

5.

What was your favourite spooky read so far?

.....

.....

6.

Why was it your favourite?

.....

.....

.....

.....

For more about The Librarian, his dark tales
& the village of Weeping Bank, visit www.weepingbank.com

THE WEEPING BANK LIBRARY CHALLENGE

Discover the chilling tales of The Librarian &
the stories that inspired him

GO ALL IN.

National Year of Reading 2026

THE WEEPING BANK LIBRARY CHALLENGE

Go to www.weepingbank.com/challenge or scan the QR code below

1.

2.

Watch & listen to The Librarian read
his short story,
'The Ghast'.

3.

Read,
or listen,
to two classic
ghostly tales

4.

Now it's time for you to continue your own reading journey by visiting your local library. If you're not sure where to start, ask a librarian, or check out these

You can also read further recommendations for books, audio & online content on the challenge webpage.

Stephen King's
'Night Shift'

Shirley Jackson's
'The Haunting of Hill House'

H.P. Lovecraft's 'The Call of Cthulhu &
Other Weird Stories'

Daphne du Maurier's
'The Birds and Other Stories'

Susan Hill's
'Woman in Black'

Henry James's 'The Turn of the Screw &
Other Ghost Stories'