IN ORDINARY TIME

“The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, ‘Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.’” - Mt 25:20

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

Mission Statement

We are Catholics of Mother of Perpetual Help Parish in West Allis, Wisconsin. We encounter Jesus and grow as disciples through the Sacramental Life of the Church. We seek to proclaim the joy of the Gospel of Jesus Christ through His life-giving and saving Death and Resurrection. We are called and sent to form new disciples through our worship, our service, and our witness, to share the joy of living the Good News in the world today.

Prayer for Our Parish

Mother of Perpetual Help, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.
Intercede for us now with your Son Jesus.
Help our parish to be an instrument in the hands of God.
Unite and guide us as people of Faith, to become more like Jesus.
May our worship give glory to God.
May our service find its model in your discipleship.
Make us living witnesses of unfailing hope in our troubled world.
Mother of Perpetual Help, pray for us.
AMEN

33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time/Nov. 15 2020

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

November 15, 2020
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

God gives us the gift of His very self and asks us to invest it. Investing God's greatest gift of Himself wisely, allows God's kingdom to grow and flourish. God trusts us with this pearl of great price in hopes that it will produce abundant fruit. While God's gift of self is realized in the gifts of faith, hope, and love, they are not meant to be solely for personal benefit. They are intended to be shared and are at the heart of Jesus' blueprint for happiness, the Beatitudes.

When we properly invest God's greatest gift, His most treasured possession, we invest in the wellbeing of all of our brothers and sisters and the world in which we live. We take up most seriously our call to be stewards and properly manage, not only our own affairs, but the affairs of those around and before us. God has put tremendous confidence in us. Do we have that same confidence in God?

We often go the extra mile and put in the additional effort when it comes to those concerns closest to us: our families, friends, careers, home and securities. But when it comes to things that are not as close to us, we can become lax and less conscientious. Tending to God's treasure requires a great deal of focus and persistent hard work. It demands that I see the bigger picture, God's picture, in which self-sacrifice is a given as we labor for the establishment of God's kingdom, God's vision. Fear and a lack of trust can loom large, however. We are afraid of letting go of what is "mine" and apprehensive of jeopardizing what we have in order to venture into something bigger and more promising.

Fear and a lack of trust serve no purpose in God's kingdom. They benefit neither the person nor God. What is required is a courageous resolve that produces the fortitude necessary to stay the course and do what God is asking. Doing all in our power to cultivate the seeds of faith, hope, and love in our world, working diligently to put all of our relationships in proper order, becoming attentive to systems and ideologies that hurt and oppress people, being mindful of injustice, and laboring on behalf of the poor and the needy are at the core of what each of us is asked to do. It is how we invest God's most precious gift wisely. If persistent, alert and attentive, then life will gradually improve around us, there will be greater peace and we will experience joy.

MQSCA SCHOOL

Principal: Jennifer Vega 414-476-0751
Vegaj@mqscateacher.org

Our November focus is on service. The students are spending time learning about service and the impact service can have on a community. In learning about service, we are also learning about St. Teresa of Calcutta and her countless contributions to humanity. It was amazing to discover that one of my good friends worked directly with Mother Teresa in India. His experience working alongside her was transformative. We hope that our students will also be transformed and take what they are learning in the classrooms and apply it to their lives. My own experience in Jesuit schools has created a strong desire to serve others. As soon as we are able, we will be launching a school wide initiative of service where each grade takes on a service project. In the meantime, we are hosting a school wide food drive. All donations will be given to the MPH food pantry and the class that donates the largest percentage of items will receive a dress down day. Thank you for your continued support as we continue to transform the lives of our students.

St. Ben's Covid-19 Update:

Buried in Your Backyard

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried 25 years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others many years later the trends of the day and how student life was at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone — the current students as well as those now grown — laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those 25 years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to Him and those around us for His glory. As time has passed, hopefully we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard, we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don't need to find a shovel.

