PARISH

FEBRUARY

6

2022

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.

Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.

Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.

May our worship give glory to God.

May our service find its model in your discipleship. Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.

Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.
AMEN

A NOTE FROM FR. MATTHEW

“Put out into deep water and lower your nets for a catch”

As we started to journey through Ordinary Time, we met Jesus beginning his public ministry. Today we hear his call to his first disciples to follow him and to companion him in this ministry. Jesus is standing on the lakeside with a crowd pressing around him to hear the Word of God. Because of the crowd Jesus gets into Simon’s boat. Simon and his companions were tending to their nets after an unprofitable night’s fishing.

Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him to launch out to the deep and put down his nets for a catch. Simon protests, claiming that such an effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus' presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana. Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus “Lord” and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus' presence. But Jesus had bigger plans. This was just a beginning of the catch. He was calling them to be his disciples and with all their “unworthiness” to become catchers of people for God.

We hear in our first reading how Isaiah the prophet was called to proclaim God’s word. Yahweh touched his tongue with the Word of God and Isaiah became a great prophet of Israel. In the second reading we hear Paul talking about his calling to preach the gospel. Once a staunch persecutor of Christians, with a very personal encounter with the Lord, he becomes a great apostle of the gentiles. These are examples for us and an invitation to renew our baptismal call to bring the Good News to others.

How are we called today to share the Good News with the world? We might be feeling tired and hopeless like Peter and his companions fishing all night and getting none. Are we inviting the Lord to our boats and listening to his words and putting our nets deep where he tells us? Let us be assured that the Lord does not consider our “unworthiness”, but encourages and works with us to become fishers of people by sharing the Gospel with convictions and faith.

While thanking God today for our Christian faith, with its clearly-drawn map of salvation, let us show our appreciation by doing our own little part, as humble apostles, weak but willing helpers of Christ. We do so by living as true Christians in our homes, in our places of work, and in our recreations, by carrying our cross daily and patiently, ever ready to give a hand when the neighbor's cross seems too heavy for him. This will be Christian eloquence, this will be a true apostleship of Christ, because actions speak louder than words.

Fr. Matthew

Meet Our Staff

Margaret Rondeau:

Pastoral Minister of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish

It is truly an honor and a privilege to minister to the faith community of MPH—doing so has been my “second career” for the past 7 years. My primary ministry is to visit the sick and homebound members of our parish and bring them holy communion. It is important for them to know they are still an integral part of our parish family. I lead communion prayer services at several care facilities in the surrounding area and assist bereaved families at parish funerals. I earned my certification in lay ministry through the Saint Claire Center at Cardinal Stritch University.

One thing people are often surprised about is that I worked for 34 years as a dispatcher for the Wauwatosa Police Department. In that job I learned how to maintain my composure in times of crisis.

When not at work, I enjoy scrapbooking, journaling, and reading a good book. Going out to eat with friends and visiting Door County in the fall with my sister Jackie are also high on the list of things I like to do. I am an associate member of the School Sisters of Notre Dame which means I meet with other members of the SSND community and learn more about growing deeper in my faith and prayer life and sharing the Gospel wherever I may find myself.

Because the Lord had other plans for me, I have never been married and have no children. As the scripture tells us... “Have a heart like that of a child”... that’s me! My family is small... most of them are in heaven already. Personally, I look forward to the day when the Lord calls me home! Perhaps my vehicle license plates best sum it up... “BNOTAFD” (Be Not Afraid – Psalm 27).

In God’s Love,
Margaret Rondeau
Pastoral Minister of MPH

At the 106th Street location

“At Lourdes, there are numerous daily Masses and prolonged Eucharistic adoration.

Eucharistic processions with the blessing of the sick also occur frequently. For that matter, it is then that the major miracles and healings of Lourdes are worked! Mary describes Jesus in the Eucharist as a fountain overflowing with spiritual riches spilling over upon those who come into its presence. Scripture says that he made himself poor through love of us, divesting himself of glory and majesty, in order to enrich us with his grace and array us with his glory (cf. 2 Cor 8:9; Phil 2:8) each time we go to him in the Blessed Sacrament.” (Fr. Florian Racine, Could You Not Watch With Me One Hour?, Ignatius Press, 2014).

You are most welcome to stop in church for a visit or a few minutes of prayer. If you have any questions, please call Grace Elliott, 262-786-3840.
