EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.

Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.

Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.

May our worship give glory to God.

May our service find its model in your discipleship. Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.

Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.
AMEN

“Every Tree is known by its own fruit”

This week we have the third and final section of Luke’s Sermon on the Plain. He tells us three parables to teach us how to be a good disciple. The blind cannot lead the blind. And a disciple cannot be a good disciple unless he or she has learned from the teacher. Before you can be a good disciple and teach others, you must take care of yourself. Do not try to take a speck out of your brother’s eye until you have taken the wooden beam out of your own. Finally, only when you have purified yourself can you produce the good works that the teacher requires. Discipleship asks us to produce good deeds. But to produce them requires the integrity and purity of heart found in the teacher. When people see your good deeds, they will know that this is because you have a good heart.

When our Lord spoke these words, his purpose and intention was not to condemn his hearers, the vast majority of whom were guilty of the defects he mentioned, but rather to open their minds and their hearts to their shortcomings so that they would change for the better and learn to live with their neighbor's faults, and do all in their power to correct their own.

It is for the very same purpose the Church has selected this particular lesson for us today. We are all guilty of rash judgment and unjustified criticism, to a greater or lesser degree. Let us turn this criticism on ourselves rather, and judge ourselves honestly and sincerely and in a short while we may, with God's grace helping us, notice a change in our Christian conduct. We shall not become saints in a week or a month but little by little, we shall find ourselves becoming more Christian and therefore more charitable towards our neighbor and less critical of the faults of others.

Jesus concludes his exhortation today with the familiar image of a tree producing good fruits. We all want to bear good fruits through our lives. It is a perfect preparation for us to enter into the season of Lent to renew ourselves, correcting and pruning where we need to and bring forth the best in us to which God is desiring of us.

MOTHER OF PERPETUAL HELP OF WEST ALLIS

THE MASS

Joseph P. Wittmann, MTS

AN INTRODUCTION

At Mass the People of God are called together, with the priest, to celebrate the memorial of the Lord in the Eucharistic Sacrifice. In our gathering as the local Church, Mother of Perpetual Help Parish, we experience the promise of Christ; “Where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I in their midst.” (Matthew 18:20) Direction is given in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, or GIRM 2000; “For in the celebration of Mass in which the Sacrifice of the Cross is perpetuated, Christ is really present in the very assembly gathered in his name, in the person of the minister [priest], in his word, and indeed substantially and uninterruptedly under the Eucharistic species.” (GIRM 2000 #27)

When we gather for Eucharist on Sunday we come as a community of the faithful to join in an act of worship. Sunday Mass is an act of worship when we thank God for all he has done and is doing in our lives and our world. Mass is a ritual that is rooted in Christ, passed on to us by the apostles and treasured by the Church through the centuries. It is human nature to cling to our treasured past and sacred rituals, it gives us identity and stability. When our rituals are disturbed, it can challenge us deeply. We are defined as Christians by what we do.

The Mass is an experience of mystery. The Liturgy of the Catholic Church is not like other churches, it offers more than an immediate experience. To celebrate the Mass, we must engage in the Mass as an interaction with the mystery of God; a mystery we may not understand fully and that will continue to change through our lives of faith. The Mass by nature is not instructional, it is worship! It is worship of God, a ritual by which we open ourselves to his holy mystery working in our lives. Our familiarity with the liturgy enables us to enter into the mystery of God present to us. Experiencing God's presence comforts, challenges and enables us to go forth from this church and transform the world. What an awesome gift the Mass is!

Throughout the weeks of the Season of Salvation (Lent through Pentecost) we will explore the Mass.

