6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

MISSION STATEMENT

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.

Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.

Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.

May our worship give glory to God.

May our service find its model in your discipleship. Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.

Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.
AMEN

FROM THE TEMPORARY ADMINISTRATOR FR. ALAN

A blessed Mother's Day to our parish members who in one way or another share the role of "mothering".

In a way, Mother's Day can be considered our parish's feast day. Mary is our spiritual mother, always being there for us with her perpetual help. We are indeed blessed to have her as patroness of our parish.

We are so fortunate that the Archbishop has appointed Fr. Matthew to shepherd MPH effective June 15. His official title is Administrator. Archbishop ListECKi appoints priests as Administrators and usually after a year or so, after a thorough review of "how things are going", if all is going well, he appoints the priest as Pastor. When you see Fr. Matthew make sure you extend a warm welcome.

Check the bulletin in the next week or so for more details regarding the final two masses at St. Al's. We thank God for all the good ministries which happened there for 100 years. We also look forward to an incredibly bright future as we move into the next 100 years as a united parish.

The closing date for the sale of the 92nd Street property has been set now for mid June. That will allow for more time in removing icons, statues, etc, etc for possible use in a redesigned unified worship space in the future.

Thanks for all the good work and continued support.

Fr. Alan

Choosing to Love One Another

Love one another. The greatest commandment, the simplest commandment — and if you've ever loved anyone, you know it's also the hardest.

I'm man enough to admit it. I've seen one or two of those cheesy Hallmark movies that are especially popular around the holidays. Boy meets Girl. Boy and Girl encounter a catastrophic roadblock to their relationship — they're coaches of rival high school volleyball teams, or he runs a dog kennel and she works at a feline rescue, so it could never, ever work out, right? But sprinkle a little movie magic over the whole situation and Boy and Girl find what Hallmark tells us is true love.

I could make a list of all the things that are inaccurate about these movies, and something I would put right near the top — maybe even above the sometimes-unbelievable storylines — is the idea that love is a feeling.

See, I'm not sure if it's accurate to call these movies love stories. Attraction stories, sure. But if you've ever forgiven someone who's hurt you, nursed a dying parent, gotten up for an infant's night feeding or let your kid have the last piece of cake, you know that real love is a verb. It's something you do. And it is almost always a choice.

Love one another. How often do we hear this? How often do we think about what it really means? How often do we take a moment to consider the action Jesus is asking us to take and the choice he is asking us to make?

MQSCA SCHOOL

Principal: Jennifer Vega 414-476-0751
Vegaj@mqscateacher.org

What a fun week Teacher Appreciation Week was as we celebrated the immense contributions of the entire school staff to make this year a success. We had raffle items, a potluck, breakfast and other treats to show our gratitude for our staff; they sure deserve it! Thank you for keeping us in your prayers, we would not have been able to do it without your support! Can you believe that we only have 5 weeks of school left? For being as chaotic as it felt at times, it has sure gone by fast! We still have some availability in many classes, especially our K3, K4 and K5 rooms. We know how important early childhood education is for kids, so be sure to spread the good news about our school! I am available to answer any questions that families might have about what next year will 'look' like, but we will be returning to in-person learning for all kids. I can't think of a better place for kids to begin their academic journey than MQSCA.

In peace,

Jen Vega

6th Sunday of Easter

“Remain in my love,” and, “I call you friends,” are powerful words that are found in John’s Gospel. Most of us probably have them committed to memory or have at least heard them proclaimed dozens of times. They are words that can easily become trite and quickly glossed over without fully pondering and digesting their profound beauty. When we take the time to immerse ourselves in them, they can radically change our lives and our relationships. They can open up new doors of adventure and hold countless possibilities for meaning. The essence of love and friendship are things that can easily be taken for granted. They have always been there and are a significant part of our lives. Many would say that they could not live without love and friendship, and they put a great deal of care into preserving, deepening and sustaining them. Love and friendship share a mutual relationship with each other that deserves more reflection.

Where does love come from? We can consider relationships that have not succeeded and conclude that they were somehow due to our “failures in love.” In doing so, we assume that human beings are the ones responsible for love, its success and also its failure. While our weakness, emotional composition and sinfulness can easily impact our ability to love, its origin is not human. God is love. God is love’s author and origin. When we love, it is God who loves in and through us. It is because of this divine closeness that Jesus is able to call us friends! It is not because of anything we have done but simply because of who we are. Realizing and contemplating this awesome reality becomes a game changer across the board. It gives us reason to clear the table of anything that can adversely affect the way we love so that we can open the door for its author to shine forth.

Coming upon this truth is what leads folks like St. Francis of Assisi to leave that which is comfortable and worldly and live a radical life. They relate with the love of God that radiates in and through all living things and appreciate their sacredness. It was having an intimate experience of God’s love and friendship that propelled St. Francis and others to embrace simplicity, act nonviolently, pursue humility, love enemies, care for the earth and open up avenues for true justice. Understanding this profound truth will also help us find peaceful solutions to the world’s problems, restore relationships with our sisters and brothers, bring the grace of loving stewardship to creation and heal many wounds. Once we begin to see how wonderfully holy all of life really is, we discover joy. We lose our need for fear, develop a fierce fortitude, act prudently and seek justice. There is great power in love because it comes from God. It will never fail. It also enjoys the company of two other friends who are eager to become our friends as well: faith and hope. These are just as important to have and to share.

“There are times when we yearn for the real presence of loved ones who are no more. The Eucharistic Heart of the Savior has given us the real presence of his Body, his Blood, his Soul, and his Divinity. Everywhere on earth wherever there is a consecrated host in a tabernacle, even in the most far-flung missions, he remains with us, the sweet companion of our exile. He is in each tabernacle, patiently waiting for us, eager to grant us favors, yearning for our prayers....” (Fr. Reginald Garrigou-Lagrange, O.P.)