Catholics and the Mystery of Death IV: How to Help a Grieving Person during the Holidays

A family member, neighbor, co-worker or friend may be dreading the approach of the holidays and you are wondering how you can help them. Here are some thoughts:

1. Listen to them. Listen to their feelings, their thoughts, their stories, their memories. Then listen some more.
2. Become at ease with any bursts of emotion. Don't immediately force any tissue on them. Let them emote.
3. Go on walks with them, on their schedule, preferably outdoors.
4. Assist them if they wish, with their holiday chores: shopping wrapping, decorating, mailing.
5. Assist them, if they wish, with their everyday chores: grocery shopping, errand running, household tasks or child care. Remember their energy is in short supply.
6. Let food be an elemental way to express your loving care. Take meals in to them or invite them to eat with you.
7. Give them a gift basket or box that they can open immediately and fill it with things like a candle, writing, some of their favorite treats.
8. Accept and protect their need for privacy and solitude.
9. Let go of any expectations about how they should grieve so they can grieve in their own best way.
10. Be a consistent, calming, accepting presence with phone calls, your emails, your visits, your notecards.
11. If they ask for your feedback on decisions they are making, give it. If they ask...
12. Radiate genuine hope for them, either with or without your words.
13. Ask them, “What would help?” and then do it.
14. Be present to them after the holidays in as many ways as before the holidays. Each time brings its own need.
15. Carry this person you love, and carry their loved one too, in your heart and soul through each of the days leading up to and away from each holiday. You need not let them know you are doing that because if you really are doing it, they will know and be grateful.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Brothers and Sisters of MPH Parish,

Once again, thank you for all the kindness, prayers and good wishes you have sent my way these past few weeks. This week I want to share some news as well as some thoughts for us as we move forward. I will begin with my current situation.

- ◇ A few years ago, when my gallbladder surgery happened, I found out that I have what is called NASH or Non-Alcoholic Fatty Liver disease. It has several possible side effects, but mostly invisible symptoms until they begin to occur. The past year or so I had some digestive and other physical issues and found it had progressed to cirrhosis. Around Labor Day weekend I became very ill and went to the hospital the first time. I have had several attempts at treatments but, none have brought any permanent relief. On the 6th I was transferred from Elmbrook to Froedtert and have since learned that my long-term prognosis will require a liver transplant. Over the past two weeks the process to figure out the details and possible time frame have been taking place. I know that this will mean a significant change in my life for a while, but I wanted to share that information with all of you at this time. When I know more, I will share that with you as the story unfolds. I would also like to tell you how important it is to take care of yourselves. Fatty liver is impacting millions of lives, and many people are unaware that it can often be treated successfully before it's too late. It is truly a challenge to us all, especially given our lifestyle and diet as North Americans.
- ◇ As we talk about so many of the challenges to our lives and the life of our parish community, we often wonder what will happen next? First, as mentioned in previous communications, we have received an offer from a charter school to purchase our St. Aloysius property. The Archbishop has given us the necessary permission to move ahead with negotiations. If all works out, we will be selling the property shortly after the New Year.
- ◇ At that time, the 7 PM Mass Sunday night will move to the 106th Street site. We will share in a farewell mass after Christmas, and then move on with our plans to create one liturgical site. To move ahead, we will also be implementing the rest of the Mass changes the first weekend of July. We waited two years to make this move and the time has come to embrace it. All weekend masses will take place at the 106th Street site beginning July 4th weekend. I have learned several important lessons during these last months and beginning each day with confidence and faith renewed is the only way to continue our development as a Faith Community. I know it is hard for all of us, and I know and respect the fact that some will choose not to continue with us, but the time has come to act faithfully and sincerely. To continue to stand still or accept the status quo will only prolong implementing decisions that have already been made.
- ◇ Let us move together as we strive to come closer to God through our Worship and Ministry. There will be more information in the monthly letter in two weeks, and until then, please be safe, be careful and take care of yourselves as we make our way through these interesting and challenging times.

Peace,

Fr. Jeff
