Mission Statement

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

Prayer for Our Parish

Mother of Perpetual Help,
you have been our refuge from one generation to another.
Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.
Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.
Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.
May our worship give glory to God.
May our service find its model in your discipleship.
Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.
Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.
AMEN

GOD'S WORD

As in any new counter-movement, early Christians made their case regarding Christ's identity and redemptive work under perilous conditions and the possibility of persecution. Their faith and commitment were expressed at enormous risk. This is still true for Christians in some places and situations, but not for most of us. Today's readings challenge us who are not personally endangered: How compelling is our personal faith commitment?

Acts 5:27-32, 40b-41 The apostles testify boldly before the Sanhedrin.

Rv 5:11-14 All creation is called to worship Christ as redeemer.

Jn 21:1-19 Jesus feeds his disciples, calling them to love.

FROM THE PASTORS' DESK

Today's Gospel narrative shows us the rehabilitation of Peter, who denied Jesus three times in the courtyard of Caiaphas, repented, and then received Primacy in the Church from Jesus. The Gospel also shows us God in search of man, even when man tries to evade Him.

Scripture Lessons:

The first reading, taken from the Acts of the Apostles, tells us how the Holy Spirit transformed Peter, whom Jesus had appointed head of his Church, from a man fearful of powerful men into a brave witness to the Resurrection. Peter stands before the Jewish Supreme Court – the Sanhedrin — boldly announcing that he and the others must obey God rather than men. The second reading, taken from Revelation (the Apocalypse), presents John's vision of the Risen Lord as the glorified "Lamb of God," enthroned in Heaven. The whole of Revelation is an expression of Christian hope in the Risen Lord. Today's Gospel tells the post-Resurrection story of our merciful Savior Who goes in search of His band of disappointed and dejected disciples. The incident proves that Jesus' post-Resurrection appearances were not mere hallucinations. In the first part of today's Gospel, the risen Jesus appears to His disciples and gives them a symbol of their mission in a miraculous catch of fish followed by a grilled fish breakfast prepared by Jesus himself. The second part is a dialogue between Jesus and Simon where Simon is asked three times whether he loves Jesus, and he answers that he does, as if in reparation for his triple denial of Jesus. The two metaphors used in the story, namely fishing and shepherding, are the duties of the Church in her missionary work. Peter, as a forgiven sinner, is chosen for the quality of his love to serve as leader in a community of brothers and sisters. As his primary mission, Peter is given the care of the vulnerable lambs and sheep, and he is told that fidelity to this mission will lead him to martyrdom.

Life Messages:

We need to open our eyes, ears and hearts wide to see, hear, and experience the Risen Lord coming into our lives in various forms, circumstances and events: 1) The Risen Lord blesses us with success and achievements. We often fail to acknowledge the presence of the Risen Lord behind our unexpected successes, great achievements, promotions at work, miraculous healings, and success in relationships. He is right there in our parties, celebrations and occasions of rejoicing. 2) The Risen Lord is present in our pains and suffering: Acts 9:1-13 tells us how the Risen Lord transformed the life of Saul by pushing him down onto the Damascus road and making him temporarily blind. The same Jesus often visits us in the form of accidents, illnesses, the loss of dear ones, pain and suffering, and problems in relationships.

Did you know that MPH sells SCRIP (Substitute Cash Redeem In Person) after the 4:00 PM Mass at the 116th Street site in the entrance area and after the 8:00 AM and 11:00 AM Masses at the 106th Street site in the former office area. SCRIP can be purchased by check or with cash.

Gift cards available include: Piggly Wiggly, Roundy's (Pick 'n Save"), Sendik's, Meijer, Speedway, Kwik Trip, Target, Amazon, Starbucks and Kohl's. Special request orders can be made. Just let us know.

What is SCRIP and how is it used? SCRIP is a way for parishioners to support the parish without spending any additional out-of-pocket money. MPH purchases gift cards from the SCRIP program at a discount which ranges from 2% to 9%, depending on the store with an average being 3-4%. SCRIP is then sold to parishioners at face value. Last year MPH made over $3,400 through the sales of SCRIP.

SCRIP is used like a gift card where you shop as usual and pay with the gift card. Kohl's has the added benefit of allowing you the use of your charge card for purchases and SCRIP to pay your charge statement.

Mary affirms that if we respond to her requests, Russia will be converted, her Immaculate Heart will triumph, and true peace will spread across the earth. Eucharistic adoration fulfills Our Lady of Fatima's requests: prayer, penance, and sacrifice." (Fr. Florian Racine, Could You Not Watch With Me One Hour? Ignatius Press, 2014).
