REFLECTIONS FROM FR. MATTHEW

“Take care to guard against all greed... one’s life does not consist of possessions”

The gospel this week begins with a question to Jesus from a man in the crowd who tries to draw him into an inheritance dispute with his brother. But Jesus refuses to intervene and questions him about greed. Jesus uses this opportunity to teach him and us about life and our attitude toward wealth by the parable of the Rich Fool.

The man is introduced as already rich, and his lands have yielded more crops than expected. His response is not to consider how he might share all the extra food with others but to wonder how he can possibly store it all. He has what he thinks is a brilliant idea: to tear down his present barns and build larger ones. Then he will have many things stored up for years of eating, drinking, and making merry. He does not see that this blessing is from God. His “retirement plan” is a self-centered recital of “I will,” well punctuated by references to “my”. The rich man considers he owns everything: crops, barns, grains, and even his own soul. Jesus tells the crowd a parable.

“You fool” is God's response to this man because that very night his life will be taken away. To whom will everything belong then, God asks. The rich man's world is small, just him and his possessions, and now he learns that he is to lose his life. What good are his possessions now? Jesus states the moral of the story. This is how it will be for everyone who stores up treasure for himself or herself but is not rich in what matters to God. Jesus reminds us through this story, “Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions”.

If we are to combat greed, it is important to evaluate what we treasure and value. Jesus invites us to look at this example and reflect on our own lives. What are we looking for? What will satisfy us? Nothing can satisfy us except our relationship with God. When we come to realize that God is our greatest treasure, we begin to notice that material things are not as important. Likewise, when we recognize that relationship with God is our deepest longing, we come to know that part of this relationship is caring for others by sharing the gifts God has given us. Life does not consist in possessions but in sharing what we possess with others.

We have had someone who has been approaching parishioners before and after Mass asking for assistance. Please do not give them money. Tell them to call the parish office and we can direct them to our St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you.

Outreach to our Homebound: Collaboration with St. Camillus Serves

Our Human Concerns Committee and St. Camillus Serves, have been looking for areas where we can collaborate as we seek to further accompany our many homebound (for any reason) parishioners.

St. Camillus campus residents have collected items and put them together for us into gift bags called "Senior Care Kits." These will be distributed via personal delivery by our parishioners to the homebound. This will be done together with the distribution of communion, and accompanied by a friendly visit!

If YOU would like to assist with this ministry by visiting one of your neighboring parishioners, we will be delivering the gift bags the first 2 weeks in August..

Please contact either

Kathy or Margaret via email or the parish office.

Also, if you know of anyone in our parish who would benefit from this, again, contact Kathy or Margaret.

The Social Committee of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish invites you to join us at the following events:

'Save the Dates'

Sunday, Sept. 18, 2022 – Parish Mass and Picnic

Saturday, Oct. 15, 2022 – Parish Movie Night

Saturday, Jan. 14, 2023 – Dinner / Show

As always, watch the bulletins for details of upcoming events. Please put these dates on your calendar and we hope to see you there.
