JANUARY

2022

FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Mother of Perpetual Help,
you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.

Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.

Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.

May our worship give glory
to God.

May our service find its model in your discipleship.
Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.

Mother of Perpetual Help,
pray for us.
AMEN

A NOTE FROM FR. MATTHEW

"Today this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing"

This Sunday we read from the Gospel of Luke, continuing immediately from last week's Gospel and we learn that the people of Nazareth are impressed by Jesus' words, "all spoke well of him and were AMAZED at the gracious words that came from his mouth." But that amazement soon turned into doubt and then into fury. This rejection of Jesus by his own town people must have sincerely grieved him. But it was only the beginning of similar rejections. Their attempt to murder him was an indication of what was yet to come. The reason was that the Messiah they were looking for was a political leader who would make Israel a political power not only among the nations but over the other nations. They did not want a spiritual kingdom, but a temporal, political liberator.

Last Sunday we also heard the mission of Jesus and how Jesus wants each of us, his disciples, to continue to propagate that mission and continue to build the spiritual kingdom he came to establish. Through our Christian teaching we have learned that our life on this earth is but a period of preparation, a period during which we can earn the true life as citizens of his eternal kingdom.

How often do we, like the Jews of Christ's day, forget this and bend all our efforts to building for ourselves a kingdom of power or wealth in this world, a kingdom which we will have to leave so soon? We would not, of course, openly deny Christ, much less try, like his neighbors in Nazareth, to throw him to his death over a cliff. But how often in our private actions, and in our dealings with our neighbors, do we push him and his teachings quietly aside and act as if we knew him not? In this we are no better than Christ's neighbors of Nazareth and we grieve his loving heart as much as they did on that sad day.

It is true that to live the mission of Jesus we may also face oppositions, rejections, humiliations and even death. His early followers on whom the church is founded were all martyred for their faith and it is no wonder that the powers of this world will continue to fight the Kingdom of God Jesus came to establish. But if we stand with the Lord, he will work through us and His Kingdom will prevail.

Fr. Matthew

Secretarial Staff Members

Kelly Simkowski: Parish Secretary

I have been the parish secretary at MPH since 2016. I work Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday and am responsible for answering phones and greeting visitors at the door. I also take care of all correspondence to and from the office, post financial contributions and keep the records of all sacraments.

Prior to coming to MPH, I was the parish secretary of St. Rita Parish in West Allis for 14 years, and I also worked for 10 years at the Catholic Herald newspaper in editorial production. When I'm not at work I enjoy reading, cooking and camping. I also love spending time with my husband, 3 grown children and my 2 granddaughters.

Gaye Pellant: Parish Secretary

I work Monday through Thursday in the parish office. My job includes mailing out bulletins to the homebound, answering the phone, filing, mailings, check the mail and printing the Sunday worship booklets and funeral booklets. When I am not at work I enjoy gardening, arts and crafts, reading mystery books and astronomy. I have one son, his wife and 3 granddaughters which I like to spend time with. I started working at St Aloysius in January 2005 as one of the secretaries, then merged to MPH Parish in June, 2018.

Leanne Effinger: Bulletin Editor

Monday and Tuesday are my days in the parish office. My job includes compiling all the articles that people send in for the bulletin and submitting the bulletin on Tuesdays, answering the phone calls and helping people who come to the parish office. I have worked for MPH Parish for the past 10 years. When I am not at work I enjoy being with my family and friends.

"Jesus could have limited his presence only to the celebration of Mass, but no! He wanted to make a permanent dwelling among us. Night and day he awaits us and offers himself to us at all times. Like a most tender mother, he opens his arms to us. He is there generously to give us his gifts. He is there to draw us to him and lead us to paradise with him. Oh! Let us go visit him often." (Saint John Bosco).

You are most welcome to stop in church for a visit or a few minutes of prayer. If you have any questions, please call Grace Elliott, 262-786-3840.