During the weeks of Lent

- I. The Introductory Rites
- II. The Liturgy of the Word
- III. The Preparation of the Altar and Gifts
- IV. The Liturgy of the Eucharist
- V. Holy Communion and The Concluding Rites

During the weeks of Easter

- VI. Three realities of the Mass; a Feast of the Passover Supper, a Sacrifice of the cross on Calvary and a Sacrament of the living Church today.
- VII. The liturgical vestments: the alb, a baptismal garment of every Christian, the stole, a sign of the church's commission to serve, and the chasuble "little house," a garment of welcome, compassion and hospitality.
- VIII. At Mass the presence of Christ is found; in the sacrament of the altar, at the ambo in his holy Word, at the chair in the ministry of the priest, and in the nave in the assembly of the Church.
- IX. The liturgical books: the Ordo that gives us directions, Roman Missal, the big red book on the altar, the Lectionary of readings, the Book of Gospels, and the Order of Worship.
- X. Seven supporting liturgical ministries at MPH Parish: Hospitality, Liturgical Environment, Sacristan, Minister of Music, Altar Server, Lector, and Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

Meet Our Staff

Joe Dusick: Parish Musician/Co-Director of Music

It is still a joy for me to provide musical accompaniment after forty-four years of being a musician at the former Mary, Queen of Heaven and, now, Mother of Perpetual Help Parishes.

My dad and mom were charter members of Mary, Queen of Heaven and I attended the MQH grade school from first through eighth grades. In my final year, I had the opportunity to regularly play for a couple weekday 7:00 a.m. masses, then I began to do the Saturday 8:00 am mass, then I had the chance to shadow Karyl Daluga at weekend masses, then... I was lucky enough to somehow ease into a job, and I'm still here more than four decades later.

I credit previous MQH musicians Virginia Ziegler, Jim Pluer, Mary Bregant, and Karyl Daluga as inspirations – thank you. Through the years, I learned much about liturgy from Sallyanne Hassert, and improved my skills while helping to create a vibrant parish worship program working with Directors of Music Barbara Taylor and Jill Hollister and Laurie Cosson – again, thank you. I am grateful to all who encouraged and shared their knowledge with me.

One can likely find me most weeks of the year in the church/office every single day, although at different hours and for varying lengths of time. Besides playing for masses, funerals, weddings, and other liturgical events, I also create the orders of worship, and, now with associate musician Andy Vaughn, plan music, coordinate and rehearse with cantors, accompany choir rehearsals, and do the other varied tasks that simply need to be done.

My appreciation is for all of you in the congregation who faithfully participate so well (and with whom I might at times have delightful conversations). If you leave mass with a good feeling – a sense of gladness and a bit of optimism – I hope that I may have played a part in that joy.

Andy Vaughn: Music Minister/Co-Director of Music

I have been blessed to minister in the area of liturgy and music since September of 1990. As a child, one of my lifelong dreams was to be a church musician, and God fulfilled my dream!

I studied music as an undergrad and graduate student, and have been playing for mass since 7th grade. Prior to coming to Immaculate Heart of Mary as minister of music and liturgy in August 2012, I was privileged to serve at St. Mary's Visitation – Elm Grove, Holy Family – Whitefish Bay, St. Mary – Menomonee Falls, St. Leonard – Muskego, St. Sylvester (now Divine Mercy) – South Milwaukee, St. Casimir – Riverwest, and St. Catherine of Alexandria near Northridge Mall (where I met Fr. Jeff). From 2004-2005, fill-in work took me to IHM and several other parishes.

In my current role, Joe Dusick and I work together with our wonderful parish music ministers (i.e. cantors, choir members, instrumentalists) in leading the sung mysteries of faith. In addition, Joe and I collaborate to select and prepare music for weekend and holy day liturgies, assist and accompany cantors, arrange for outside instrumentalists for special liturgies, and accompany the choir.

The ability to lead music for worship is a great honor and privilege which I hold dear to my heart. When away from parish duties (my hours are in the evenings and on weekends), I enjoy spending time with my wife and son.

Thank you for allowing me to serve Mother of Perpetual Help Parish.

Here are the church regulations for fasting and abstinence during Lent:

- Everyone 14 years of age or older is bound to abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, all the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.
- Everyone 18 or older, and under 59 years of age, is bound to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday.
- On Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, only one full meatless meal is allowed. Two other meatless meals, sufficient to maintain strength, may be taken according to each one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted. When health or ability to work would be seriously affected, the law does not oblige.

Catholics should not lightly excuse themselves from these prescribed minimal penitential practices.
