2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Mother of Perpetual Help,
you have been our refuge
from one generation to another.

Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.

Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.

Unite and guide us as people
of Faith, to become more like Jesus.

May our worship give glory
to God.

May our service find its
model in your discipleship.
Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.

Mother of Perpetual Help,
pray for us.
AMEN

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them; from the cloud came a voice, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him." Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them. - Mk 9:7-8

Se formó entonces una nube, que los cubrió con su sombra, y de esta nube salió una voz que decía: "Este es mi Hijo amado; escúchenlo". En ese momento miraron alrededor y no vieron a nadie sino a Jesús, que estaba solo con ellos. - Mc 9, 7-8

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

February 28, 2021
2nd Sunday of Lent

A pregnant woman was walking in the store and met an old friend. Her friend exclaimed, "You are absolutely beaming!" The new life God placed in her womb radiated throughout her body. It was brightly visible on her face and in her eyes. Transformation and change usually happen from the inside out. It is very rare that simply imposing structure from the outside does any good. Yes, it is true that routines and habits can change when things are done differently. But, for this change to last there has to be an interior renewal and metamorphosis as well. Simply regulating behavior and bringing someone into conformity with accepted protocols doesn't mean their heart and soul come with them.

Peter was a homeless man who lived in a very remote and rudimentary tent community. He was happy to make his daily trip to McDonald's and always welcomed a gift card or two so that he could buy some coffee and something to eat. A generous advocate worked to secure him an apartment in hopes of moving Peter out of his makeshift housing and into something safer. Peter finally got the grand tour of his new "digs," received his own key, remarked how wonderful the place was, closed the door behind him when they left and never returned. He preferred his tent. No matter how much things changed on the outside, Peter was happy where he was. A poignant lesson was learned that day.

How is your Lent going? By now you ought to have a sense of whether you're really "into it" this year and something transformational is happening. For many, it's only the stuff on the outside that changes for a few weeks and then they return to business as usual. For others, there are some real inner changes happening that are deepening their relationships with God, others, self, and creation. If we are serious about moving to a new place and radiating with the presence of new life and joy, then we have to clear the way to listen for God's call. Then, there is God's request to change things up a bit and order our lives differently. After realizing we have been called and given a mission, we have to trust that this is where we need to be. And then, after all of this hard work we are asked to act. The fruit that is revealed will indicate whether our journey is authentic. The brilliance of conversion will begin to shine on our faces as we contemplate the One to whom we are asked to listen.

MQSCA SCHOOL

Principal: Jennifer Vega 414-476-0751
Vegaj@mqscateacher.org

In our school mass this week, Fr. Andrzej reminded the students of the Lenten observances and highlighted the most important one—Prayer! As we continue our Lenten journeys and try to become closer to God, I am especially reminded of how blessed we are to be in a Catholic school. We are able to practice our faith in all that we do. Together, we are able to pray as a community, embark in service to others and share our faith with one another. We do not shy away from having conversations about God and we are fortunate that we can anchor our decisions and choices in the teachings of Jesus. Each Tuesday as I sit in mass with some of our students, I am thoroughly grateful for the opportunity to break bread with the students and parishioners who attend. Of course I was also grateful that Fr. Andrzej also suggested that students 'give up' some of their screen time!! Thank you for the support and prayers you provide to our school community!

In peace, Jen Vega.

When Sacrifice Becomes Mundane

It seems to happen every year, like clockwork: we drag a bit, as we enter into the second week of Lent. On Ash Wednesday, we feel a bit like soldiers banging our shields, rushing into battle. “We’re ready, God!” our hearts cry out. “Transform us through sacrifice! Your will be done!”

But by now, these Lenten resolutions are no longer novelties — they’ve joined the ranks of everyday inconveniences, which somehow are the hardest to bear. Because transformation, in real life, happens in inches, just as a battle is won slowly in the crash of one sword against another. It’s not always a dramatic thing, to the naked eye. It’s the perseverance in prayer despite weariness, or the continual denial of some pleasure even though there’s that nagging voice in our minds saying: go ahead, God doesn’t really mind.

It’s a week when we all need a shock to the system — and wouldn’t you know it, this Sunday God gives us a double-whammy of dramatic sacrificial scenes. We picture Abraham, who also cried “Ready!” when God called, never imagining what He would ask: the surrender of his long-awaited son. We see Christ himself transfigured, as God shows us what He is ready to give up for love of us.

We must remain committed, persevering daily in acknowledging that everything belongs to God. What we sacrifice, we simply give back to Him.

If God is for us, who can be against us? Can we still reply, “Ready!” when we hear the call of God?

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

LENT AND ADORATION

So...what are you sacrificing for Lent? Chocolate? Cheeseburgers? Exercising? (kidding) How about doing something instead?

We have the perfect opportunity for you. Mother of Perpetual Help (106th St.) has Eucharistic Adoration 4 days per week, so you can choose whichever day fits into your schedule.

“If we could see just a fraction of the graces available before the Blessed Sacrament, we would flock to the nearest chapel each and every day for Eucharistic Adoration.”

- Secrets of the Eucharist, Michael Brown.

Maybe you’ve already taken advantage of our invitation to join us for an hour or whatever time you have. But to make a commitment for the purpose of giving up some time to spend with Jesus this Lent is far better than any material item you could “give up”. Just remember—He is always here for you. This could be your best Lent ever!

(If you arrive after 1:00, please remember that you must call the parish office at 414 453-5192 for the code for the key pad.)

“None of us can introduce someone to a person we don’t know or can’t find. If we are rooted in Eucharistic devotion, we know who Jesus is and where we can always find Him. As someone once put it, the measure of our holiness and effectiveness with others is the degree to which God becomes real in our lives. Where can Jesus become more real for us than in the Blessed Sacrament?”
