Spirit. Strengthen us to be your Church in all times and seasons of life – a place where all are truly welcomed and embraced in your love; a place where we find ways You are active among us and calling us to join in Your saving work; a place where the story of your love and grace and mercy are embodied. We offer our prayers through Jesus Christ our Lord and through the intercession of our Mother of Perpetual Help. Amen.

A NOTE FROM FR. MATTHEW PERUMPIL, MI

“I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst”.

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

These words of Jesus in today’s gospel are central to our worshipping community. We come to Jesus because we hunger for Him. As we receive Him in the Eucharist, He fills us with His life. We get nourished, strengthened and renewed as we take part in this self-giving of Jesus. What a beautiful gift the Lord is giving us, His own very life to fill us with divine life?

Our coming together as a community to receive Him unites us, makes us part of His body-the Church. We become members of His body and one with others in the Eucharistic communion. During these difficult times of our transition we know there are many things that are dividing us. But if we truly hunger for Christ and come together as members of His body and receive Him in the Eucharist, all our differences will melt away. Because it is no longer, I, but Christ who is living in me and if Christ is living in me who can I be divided?

Imagine how the multiple grains are ground to make the one bread and how we take part in sharing from that one bread that is broken for us. Jesus became this living bread for us by dying on the cross to redeem us from all our sins. We are also invited to die from all that divides us and get united in Him who becomes our life in the Eucharist.

I pray with you that we may hunger for Him always and as we share His life in the Eucharist we may become one with Him healed of all divisions.

May the peace of Christ fill our lives with joy.

Fr. Matthew Perumpil, MI

Excerpts from the Message of the Holy Father for the First World Grandparents Day and Elderly

Dear Grandfathers and Grandmothers, Dear Elderly Friends,

“I am with you always” (Mt 28:20): this is the promise the Lord made to his disciples before he ascended into heaven. They are the words that he repeats to you today, dear grandfathers and grandmothers, dear elderly friends. “I am with you always” are also the words that I, as Bishop of Rome and an elderly person like yourselves, would like to address to you on this first World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly. The whole Church is close to you – to us – and cares about you, loves you and does not want to leave you alone.

At this crucial moment in history, you have a renewed vocation. You may wonder: How this can be possible? My energy is running out and I don’t think I can do much. How can I begin to act differently when habit is so much a part of my life? How can I devote myself to those who are poor when I am already so concerned about my family? How can I broaden my vision when I can’t even leave the residence where I live? Isn’t my solitude already a sufficiently heavy burden? How many of you are asking just that question: isn’t my solitude already a sufficiently heavy burden? Jesus himself heard a similar question from Nicodemus, who asked, “How can a man be born when he is old?” (Jn 3:4). It can happen, the Lord replies, if we open our hearts to the working of the Holy Spirit, who blows where he wills. The Holy Spirit whose freedom is such that goes wherever, and does whatever, he wills.

Given this, I want to tell you that you are needed in order to help build, in fraternity and social friendship, the world of tomorrow: All of us must “take an active part in renewing and supporting our troubled societies”. Among the pillars that support this new edifice, there are three that you, better than anyone else, can help to set up. Those three pillars are DREAMS, MEMORY and PRAYER. The Lord’s closeness will grant to all, even the frailest among us, the strength needed to embark on a new journey along the path of dreams, memory and prayer.

The prophet Joel once promised: “Your old men shall dream dreams, and your young men will have visions” (3:1). The future of the world depends on this covenant between young and old. Who, if not the young, can take the dreams of the elderly and make them come true? Yet for this to happen, it is necessary that we continue to dream.

Dreams are intertwined with memory. Memory can help to build a more humane and welcoming world. Without memory we will never be able to build; without a foundation, we can never build a house. And the foundation of life is memory.

Your prayer is a very precious resource: a deep breath that the Church and the world urgently need (cf. Evangelii Gaudium, 262). Especially in these difficult times for our human family, as we continue to sail in the same boat across the stormy sea of the pandemic, your intercession for the world and for the Church has great value: it inspires in everyone the serene trust that we will soon come to shore.

I ask the Lord that, all of us may open our hearts in sensitivity to the sufferings of the poor and intercede for their needs. May each of us learn to repeat to all, and especially to the young, the words of consolation we have heard spoken to us today: “I am with you always”! Keep moving forward! May the Lord grant you his blessing.

Adoration Chapel

Monday & Wednesday 9:00 AM to 9:00 PM
Tuesday 8:00 AM to 9:00 PM &
Thursday 8:00 AM to 8:00 PM
At the 106th Street location

Whenever you think that your visit to Our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration has little meaning, remember this: St. John Vianney (Cure of Ars) saw with his own eyes Jesus cup the face of each person who visited Him in the Blessed Sacrament and give each one a tender kiss of gratitude.

You are most welcome to stop in church for a visit or a few minutes of prayer. If you have any questions, please call Grace Elliott, 262-786-3840.

St. Aloysius Church Stained-Glass Windows

We are going to remove these windows from the St. Aloysius Church building to be used at a future date!

This project is set to begin within the next week. Conrad Schmitt Studios, Inc. will be working with us on this. A very generous donor has offered to match dollar for dollar up to $10,000, any donation made towards the reclamation of these stained-glass windows. The windows will be crated and stored and eventually used in the updating of our worship space at 106th and Lincoln.

Please make donation checks out to "Mother of Perpetual Help" and indicate on the memo line "windows donation".

Thank you for your generous support of our parish family!
