REFLECTIONS FROM FR. MATTHEW

“The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few”

Today's Gospel begins immediately after the final verse in last Sunday's Gospel. After strong language about the difficulties of discipleship, Jesus immediately appoints 72 people to go ahead of him to every town and place he plans to visit, proclaiming that the Kingdom of God is at hand. He sends them in pairs.

Jesus admits it will be difficult, that he is sending them out like lambs among wolves. Yet they are to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They are to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. When they enter a house, their message is simply “peace.” The response they will receive may be positive or negative. Either way, they are to know that the Kingdom of God is at hand. They are not to demand special treatment, but eat and drink whatever is given them. They are to stay in one house and are not to look around for one that provides better accommodations. They are to heal the sick as a sign that the Kingdom of God is at hand for them. Like Jesus' miracles, healing is a sign of the coming of the kingdom. If the town will not receive them, they are to shake the dust from their feet and move on. Even in the case of such rejection they should know that the Kingdom of God is at hand.

When they return from their journeys, they are rejoicing because their mission has been successful. Demons were under their power because of Jesus' name. Jesus may have sent them out as lambs among wolves, but at the conclusion of this passage he assures them that they have been given power over the enemy and nothing will harm them, not even serpents and scorpions.

A key theme of today's Gospel and last Sunday's Gospel is discipleship—its challenges, its difficulties, and its rewards. Sharing in the mission of Jesus is difficult, but everyone is called to do it, not just some professionals trained for ministry. Even for us today, the harvest is plentiful. We should pray to the master of the harvest to send out workers for his harvest.

As we celebrate the 4th of July, we not only celebrate the freedom we enjoy in our country, but we commit our lives to promote freedom for everyone in our nation. Freedom as the children of God, enjoyed and shared by everyone. We also pray for our country in these difficult times, that we live up to the ideals of our nation that make us shine as beacons of light among other nations.

VOLUNTEER Any day, any time!
 (Monday through Friday 9:30am-3:30pm)

Do you find joy working with children?

Do you have an hour or two each week to serve God by supporting an elementary or middle school-aged child or small group of children in a classroom setting?

The Milwaukee Academy of Chinese Language, a K-8 Milwaukee Public School is looking for caring adults who enjoy working with children to support them in a variety of ways. Volunteers choose the grade level of the student(s) they work with (K3, K4, or any K5-8th) and the subject matter they prefer (math, literacy, art, physical education, or music).

Our group of 2021-22 volunteers were eager to come back each week and shared some remarkable stories of how they found joy connecting with our awesome students. We are fortunate at MACL to enjoy the diversity that reflects God's rich creation! While most of our students are native to Milwaukee, some are immigrants from Afghanistan, southeast Asia, and Africa.
